GREETINGS. I am returning herewith Senate Bill No. 1059 without my approval. This bill is practically a duplicate of Senate Bill No. 450, already passed, and accomplishes the same result except that No. 1059 carries an urgency clause, while No. 450 does not.

The bill provides that when a supervisor is elected, but fails to qualify by taking the oath of office or filing his official bond in the manner and within the time required by law, and is thereafter appointed to fill the vacancy in the board of supervisors which was created by his failure to qualify, the office for the unexpired term, by "unexpired term" is meant from the time of his nomination after appointment until the expiration of the term for which he was originally elected.

Under the present law, as set forth in section 4004 of the Political Code, an appointee under such circumstances would only hold over for one general election, at which he or his successor would be elected for a full four-year term.

This bill, No. 1059, is made an "urgency measure" to take immediate effect. However, the bill clearly in one which changes "the . . . term . . . of any officer", under the provisions of section 1, Article IV of the Constitution, and therefore can not be an "urgency measure". The fact that there is an urgency clause in the bill, and that there is a statement in the title that the bill is an urgency measure, will not preclude the bill, but the bill will not take effect until the time when nonurgency legislation enacted at this session takes effect, and is subject to referendum in the same manner as such other nonurgency legislation.

Respectfully submitted

FRANK F. MERRIAM, Governor of California.

Amendment No. 3.

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out lines 3 to 22, also strike out all of page 2, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 2. Each operator of a motor vehicle within this State who transports or desires to transport for compensation or hire persons or property upon or over any public highway within this State shall make application to the State Board of Equalization, on such forms as said board may prescribe, for a license to operate motor vehicles for the transportation of persons or property for hire or compensation over public highways in this State.

All applications for licenses must be accompanied by a fee of twenty-five dollars. Upon the receipt of the application of any such operator, accompanied by such fee, the State Board of Equalization shall issue to such applicant a license to transport for compensation or hire persons or property upon or over any public highway within this State; provided that no license issued in pursuance of this act shall be construed to authorize the operation of any vehicle over or upon the public highways of this State contrary to the laws now or hereafter in effect regulating the operation of motor vehicles. No license issued hereunder shall be assignable by operation of law or otherwise.

All licenses issued under the provisions of this act shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next succeeding the date upon which they are issued. Licenses issued hereunder must be renewed annually upon application made to the State Board of Equalization on such forms as it may prescribe. All applications for renewal of licenses must be accompanied by a fee of fifteen dollars, and must be filed not later than the fifteenth day of December next preceding the year for which the renewal is sought, otherwise, such application must be considered as an application for a new license and the twenty-five dollar fee paid accordingly.

In the case of a person, firm, association or corporation, who is engaged as an operator, as herein defined, exclusively in the carrying of United States mail or parcel post under contract with the United States Government, if his compensation for such carriage is less than twelve hundred per annum, the fee to be paid upon application for a license or for renewal of a license shall be five dollars instead of twenty-five dollars and fifteen dollars respectively.

"SEC. 6. Section 771 of the Probate Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

771. Stocks or bonds may be sold and title thereto passed without the necessity for confirmation, upon obtaining an order of the court. A petition for such an order shall be filed with the clerk, who shall set the same for hearing by the court and shall give notice thereof for the period and in the manner required by section 1200 of this code, but the court or judge may order the notice to be given for a shorter period or dispensed with. The order shall fix the terms and conditions of sale, and when the minimum selling price is fixed or when the securities are to be sold upon an established stock or bond exchange, no notice of sale need be given.

SEC. 7. Section 1530 of the Probate Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1530. If the income of an estate under guardianship is insufficient for the support, maintenance and education of the ward and of such members of his family as he is legally obligated to support and maintain, including his care, treatment and support, if confined in a State hospital for the insane, or if the personal estate and the income from the real estate is insufficient to pay his debts, his guardian may sell any of his real or personal property, or mortgage or give a deed of trust upon any of his real property for that purpose, or exchange any of such real or personal property, whenever it appears it is for the advantage, benefit and best interests of the ward and such members of his family as he is legally bound to support and maintain, subject to authorization, or confirmation or direction by the court as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 8. Section 1531 of the Probate Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1531. When it will benefit a ward to sell any of his real or personal property and to put out the proceeds at interest or invest the same in some productive stocks or bonds, or in the improvement or security of any other real property of the ward, his guardian may sell the same for that purpose, subject to confirmation by the court, or authorization in the case of stocks or bonds, as hereinafter provided. The order confirming the sale, or authorizing the sale of stocks or bonds, must specify the particular disposition to be made of the proceeds, or it may direct the deposit of the whole or any portion thereof in a savings account with one or more banks, in which case the money so deposited may be invested from time to time under further directions of the court.

SEC. 9. Section 1534 of the Probate Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1534. Sales by guardians may be at public auction or private sale, as the guardian deems best. All proceedings concerning sales by guardians, giving notice of sale, reselling the same property, return of sale and application for confirmation thereof, notice and hearing of such application, making orders authorizing the sale of stocks or bonds, rejecting or confirming sales and reports of sales, ordering and making conveyances of property sold, and allowance of commissions, must conform, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this code concerning sales by administrators, unless otherwise specially provided in this chapter."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1 of the printed bill, in the last line of the title, after "1923", insert ", and to provide for the succession to the duties, powers and funds thereunder of the Division of Weights and Measures of the State Department of Agriculture, by the State Board of Equalization".

Amendment No. 3.

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out all of line 1 after "SECTION 1.", and all of lines 2 and 3, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "The title of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

An act prohibiting the bringing in, sale and distribution in this State of crude petroleum oil illegally produced and of gasoline, distillates, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel extracted, manufactured, distilled or compounded, in whole or in part, from crude petroleum oil or gas illegally produced; providing for certificates to be filed with the State Board of Equalization, at the time of bringing into this State of any crude petroleum oil, gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel, certifying that such crude petroleum oil was not illegally produced or that such gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel was not extracted, manufactured, distilled or compounded from oil or gas illegally produced, and providing for a permit for taking delivery of such crude petroleum oil, gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel, and the fee to be paid therefor, and prescribing penalties for violations of this act.

SEC. 2. Section 2 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of every person, firm, corporation or association bringing into this State, from any other State or nation, any crude petroleum oil for delivery, sale, distribution, use, refining or blending therein to file with the State Board of Equalization, or any person authorized by that board, a certificate that such crude petroleum oil was not produced, in whole or in part, in violation of any law of said State or nation in which such crude petroleum oil was produced, or of any order, rule or regulation of any board, commission or officer having jurisdiction to enforce such law in that State or nation; it shall be the duty of every person, firm, corporation or association bringing into this State, from any other State or nation, any gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel for delivery, sale, distribution, use or blending therein, to file with the State Board of Equalization, or any person authorized by that board, a certificate that such gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel was not extracted, manufactured, distilled or compounded, in whole or in part, from any crude petroleum oil or gas produced in violation of any law of the State or nation in which such crude petroleum oil or gas was produced, or of any order, rule or regulation of any board, commission or officer having jurisdiction to enforce such law in that State or nation.

Such certificates shall be issued by and over the official seal of such board, commission or officer and shall contain the names of the seller and buyer of such crude petroleum oil, gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel, the names of the producer and of the field or production of the crude petroleum oil to be brought in or of the crude petroleum oil or gas from which the gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel to be brought in was extracted, manufactured, distilled, or compounded, in whole or in part, and such other information as the State Board of Equalization may require.

Sec. 3. No person, firm, corporation or association shall unload or cause to be unloaded or take delivery of any crude petroleum oil, gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel brought into this State for delivery, sale, distribution, use, refining, distilling or blending therein, without first having obtained a permit to do so from the State Board of Equalization or the person authorized by that board in the county in this State in which such crude petroleum oil, gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel is sought to be brought; for each of such permits a fee of twenty-five dollars shall be paid into the oil substitution fund. There is hereby appropriated out of such fund such amount or amounts as may be necessary for the support of the State Board of Equalization in the enforcement of this act.

SEC. 4. Section 4 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. Every person, firm, corporation or association bringing into this State crude petroleum oil, gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel for which a certificate and permit are required under the provisions of sections 2 and 3 of this act, shall on or before the fifteenth day of each calendar month, render to the State Board of Equalization on forms prescribed by that board a true and complete report of all such crude petroleum oil, gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel brought into, delivered, sold, distributed, used, refined, distilled or blended during the preceding month, showing date of delivery, sale or distribution, number and size of barrels or other containers, total number of gallons, names of consignor and consignee or persons to whom delivery, sale or distribution was made, the net quantity consigned, delivered, sold, used, refined, distilled or blended, and such other information as the State Board of Equalization may require.

SEC. 5. Section 5 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. The State Board of Equalization may make its own investigations to determine whether or not any crude petroleum oil brought into this State was produced in violation of any law of the State or nation in which such crude petroleum oil was produced, or of any order, rule or regulation of any board, commission or officer having jurisdiction to enforce such law in that State or nation, or whether any gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel brought into this State was extracted, manufactured, distilled or compounded, in whole or in part, from crude petroleum oil or gas produced in violation of any law of the State or nation in which such crude petroleum oil or gas was produced or of any order, rule or regulation of any board, commission or officer having jurisdiction to enforce such law in that State or nation.

SEC. 6. Section 6 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6. Every person, firm, corporation or association who brings or who assists another to bring into this State for delivery, sale, distribution, use, refining or blending therein, any crude petroleum oil, gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel without the permit provided for in section 3 of this act, and every person, firm, corporation or association who sells, distributes, offers for sale or distribution or assists in the sale or distribution in this State of any crude petroleum oil, gasoline, distillate, kerosene, gas oil or other motor fuel knowing the same to have been brought into this State without the permit provided for in section 3 of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and such product so brought in shall be seized and destroyed by the State Board of Equalization.

Every person, firm, corporation or association who files a certificate required by section 2 of this act knowing such certificate to have been issued under false representations, and every person, firm, corporation or association who refuses to file the report provided for in section 4 of this act, or who knowingly makes any false statement therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 7. Section 7 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the State Board of Equalization to enforce the provisions of this act.

SEC. 8. The State Board of Equalization shall succeed to and is hereby vested with all the duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities and jurisdiction of the Division of Weights and Measures, of the State Department of Agriculture, in so far as such duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities and jurisdiction relate to the provisions of the act cited in the title hereof.

The State Board of Equalization is hereby vested with the power and is charged with the duty of administering and enforcing said act, and said board shall be in possession and control of all records, books, papers, equipment, supplies, moneys, funds, appropriations and other property now or hereafter held for the benefit of said Division of Weights and Measures, of the State Department of Agriculture, or said State Department of Agriculture, in connection with the performance of any duties, powers, purposes, and responsibilities with respect to said act. All lawful rules and regulations established under said act by said Division of Weights and Measures, of the State Department of Agriculture, or the State Department of Agriculture, are hereby expressly continued in force until rescinded, modified, or changed by said board."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Oil Industries.

Amendment No. 20.

On page 6 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of lines 41 and 42 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 14. Section 14a of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 14a. Every person before engaging in the business of selling at retail gasoline, distillate, or other petroleum products, for use as fuel for internal combustion engines, shall obtain from the State Board of Equalization a license effective for the fiscal year ending June 30th, after issuance thereof, authorizing the licensee to engage in such business. For this license the licensee shall pay annually a fee to be determined by the number of motor vehicle fuel pumps installed and used, or to be installed and used, or from time to time installed and used, for such licensee in such business, computed at the rate of one dollar for each such pump.

Before granting any license authorizing the licensee to engage in such retail business, the State Board of Equalization shall require the licensee to file an application with said board in such form as shall be prescribed by said board, which application shall be accompanied by the license fee due from the applicant, the amount thereof to be determined in the manner herein above set forth. All such applications shall be filed with said board on or before the first day in July of each year and payment made for an annual license as herein specified. Every licensee shall at all times conspicuously display any license so granted hereunder on the premises in which such licensee is doing business. No proration of the license fee shall be allowed or made on account of licenses obtained after the beginning of the fiscal year, and the fee of any licensee hereunder shall be immediately increased by one dollar ($1) for each such pump put into operation subsequent to the issuance of his original license for any fiscal year.

If anyone required to be a licensee hereunder shall fail to apply for a license and pay the fee herein prescribed prior to putting into operation any motor vehicle fuel pump, or if any licensee shall fail to renew the license previously issued prior to July 1st of any year, then the fee charged for the issuance of such license with respect to any such pump not properly licensed within the time required by law shall be increased to two dollars ($2) for each such pump.

All license fees so collected under the provisions of this section shall be credited to the "Oil substitution fund", which fund is hereby created, and there is hereby appropriated out of such fund such amount or amounts as may be necessary for the support of the State Board of Equalization in the enforcement of the provisions of this act."

Amendment No. 21.

On page 6 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all lines 43 to 47, both inclusive, and "California" in line 48, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 15. Section 15 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 15. The State Board of Equalization, and every person authorized by it,".

Amendment No. 22.

On page 7 of the printed bill, as amended, between lines 14 and 15, insert the following:

"Sec. 16. Section 16 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 16. (a) The State Board of Equalization and every person authorized by it and any person now or hereafter authorized or empowered by law to inspect the petroleum products herein referred to, are each hereby authorized to and empowered to close and seal outlets and inlets of any unlabeled or mislabeled receptacles, containers, pumps or storage tanks connected thereto, containing any petroleum product which is sold, offered for sale, stored, or delivered, as or which is, any petroleum product specifically mentioned, defined or described in sections 1, 3 or 4 of this act, and to post in a conspicuous place on the premises, where such receptacle, container, pump or storage tank connection thereto has been sealed, a notice stating that such action of sealing has been taken in accordance with the provisions of this act, and giving warning that it is unlawful to break, mutilate or destroy the seal or seals thereof, under penalty as hereinafter provided.

(b) Upon at least twenty-four (24) hours' written notice from the owner, manager or operator, whose container, receptacle, pump or storage tank has been sealed, to the State Board of Equalization or its authorized representative, stating that the contents of such container, receptacle, pump or storage tank will be removed or that such container, receptacle, pump, or storage tank or inlet end of the fill-pipe thereof will be properly labeled as in this act, provided, at a specified time, between the hours of nine a.m. and four p.m. of a day specified in said notice, other than a holiday, it shall thereupon be the duty of such board or its authorized representative, at the time specified, to break said seal or seals for the purpose of permitting the removal by such manager, owner or operator, of the contents of such container, receptacle, pump or storage tank connected thereto, or the use thereof after proper labeling of the same, provided that such removal of contents or proper labeling of the container, receptacle, pump, storage tank or inlet end of the fill-pipe thereof, as the case may be, shall be made at the time specified and in the presence of the authorized representative of the board removing such seal. If for any reason the contents are not then removed, or the container, receptacle, pump, storage tank or inlet end of the fill-pipe thereof, is not properly labeled, then such container, receptacle, pump or storage tank connected thereto and the inlet end of the fill-pipe of such storage tank, shall be again sealed as hereinbefore provided and the contents may not thereafter be removed or the container, receptacle, pump or storage tank connected thereto or inlet end of the fill-pipe thereof, be again used, except upon the giving of a new notice and proper labeling. Upon removal of such contents or proper labeling as hereinabove provided, the notice previously posted shall be removed and said container, receptacle, pump or storage tank may thereafter be restored to lawful use. No container, receptacle, pump or storage tank connected thereto, or the inlet end of the fill-pipe of such storage tank, shall, however, be relabeled by such owner, manager or operator, whether under the provisions of this section or otherwise, without first removing from such container, receptacle, pump or storage tank connected thereto, or the inlet end of the fill-pipe thereof, any and all distinctive colors, brands, trade-marks or trade names thereon of any manufacturer, refiner, producer, distributor or marketer, indicative of any product not actually contained therein and sold therefrom.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person other than the board or its authorized representative, to break, mutilate or destroy any seal or seals placed upon a container, receptacle, pump or storage tank connected thereto, or any other storage tank containing a petroleum product, when placed thereon as provided by this act, or to cover, deface or remove the notice of sealing hereinabove provided."

Amendment No. 23.

On page 7, line 15, of the printed bill, as amended, after "Sec.", strike out "14", and insert in lieu thereof "17".

Amendment No. 24.

On page 7 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of lines 27 and 28, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 18. The State Board of Equalization shall succeed to and is hereby vested with all the duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities and jurisdiction of the Division of Weights and Measures of the State Department of Agriculture, in order as such duties, powers, provisions, and provisions and regulations made in the provisions of an act entitled "An act to prevent fraud and misrepresentation in the distribution and sale of gasoline or other motor fuels, motor oil, kerosene, and lubricating oil, regulating the manufacture and distribution of such products, defining the duties and duties in relation thereto of the State Board of Examinations, and persons authorized by it, defining gasoline and kerosene and specifying penalties for persons who on or after the said date of said act, or any subsequent date, shall be guilty of any offense hereof, and repealing acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith," approved June 5, 1929, as amended.

The State Board of Examinations is hereby vested with the power and is charged with the duty of administering and enforcing said act and said board shall be in possession and control of all records, books, papers, correspondence, and all moneys, funds, appropriations and other property now or hereafter held by the board, of use of said Division of Weights and Measures of the State Department of Agriculture, or said State Department of Agriculture in connection with the performance of any duties, powers, provisions and provisions and regulations made in the provisions of any laws and regulations, established upon and by said Division of Weights and Measures of the State Department of Agriculture or by the State Department of Agriculture, are hereby expressly continued in force until rescinded, modified, or changed by said board."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and referred to Committee on Oil Industries.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 10.

Relative to memorializing the President and Congress to adopt legislation for the employment of jobless citizens in the mining of chromium and tin deposits of the United States.

WHEREAS, There are many millions of men in these United States who still find themselves without employment in gainful occupations; and

WHEREAS, There are many valuable but low grade deposits of chromium and tin in California and in other parts of the United States, which said deposits though of low grade, could still be worked to the benefit of said jobless citizens and for the welfare of the United States as a whole; and

WHEREAS, The employment of citizens at such mining industry would not in any way compete with private industry but would promote desirable public development; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California jointly, That the President and Congress be memorialized to investigate and enact legislation toward the employment of jobless citizens of the United States by government control and development of chromium and tin deposits of the United States; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be respectfully submitted to the President of the United States, President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each of the Senators and Representatives of the State of California and Congress.

Amendments from the Floor.

During third reading of Senate Bill No. 78, the following amendments, offered by Senator Hays, were read:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 8 of the printed bill, add to section 10 thereof, following line 24, the following:

"Provided that whenever the commission shall determine to acquire, construct, extend, complete or improve a public utility system or works of any kind authorized under this statute, with moneys to be borrowed from the Federal Government, the State Government, or any person or persons whatsoever, by issuing bonds or otherwise, it shall cause an estimate to be made of the cost thereof, and shall by ordinance or resolution provide for the issuance of bonds or the borrowing of money under the provisions of this statute, which ordinance or resolution shall set forth a brief description of the contemplated system, works or improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the amount, rate of interest, time and place of payment, and other details in connection with the issuance of the bonds. Such bonds shall bear interest at a rate of not more than six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and shall be payable at such times and place not exceeding forty years from their date, that shall be prescribed in the ordinance or resolution providing for their issuance. Such ordinance or resolution shall also declare that a statutory lien shall exist upon the property so to be acquired, constructed, extended, completed or improved and include provisions whereby revenue is to be obtained or rates fixed for such public utility service to be collected prior to the payment of all of said bonds, and shall pledge the revenue derived from such public utility system, or works, for the purpose of paying such bonds and interest thereon, which pledge shall definitely fix and determine the amount of revenue which shall be necessary to be set apart and applied to the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds and the proportion of the balance of such revenue as income which are to be set aside as a proper and adequate depreciation or reserve account, and the remainder shall be set aside for the reasonable and proper maintenance and operation thereof. The rates to be charged for the service from such public utility shall be sufficient to provide for the payment of interest upon all bonds and to create a sinking or other retirement fund to pay the principal thereof as and when the same became due, and to provide for the operation and maintenance of the system and to provide an adequate depreciation fund. Said ordinance or resolution shall also provide for the calling of, and call an election for the submission of the question of the issuance of said bonds for the purpose set forth in said ordinance or resolution to the qualified electors within said city, county or local governmental agency and if at said election two-thirds of the vote cast shall be in favor of the issuance of said bonds, the said ordinance or resolution shall go into immediate effect, otherwise said ordinance and resolution shall be null and void; provided, however, should the proposition so submitted at said election fail to receive the requisite number of votes of the qualified voters voting at such election to incur the indebtedness for the purpose specified, the legislative body or the commission of such city, county or local governmental agency shall have no power or authority within one year after such election, to call or order another election for incurring any indebtedness for the acquisition, construction, extension, improvement or completion of improvements or property substantially the same as voted upon at such prior election, unless a petition signed by at least fifteen per cent of the qualified electors of such city or local governmental agency computed upon the total number of votes cast therein for all candidates for Governor at the last preceding election at which a Governor was elected, be filed with the commission or legislative body requesting that said proposition, or a proposition substantially the same, be submitted at an election to be called for the submission of such proposition and to be held in accordance with the provisions of this act. Said election shall be held within sixty days after the passage of said ordinance or resolution and no notice of said election need be given other than by publication of said ordinance or resolution at least once a week for four weeks in a daily newspaper printed and published in said municipality, publication to be completed not less than ten days before the date of said election; but, if there be no daily newspaper within the territory covered by such municipality, the notice of such election may be published in a weekly newspaper printed and published therein, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then by posting such ordinance or resolution in three public places therein, not less than ten, nor more than twenty days, before the date of said election. Except as otherwise provided herein, said election shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the general law."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 11 of the printed bill, add to section 14, at the end thereof, immediately following line 24, the following:

"Provided, however, that no city or local governmental agency or board or department thereof shall issue revenue bonds or other bonds or incur any indebtedness for purposes authorized by this act which, together with the amount of bonded indebtedness of such city or local governmental agency, shall exceed fifteen per cent of the assessed value of all real and personal property in the city or local governmental agency subject to taxation for city or county purposes.

Recess.

On motion of Senator Schottky, at twelve o'clock and thirty minutes p.m., the President pro tempore of the Senate declared recess until two o'clock p.m.

Reconvened.

At two o'clock p.m., the Senate reconvened.

Lieutenant Governor George J. Hatfield, President of the Senate, in the chair.

Assistant Secretary Carl A. Shipkey at the desk.

Consideration of Daily File.

Second Reading of Senate Bills.

Senate Bill No. 887—An act to add a new section to the School Code to be numbered ----, relating to the public school system.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Education, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 887 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill, after the word "act", insert the following: "to amend the titles of Articles IV and IVa of Chapter IV of Part I of Division VI of the School Code, to amend sections 6.210 and 6.211 of the School Code and".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out all of line 2 of the same, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "Section 6.210. All buildings, structures, and fixtures of school districts within the boundaries of such districts are altered, declared the property thereof and preserving their status shall have effect immediately."

Amendment No. 3.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, after the period, insert the following: "The title of Article IV of Chapter IV of Part I of Division VI of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Article IV. Sale or Lease of Personal Property by One District to Another.

SEC. 2. Section 6.210 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows: 6.210. The governing board of any school district of any type or kind is authorized to sell any unused personal property belonging to the district to another district and the governing board of such other district is authorized to purchase the same, for an amount equal to the cash value of such property, the estimated cost of purchasing, storing and handling such property, without advertisement for or receipt of bids or compliance with any other provisions of this code.

SEC. 3. Section 6.211 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

6.211. The governing board of any school district of any type or kind is authorized to sell or lease used personal property belonging to the district to another district, and the governing board of such other district is authorized to purchase or lease the same, the selling price and the terms of sale or the lease price and the terms of lease to be fixed by the governing board of boards of the school districts effecting such sale or lease, and authorized by the county superintendent of schools, and such sale or lease may be made without advertisement for or receipt of bids, or compliance with any other provisions of this code.

SEC. 4. Article IVa of Chapter IV of Part I of Division VI of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Article IVa. Sale or Disposition of Buildings, Structures, and other Fixtures by One District to Another.

SEC. 5. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 6.213 and to read as follows:

6.213. When any territory withdrawn from a school district pursuant to any provision of this code contains a school building, site or real property, the building, site, together with the fixtures thereof, shall, upon the withdrawal of such territory becoming effective, become the property of the district or districts such property becomes a part or the whole.

If a dispute arises between the governing boards of the two districts concerned as to what constitutes fixtures, a board of arbitrators must be appointed whose function and duty it shall be to determine what fixtures, as a building, building fixtures within territory withdrawn from any school district are fixtures thereof. Such board shall consist of one person selected by the board of the district from which such territory is withdrawn and one person selected by the district of which it was become a part, and a third person appointed by the county superintendent of schools of the county in which said districts are located, provided, however, that the two districts involved may mutually agree that the person appointed as arbitrator by the county superintendent of schools may act as sole arbitrator of the matters herein mentioned and be submitted to arbitration. The necessary expenses and compensation of any arbitrators appointed pursuant to this section shall be divided equally between the two districts involved, and the payment of such portion of said expenses shall be and constitute a legal charge against the funds of said school districts. The arbitrator or arbitrators appointed pursuant to the provisions of this section shall proceed to view and examine such property, articles, equipment and fixtures as they are requested to pass upon by the respective school districts and make a written finding as to what property, articles, or equipment constitutes fixtures, and the written finding and determination of a majority of said board of arbitrators shall be final and binding upon the school districts submitting such question to said board of arbitration.

SEC. 6. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall go into effect immediately from and after its passage and approval.

The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

There has been a change of boundaries between many school districts in the State of California which will become effective July 1, 1935. That date is also the beginning of the fiscal year for school districts and it is necessary that the property rights between districts whose boundaries have been so changed be ascertained and determined by said July 1, 1935, in order that provision may be made in the budgets of said school districts for the ensuing school year and to facilitate the administration and government of said school districts."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Education.

Senate Bill No. 888—An act to add a new section to the School Code to be numbered -----, relating to the public school system.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Education, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 888 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill, after the word "act", insert the following: "to amend sections 3.330, 3.331, 3.332, 3.333, 3.334, 3.335, and 3.337 and".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1, line 2 of the title of the printed bill, after "bered", insert the following: "3.339".

Amendment No. 3.

On page 1, line 2 of the title of the printed bill, strike out the following: "public school system", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "attendance of pupils residing in California upon the public schools of adjoining States, and the attendance of pupils residing in adjoining States upon the public schools of California".

Amendment No. 4.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, after the period, insert the following: "School Code section 3.330 is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.330. The average daily attendance of pupils residing in any county of this State and attending an elementary school or high school in an adjoining State which is contiguous to such county shall be reported by the county superintendent of schools in his annual report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction who shall include such average daily attendance in all the duly established elementary schools and high schools in the State for the last preceding school year certified by him to the State Controller as provided in this code.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction, in making the apportionments of State school moneys, shall apportion to each county on account of the average daily attendance of pupils residing in such county and attending an elementary school or a high school in an adjoining State which is contiguous to such county an amount equal to that apportioned to the elementary school districts and high school districts of this State on account of the average daily attendance in such districts during the preceding school year. The amounts apportioned to a county under the provisions of this section on account of pupils attending elementary schools shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the county elementary school tuition fund; and the amounts apportioned to a county under the provisions of this section on account of pupils attending high schools shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the county high school tuition fund.

School Code section 3.331 is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.331. The board of supervisors of each county in which pupils reside who are attending an elementary school or a high school in an adjoining State which is contiguous to such county, on the approval of the county superintendent of schools of the county in which they live, shall levy a tax on the taxable property of the county to be known as the county school tuition tax. The minimum amount of the tax thereby raised shall be an amount which, when added to the amount to be apportioned to the county elementary and high school tuition funds during the school year by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on account of the average daily attendance of pupils residing therein who attended an elementary or a high school in such adjoining State during the preceding school year will provide an amount sufficient to pay the tuition, and also the transportation not to exceed ten dollars per pupil per month, of any pupil or pupils residing in the county who attended an elementary school or a high school during the preceding school year in such adjoining State.

Section 3.332 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.332. The tuition payable, exclusive of costs of transportation, per unit of average daily attendance of pupils residing in California and attending an elementary or a high school in an adjoining State which is contiguous to such county shall be the average current expenditure, exclusive of all transportation expenditures, per unit of average daily attendance for elementary or high schools as the case may be in the district attended by such pupils during the preceding school year.

Section 3.333 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.333. The county superintendent of schools of each county shall secure from the principal of any elementary or high school in an adjoining State which is contiguous to such county attended by pupils residing in such county a report in blank furnished by the Superintendent of Public Instruction of the State of California showing such facts relative to the attendence and cost of education and transportation of such pupils as shall be outlined in the blank report.

Section 3.334 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.334. The auditor of any county in which a county elementary or high school tuition tax is levied shall report to the county superintendent of schools the amount of money paid into the county elementary or high school fund from the tax levied.

Section 3.335 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.335. On receiving the report from the county auditor the superintendent of schools shall draw an order in favor of the county treasurer of the county and State in which the elementary or high school operating the children is located, and shall transmit the same by registered mail to said county treasurer, to be placed to the credit of the elementary or high school district educating such children, together with a statement, showing the names and average daily attendance of pupils whose tuition is to be paid.

Section 3.336 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.336. The county superintendent of schools of any county in lieu of payment to a district in an adjoining State which is contiguous to such county for the transportation of pupils residing in such county, may pay from the county elementary or high school tuition fund to the parent or guardian of such pupils an amount not to exceed ten dollars per month per pupil certified by such parent or guardian as the actual cost incurred by such parent or guardian for the transportation of such pupils to school in such adjoining State.

A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 3.339 and to read as follows:

3.339. The governing board of any school district of any type or class may, with the approval of the county superintendent of schools, admit to the schools thereof pupils living in an adjoining State which is contiguous to such school district, provided, that an agreement shall be entered into between such governing board and the governing board or authority of the school district in which such pupils reside providing for the payment by the latter of such tuition as shall be agreed upon. The amount of such tuition per unit of average daily attendance of pupils from such adjoining State shall not exceed the average current expenditures, exclusive of all transportation expenditures, per unit of average daily attendance in the district of attendance, plus the actual expenditure not to exceed ten dollars per pupil per month for the transportation of such pupils."

NOES—Senators Biggar, Crittenden, Denel, Fletcher, Garrison, Gordon, Jespersen, Keough, King, Knowland, McCall, McGovern, McGuinness, Metzger, Mixter, Olson, Parkman, Perry, Pierovich, Powers, Schottky, Scollan, Slater, Swing, and Wagy—25.

Further Amendments from the Floor.

During third reading of Senate Bill No. 78, the following amendments, offered by Senator Knowland, were read:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 4 of the printed bill, as amended, after line 10, insert the following:

"At the first election the voters shall vote first on the question 'Shall a commission be elected and a department formed?' and secondly for the candidates for the commission. If the first question receives a majority of votes of those voting thereon, the candidates elected as hereinabove provided shall forthwith organize as a permanent organization."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 9 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out lines 19 to 52, inclusive; strike out all of page 10, and strike out lines 1 to 24, inclusive, on page 11, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SEC. 14. Whenever the legislative body of any political subdivision or public agency shall determine that the public interest or necessity demands that such political subdivision or public agency acquire, construct, complete, extend or repair any public utility as defined in section 2 hereof under the provisions of this statute, it shall cause an estimate to be made of the cost thereof, and shall, by ordinance, or resolution, as may be authorized by charter or general laws under which such political subdivision or State agency operates, provide for the issuance of revenue bonds under the provisions of this statute, which ordinance or resolution shall set forth a brief description of the contemplated improvement, the estimated cost thereof, the amount, the maximum rate of interest which the bonds may bear, the time and place of payment and other details in connection with the issuance of the bonds. Such bonds shall bear interest at not more than six per cent (6%) per annum, payable semiannually, and shall be payable at such times and place not exceeding fifty (50) years from their date as shall be prescribed in the ordinance or resolution providing for their issuance. Such ordinance or resolution shall also declare that a statutory lien shall exist upon the property so to be acquired or constructed, and include provisions whereby revenue is to be obtained or rates fixed for service rendered to be collected prior to the payment of all of said bonds, and shall pledge the revenues derived from the public utility for the purpose of paying such bonds and interest thereon, and shall fix and determine the estimated amount of revenues necessary to be set apart and applied to the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds and the proportion of the balance of such revenues as income which are to be set aside as a proper and adequate depreciation or reserve account, and the remainder shall be set aside for the reasonable and proper maintenance and operation thereof. The rates to be charged for the services from such public utility shall be sufficient to provide for the payment of interest upon all bonds and to create a sinking or other retirement fund to pay the principal thereof as and when the same become due, and to provide for the operation and maintenance of the system, and to provide an adequate depreciation fund.

Said ordinance or resolution shall also provide for the calling of, and call an election for the submission of the question of the issuance of said revenue bonds for the purpose set forth in said ordinance or resolution to the qualified electors within said political subdivision or public agency, and if at said election a majority of the votes cast shall be in favor of the issuance of said revenue bonds, the said ordinance or resolution shall go into immediate effect upon the declaration of the vote cast at such election, otherwise said ordinance or resolution shall be null and void. Provided, however, should the proposition so submitted at such election fail to receive the requisite number of votes of the qualified voters voting at such election to incur the indebtedness for the purpose specified, the legislative body of such political subdivision or public agency shall have no power or authority within six months after such election to call or order another election for incurring any indebtedness for the acquisition, construction or completion of improvements or property substantially the same as voted upon at such prior election, unless a petition signed by at least fifteen per centum of the qualified electors of such political subdivision or public agency computed upon the total number of votes cast therein for all candidates for Governor at the last preceding election at which a Governor was elected, be filed with the legislative body of such political subdivision or public agency, requesting that said proposition, or a proposition substantially the same, be submitted at an election to be called for the submission of such proposition and to be held in accordance with the provisions of this act. Said election shall be held within sixty days after the passage of said ordinance or resolution and no notice of said election need be given other than by publication of said ordinance or resolution at least once a week for two weeks in a daily newspaper printed and published in such political subdivision or public agency, publication to be completed not less than ten days before the date of said election; provided, however, that if there be no daily newspaper within the territory covered by such political subdivision or public agency, the notice of such election may be published in a weekly newspaper printed and published therein, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then by posting such ordinance or resolution in three public places therein, not less than ten, nor more than twenty days before the date of said election. Except as otherwise provided herein, said election shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the general law."

President Pro Tempore in the Chair.

At four o'clock p.m., Hon. William P. Rich, President pro tempore of the Senate, in the chair.

Consideration Postponed.

The amendments, offered by Senator Knowland, were ordered printed in the Journal, and the further consideration of Senate Bill No. 78 postponed until the next legislative day, on motion of Senator Stow.

Special Order.

Senator Garrison moved that Senate Bill No. 78 be made a special order for the next legislative day, Tuesday, May 7, 1935, at eleven o'clock and thirty minutes a.m.

Motion carried, and such was the order.

Relative to the disposition of revenues received from the lease of marginal lands in the Tule Lake Division of the Klamath Project.

WHEREAS, The Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States, did, on the seventh day of January, 1935, recommend in his budget message to the Congress of the United States the enactment of certain measures designed to provide refunds to lessees of marginal lands in the Tule Lake Division of the Klamath Project; and

WHEREAS, The Klamath Project is under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior of the United States, acting through the Bureau of Reclamation, and was designed to reclaim marsh lands in the Tule Lake Division of the Klamath Project, and thereby add to the productive agricultural use in the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The refunding of such moneys to such lessees will result in a diversion of funds now available for the completion of the Tule Lake Division of the Klamath Project and will eventually result in the abandonment of said project, thereby causing a depressed market of land values in said region; and

WHEREAS, Such lands would no longer be a safe collateral for outstanding loans because of the reduced land values; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly. That the Legislature of the State of California urge the assistance and the support of Congress in order to preserve the present use of funds accruing from leases of marginal lands in the Tule Lake Division of the Klamath Project; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the Vice President of the United States, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out everything beginning with the words "Section 1", in line 1, down to and including the word "taken" in line 31 on page 2, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SECTION 1. Section 1466 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1466. An appeal may be taken from a judgment or order of a justice's or police court or of a municipal court, in a criminal case, to the superior court of the county in which such inferior court is located, in the following cases:

1. By the people:

(a) From an order or judgment dismissing or otherwise termination the action without a trial.

(b) From an order granting a new trial.

(c) From an order arresting judgment.

(d) From any order made after judgment affecting the substantial rights of the people.

2. By a defendant:

(a) From a final judgment of conviction.

(b) From any order made after judgment affecting his substantial rights.

SEC. 2. Section 1467 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1467. An appeal to the superior court may be taken by filing written notice of appeal with the court wherein the judgment or order appealed from is rendered, within five days after the rendition of such judgment or order.

SEC. 3. Section 1468 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1468. Appeals to the superior courts shall be heard and determined, the decisions thereon shall be remitted to the inferior courts, and the records on such appeals shall be made up and filed in such time and manner as shall be prescribed in rules to be promulgated by the Judicial Council. Until such rules are promulgated, the time and the manner provided by statute in force on January 1, 1935, shall govern.

SEC. 4. Section 1469 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1469. Upon appeal by the people the superior court may review any question of law involved in any ruling affecting the judgment or order appealed from, without exception having been taken in the trial court. Upon an appeal by a defendant the court may, without exception having been taken in the trial court, review any question of law involved in any ruling, order, instruction, or thing whatsoever said or done at the trial or prior to or after judgment, which thing was said or done after objection made in and considered by the trial court and which affected the substantial rights of the defendant. The court may also review any instruction given, refused or modified, even though no objection was made thereto in the trial court if the substantial rights of the defendant were affected thereby. The superior court may reverse, affirm or modify the judgment or order appealed from, and may set aside, affirm or modify any or all of the proceedings subsequent to, or dependent upon, such judgment or order, and may, if proper, order a new trial. If a new trial is ordered upon appeal, it must be had in the superior court unless the appeal is from a municipal court or from a justice's court of Class A in which case the new trial must be had in the court from which the appeal is taken."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 8.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of said State, relating to amendments to initiative acts and initiative constitutional amendments.

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring. That the Legislature of the State of California, at its fifty-first regular session commencing on the seventh day of January, 1935, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of said State be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The legislative power of this State shall be vested in a Senate and Assembly which shall be designated "The Legislature of the State of California," but the people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and amendments to the Constitution, and to adopt or reject the same, at the polls independent of the Legislature, and also reserve the power, at their own option, to so adopt or reject any act, or section or part of any act, passed by the Legislature. The enacting clause of every law shall be "The people of the State of California do enact as follows:"

The first power reserved to the people shall be known as the initiative. Upon the presentation to the Secretary of State of a petition certified as herein provided to have been signed by qualified electors, equal in number to eight per cent of all the votes cast for all candidates for Governor at the last preceding general election, at which a Governor was elected, proposing a law or amendment to the Constitution, set forth in full in said petition, the Secretary of State shall submit the said proposed law or amendment to the Constitution to the electors at the next succeeding general election occurring subsequent to 90 days after the presentation aforesaid of said petition, or at any special election called by the Governor in his discretion prior to such general election. All such initiative petitions shall have printed across the top thereof in 12-point black-face type the following: "Initiative measure to be submitted directly to the electors."

Upon the presentation to the Secretary of State, at any time not less than ten days before the commencement of any regular session of the Legislature, of a petition certified as herein provided to have been signed by qualified electors of the State equal in number to 5 per cent of all the votes cast for all candidates for Governor at the last preceding general election, at which a Governor was elected, proposing a law set forth in full in said petition, the Secretary of State shall transmit the same to the Legislature as soon as it convenes and organizes. The law proposed by such petition shall be either enacted or rejected without change or amendment by the Legislature, within 40 days from the time it is received by the Legislature. If any law proposed by such petition shall be enacted by the Legislature it shall be subject to referendum, as hereinafter provided. If any law so petitioned for be rejected, or if no action is taken upon it by the Legislature, within said 40 days, the Secretary of State shall submit it to the people for approval or rejection at the next ensuing general election. The Legislature may reject any measure so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different one on the same subject by a yea and nay vote upon separate roll call, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by the Secretary of State to the electors for approval or rejection at the next ensuing general election or at a prior special election called by the Governor, in his discretion, for such purpose. All said initiative petitions last above described shall have printed in 12-point black-face type the following: "Initiative measure to be presented to the Legislature."

The second power reserved to the people shall be known as the referendum. No act passed by the Legislature shall go into effect until 90 days after the final adjournment of the session of the Legislature which passed such act, except acts calling elections, acts providing for tax levies or appropriations for the usual current expenses of the State, and urgency measures necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, passed by a two-thirds vote of all the members elected to each house. Whenever it is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety that a law shall go into immediate effect, a statement of the facts constituting such necessity shall be set forth in one section of the act, which section shall be passed only upon a yea and nay vote, upon a separate roll call thereon; provided, however, that no measure creating or abolishing any office or changing the salary, term or duties of any officer, or granting any franchise or special privilege, or creating any vested right or interest, shall be construed to be an urgency measure. Any law so passed by the Legislature and declared to be an urgency measure shall go into immediate effect.

Upon the presentation to the Secretary of State within 90 days after the final adjournment of the Legislature of a petition certified as herein provided, to have been signed by qualified electors equal in number to 5 per cent of all the votes cast for all candidates for Governor at the last preceding general election at which a Governor was elected, asking that any act or section or part of any act of the Legislature be submitted to the electors for their approval or rejection, the Secretary of State shall submit to the electors for their approval or rejection, such act, or section or part of such act, at the next succeeding general election occurring at any time subsequent to 30 days after the filing of said petition or at any special election which may be called by the Governor, in his discretion, prior to such regular election, and no such act or section or part of such act shall go into effect until and unless approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon; but if a referendum petition is filed against any section or part of any act the remainder of such act shall not be delayed from going into effect.

Any act, law or amendment to the Constitution submitted to the people by either initiative or referendum petition and approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon, at any election, shall take effect five days after the date of the official declaration of the vote by the Secretary of State. No act, law or amendment to the Constitution, initiated or adopted by the people, shall be subject to the veto power of the Governor, and no act, law or amendment to the Constitution, adopted by the people at the polls under the initiative provisions of this section, shall be amended or repealed except by a vote of the electors, unless otherwise provided in said initiative measure, but the Legislature may, by resolution passed by a majority vote of all the members of each of the two houses, propose and submit to a vote of the electors any amendment or amendments or the repeal of any such act, law, or amendment to the Constitution, but acts and laws adopted by the people under the referendum provisions of this section may be amended by the Legislature at any subsequent session thereof. If any provision or provisions of two or more measures, approved by the electors at the same election, contain the provision or provisions of the measure receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail. Until otherwise provided by law, all measures submitted to a vote of the electors under the provisions of this section, shall be printed, and together with arguments for and against each such measure by those in favor of and those opposed to it shall be mailed to each elector in the same manner as now provided by law as to amendments to the Constitution, proposed by the Legislature, and the persons to prepare and present such arguments shall, until otherwise provided by law, be selected by the presiding officer of the Senate.

If for any reason any initiative or referendum measure, proposed by petition as herein provided, be not submitted at the election specified in this section, such failure shall not prevent its submission at a succeeding general election, and no law or amendment to the Constitution, proposed by the Legislature, shall be submitted at any election unless at the same election these shall be submitted. All measures proposed by petition of the electors, if any be so proposed, as herein provided.

Prior to circulation of any initiative or referendum petition for signatures thereto, a draft of the said petition shall be submitted to the Attorney General with a written request that he prepare a title, and summary of its chief purpose and points of said proposed measure, said title and summary not to exceed 100 words in all. The persons presenting such request to the Attorney General, shall be known as "proponents" of said proposed measure. The Attorney General shall preserve said written request until after the next general election.

Any initiative or referendum petition may be presented in sections, but each section shall contain a full and correct copy of the title and text of the proposed measure. Each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number if such exist. His election precinct shall also appear on the paper after his name. The number of signatures attached to each section shall be at the pleasure of the person soliciting signatures to the same. Any qualified elector of the State shall be competent to solicit said signatures within the county or city and county of which he is an elector. Each section of the petition shall bear the name of the county or city and county in which it is circulated, and only qualified electors of such county or city and county shall be competent to sign such section. Each section shall have attached thereto the affidavit of the person soliciting signatures to the same, stating his own qualifications and that all the signatures to the attached section were made in his presence and that to the best of his knowledge and belief each signature to the section is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be, and no other affidavit thereto shall be required. The affidavit of any person soliciting signatures hereunder shall be verified free of charge by any officer authorized to administer oaths. Such petitions so verified shall be prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and that the persons signing the same are qualified electors. Unless and until it be otherwise proven upon official investigation, it shall be presumed that the petition presented contains the signatures of the requisite number of qualified electors.

Each section of the petition shall be filed with the clerk or registrar of voters of the county or city and county in which it was circulated, but all said sections circulated in any county or city and county shall be filed at the same time. Within 20 days after the filing of such petition in his office the said clerk or registrar of voters, shall determine from the records of registration what number of qualified electors have signed the same, and if necessary the board of supervisors shall give said clerk or registrar additional assistance for the purpose of examining said petition and provide for their compensation. The said clerk or registrar upon the completion of such examination, shall forthwith attach to said petition, except the signatures thereto appended, his certificate, properly dated, showing the result of said examination and shall forthwith transmit said petition, together with his said certificate, to the Secretary of State and also file a copy of said certificate in his office. Within 40 days from the transmission of the said petition and certificate to the clerk or registrar to the Secretary of State, a supplemental petition, identical with the original as to the body of the petition but containing supplemental names, may be filed with the clerk or registrar of voters, as aforesaid.

The right to file the original petition shall be reserved to its proponents, as defined herein and any section thereof or supplement thereto presented for filing by any person or persons other than the proponents of a measure or by persons duly authorized in writing by such proponents shall be disregarded by the county clerk or registrar of voters.

The clerk or registrar of voters shall within ten days after the filing of such supplemental petition make like examination thereof, as of the original petition, and upon the completion of such examination shall forthwith attach to said petition his certificate, properly dated, showing the result of said examination, and shall forthwith transmit a copy of said supplemental petition, except the signatures thereto appended, together with his certificate, to the Secretary of State.

When the Secretary of State shall have received from one or more county clerks or registrars of voters a petition certified as herein provided to have been signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, he shall forthwith transmit to the county clerk or registrar of voters of every county or city and county in the State his certificate showing such fact. A petition shall be deemed to be filed with the Secretary of State upon the date of the receipt by him of a certificate or certificates showing said petition to be signed by the requisite number of electors of the State. Any county clerk or registrar of voters shall, upon receipt of such copy, file the same for record in his office. The duties herein imposed upon the clerk or registrar of voters shall be performed by such registrar of voters in all cases where the office of registrar of voters exists.

The initiative and referendum powers of the people are hereby further reserved to the electors of each county, city and county, city and town of the State to be exercised under such procedure as may be provided by law. Until otherwise provided by law, the legislative body of any such county, city and county, city or town may provide for the manner of exercising the initiative and referendum powers herein reserved to such counties, cities and counties, cities and towns, but shall not require more than 15 per cent of the electors thereof to propose any initiative measure nor more than 10 per cent of the electors thereof to order the referendum. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as affecting or limiting the present or future powers of cities or cities and counties having charters adopted under the provisions of section 8 of Article XI of this Constitution. In the submission to the electors of any measure under this section, all officers shall be guided by the general laws of this State, except as is herein otherwise provided. This section is self-executing, but legislation may be enacted to facilitate its operation, but in no way limiting or restricting either the provisions of this section or the powers herein reserved.

Proceedings Under Call of the Senate.

Motion to Print.

Senator McGovern moved that the declaration by Senator McGuinness, in opposition to Senate Bill No. 1044, be printed in the Journal.

Motion carried.

Declaration by State Senator Henry McGuinness.

Senate Bill No. 1044, upon which we are about to vote, is intended to repeal the laws of this State on the subject of recall so as to make it more difficult to recall public officials, including State Senators, from public office.

I am against this bill. I find no fault with the present law on the subject of recall. While it is true, as has been said here today, that in many instances the recall is employed as a weapon of personal malice for the purpose of serving selfish ends not generally known to the voters who are being used to pull political chestnuts out of the fire, nevertheless the people should retain the power to exercise the right of recall in proper cases.

Speaking for myself, I have an abiding faith in the spirit of fair play and in the good judgment of the American people. The people do not expect perfection in any public official because every human being is likely to make a mistake. I do not know of any perfect man, and I assume that there are none in this body or in any other public office in America. While the people do not demand perfection, they have a right to and they do ask that every man whom they elect to public office have the courage of his convictions and that he vote according to the dictates of his conscience.

I know that in my case I have attempted to do just that. I do not claim that I am a perfect man, but I do assert, without fear of successful contradiction, that during my service in this Senate I have discharged the duties of my office in an impartial manner and that I have voted and spoken with a sincere desire to serve my constituents as best I could.

When I was inducted into the office of a State Senator of California, I raised my right hand before my God, and before you Senators here assembled, swore to discharge the duties of my office to the best of my ability. In my humble way I have kept the faith and fought the good fight. My thought has ever been with the men and women of the district for whom I speak in this honorable body.

I recognize, of course, the right of my political opponents to threaten me with recall. They are actuated by motives which are best known to themselves. I refuse to believe, however, that the intelligent voters of my district will be misled by any propaganda which is being used in an attempt to discredit me at home, while I am performing the duties of my office in this body.

This is the most important legislative session in the history of California. The people of our commonwealth are demanding that we who act for them here do everything possible to alleviate human suffering, to bring about a more equitable distribution of the wealth of our California and to make this State of ours a better place in which to live. Our responsibility is great, but I am sure that we will prove equal to the task that confronts us.

Great problems, of far greater importance than the political fate of any individual, call for immediate solution. We should not obscure those important questions involving life and death by personal politics.

I know that I have not done that. I know that you gentlemen of the Senate have not been guilty of that offense against the welfare of the State. If other persons, not members of this body, would seek to impede the orderly processes of our State Government by threats of recall and charges involving personal antagonism, we should be big enough to ignore the petty practices of small minded men and devote all of our time to the more important problems that press for decision.

Speaking for myself, I am opposed to this bill. We should defeat it at once and turn our attention to bigger questions. The greatest reward that can come to any public servant is the consciousness of duty done.

I shall continue, as a Senator of California, to discharge the duties of my office without fear or favor to the end that when I return from this Senate to the people of my district, I will do so in the knowledge that I have done my best for California and her people, and, with a clear conscience and in an abiding faith in the spirit of fair play of the voters of my district, I readily submit my political record to the only earthly authority to which I owe allegiance, namely, the people of the second senatorial district, the people of the State of California, and the people of the United States of America.

Senator Snyder in the Chair.

At three o'clock and twenty-five minutes p.m., Senator Snyder of the twenty-third district was called to the chair.

Consideration of Senate Bill No. 423—(Resumed).

Further Amendments from the Floor.

During resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 423, the following amendments, offered by Senator Olson, were read:

and in such event, any such ordinance or resolution providing for the issuance of revenue bonds shall not become effective until after the expiration of thirty (30) days from and after the date of adoption of such resolution. At any time within such period of thirty (30) days a petition protesting against the issuance of such revenue bonds and containing the bona fide signatures of not less than ten (10) per centum of the qualified electors within such local governmental agency computed upon the total number of votes cast therein for all candidates for Governor at the last preceding election at which a Governor was elected, may be filed with the legislative body of such local governmental agency, requesting that the proposition to issue such revenue bonds be submitted at an election to be called for the submission of such proposition to the qualified electors of such local governmental agency. Thereupon the legislative body of such local governmental agency shall, as soon as practicable, determine the sufficiency of such petition and, upon a determination that such petition is sufficient, shall proceed to call an election within such local governmental agency at which such election the proposal to issue such revenue bonds shall be submitted to the qualified electors of such local governmental agency. Said election shall be held not less than thirty (30) and not more than forty (40) days from and after the filing of such petition with the legislative body of such local governmental agency and no notice of such election need be given other than by publication of said resolution at least once a week for two weeks in a daily newspaper printed and published within such local governmental agency, publication thereof to be completed not less than ten (10) days before the date of said election; provided, however, that if there be no daily newspaper printed and published within the territory covered by such local governmental agency, notice of such election may be posted in three public places therein not less than ten (10) nor more than twenty (20) days before the date of said election. If a majority of said electors shall approve such proposal, said resolution shall become effective immediately upon the declaration of the result of such election; provided always, in the absence of adoption of any such resolution, a petition containing the bona fide signatures of not less than fifteen (15) per centum of the qualified electors within any such local governmental agency, computed as herein provided with respect to a petition protesting against the issuance of revenue bonds, may be filed with the legislative body of such local governmental agency requesting that a proposal to issue revenue bonds for any of the purposes of this act, as stated in said petition, be submitted to an election to be called for the submission of such proposition to the qualified electors within any such local governmental agency and to be held in accordance with the provisions of this act. Such local governmental agency shall, as soon as practicable, determine the sufficiency of such petition and upon a determination that such petition is sufficient, shall proceed to call an election within such local governmental agency at which such election the proposal to issue such revenue bonds for the purposes as stated in said petition shall be submitted to the qualified electors of such local governmental agency. Said election shall be held not less than thirty (30) and not more than forty (40) days after the filing of such petition. The notice shall be given of such election as in case of the filing of a petition and election thereon protesting the issuance of revenue bonds as herein provided. If a majority of such electors shall vote in favor of such proposal, immediately upon the declaration of such vote, it shall be the duty of the public utilities commission of any such local governmental agency to forthwith proceed in accordance and in compliance with the prayer of said petition. Except as otherwise herein provided the provisions of the organic act or acts relating to the respective local governmental agencies proceeding hereunder shall govern the holding and conduct of any election herein provided for. The preceding two paragraphs shall leave no application to any local governmental agency which has no electorate."

Urgency Clause.

SEC. 7. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are as follows: Due to the widespread depression, many taxpayers have been unable to pay their taxes, or to redeem their property from sale to the State for delinquency. By permitting redemption without penalties, many taxpayers will be enabled to redeem their property, restore the same to the tax rolls, and thereby add revenue for the operation and maintenance of government.

Urgency clause read.

Bill read third time.

Urgency Clause.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and as such it shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of facts constituting such necessity:

By reason of the long continued and still existing economic and financial depression many mortgage insurance companies have suffered heavy losses, both in income and in net worth, and are unable to carry on their normal business, thereby causing severe hardships to thousands of investors and home owners and increasing public unemployment and distress. The provisions of this act, by permitting mortgage insurance companies to acquire securities of National mortgage associations, to make insured loans pursuant to the National Housing Act, and to acquire securities of other Federal agencies or corporations, will enable mortgage insurance companies to cooperate with the Federal Government in carrying out the objects and purposes of the National Housing Act. The provisions of this act are also necessary to enable numerous home owners in California, whose homes are subject to mortgages, to refinance such mortgages by obtaining insured loans pursuant to the National Housing Act. By the passage of this act many homes in California may be saved from foreclosure and much harm may be averted to home owners for the purpose of financing alterations, repairs and improvements upon real property, thereby decreasing unemployment and distress. It is, therefore, essential to the immediate preservation of public peace, health and safety that such and every part of this act be enacted and be immediately effective.

Senate Bill No. 1102—An act to add Chapter 10 to Division IV of the Agricultural Code, relating to the stabilization and marketing of fluid milk and fluid cream, declaring the urgency of this act, to take effect immediately.

Bill read third time.

Case of Urgency.Recommendation of the Governor.

In accordance with section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the passage of Senate Bill No. 1102:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
SACRAMENTO, May 8, 1935.

To the Honorable Members of the Senate, State of California, Sacramento, California.

GREETINGS: Senate Bill No. 1102—An act to add Chapter 10 to Division IV of the Agricultural Code, relating to the stabilization and marketing of fluid milk and fluid cream, declaring the urgency of this act, to take effect immediately.

In my opinion said Senate Bill No. 1102 constitutes such a bill within the meaning of that term as used in section 34, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

I therefore authorize the consideration of this bill as such a measure.

Respectfully submitted.

FRANK F. MERRIAM, Governor of California.

Urgency Clause.

SEC. 3. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. The statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

The economic conditions of fluid milk producers throughout the State are such as to require immediate relief if their purchasing power and taxpaying ability are to continue and their morale and standard of living are not to be undermined. Such relief can be afforded only by the orderly production and marketing of fluid milk and fluid cream. The provisions herein contained are necessary in order to prevent the further demoralization of the fluid milk and fluid cream industries.

Urgency clause read.

The question being on adoption of the urgency clause.

AYES—Senators Biggar, Deuel, Difani, Duval, Edwards, Fletcher, Garrison, Hays, Hulse, Jespersen, Keough, King, Knowland, McGovern, McGuinness, Mixter, Olson, Pierovich, Powers, Reindollar, Rich, Schottky, Scollan, Seawell, Sharkey, Slater, Snyder, Tickle, Wagy, and Young—30.

NOES—None.

The question being on the passage of the bill.

The roll was called, and Senate Bill No. 1102 passed by the following vote:

AYES—Senators Biggar, Crittenden, Deuel, Difani, Duval, Edwards, Fletcher, Garrison, Hays, Hulse, Keough, King, McGovern, Mixter, Olson, Pierovich, Rich, Schottky, Scollan, Seawell, Sharkey, Slater, Snyder, Tickle, Wagy, Williams, and Young—27.

NOES—Senator Knowland—1.

Title read and approved.

Senate Bill No. 1102 ordered transmitted to the Assembly.

Motion to Reconsider.

Pursuant to his notice given on a previous day, Senator Difani moved to reconsider the vote whereby Senate Bill No. 1044 was refused passage.

Postponement of Reconsideration.

Senate Bill No. 870—An act to amend sections 1, 14, 18 and 41 of the "California Water District Act," approved June 13, 1913, relating to water districts, the purposes and administration thereof, to take effect immediately and declaring the urgency thereof.

Bill read third time.

Urgency Clause.

SEC. 4. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and as such it shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity.

Continued dry years have made immediate action imperative in the various water districts to conserve the waters of the present rainy season in order to save not only extensive areas of crops, but also for industrial and domestic purposes. Immediate action is further imperative to construct works during the coming summer season for conserving and utilizing the floods and waters of the coming winter. For the proper and ready financing of such construction the immediate voting of bonds is necessary, and to that end the legislation contained in this act relative to such bonds and their maturities, terms and conditions, is required to be immediately effective. An adequate supply of water for agricultural, domestic and industrial purposes is necessary for the public peace, health and safety of the communities affected in the State of California.

Urgency clause read.

The question being on the adoption of the urgency clause.

AYES—Senators Deuel, Duval, Edwards, Fletcher, Garrison, Gordon, Hays, Hulse, Jaspersen, Keough, Knowland, McCormack, McGovern, McGuinness, Metzger, Mixer, Olson, Parkman, Perry, Pierovich, Powers, Rich, Scollan, Seawell, Slater, Stow, Tickle, Wagy, Williams, and Young—30.

NOES—None.

The question being on the passage of the bill.

AYES—Senators Deuel, Duval, Edwards, Fletcher, Garrison, Gordon, Hays, Hulse, Jaspersen, Keough, Knowland, McCormack, McGovern, McGuinness, Metzger, Mixer, Olson, Parkman, Perry, Pierovich, Powers, Rich, Schottky, Scollan, Seawell, Sharkey, Slater, Stow, Tickle, Wagy, Williams, and Young—32.

NOES—None.

Title read and approved.

Senate Bill No. 870 ordered transmitted to the Assembly.

Report of Standing Committee.

The following report of standing committee was received and read:

On Federal Relations.

Report of Committee on Federal Relations on Senate Bill No. 444.

The Committee on Federal Relations, after carefully considering the evidence submitted in favor of and against Senate Bill No. 444, has, by unanimous vote laid the same on the table.

The subject matter of the bill relates to commercial fishing in the coastal waters of California and the landing of marine products upon the shores of the State. While such pursuits constitute a legitimate business, yet their very nature necessitates regulatory control by the State in the fulfillment of its duty to conserve a needed food supply and to promote and safeguard industries therein involved. Senate Bill No. 444, however, goes much further than this as it would prohibit all aliens legally residents of the United States from engaging in commercial fishing. The evidence submitted to the committee shows that the aliens who would fall under the prohibition are of five or six different nationalities.

The United States has entered into treaties with numerous foreign Nations which govern the rights and privileges of subjects of such countries who legally become residents of this and other States of the Union; the treaties also affect the rights of Americans who take up residence in the countries which are parties thereto.

Such treaties with friendly Nations can not be regarded lightly, even by a sovereign State such as California.

It is the conclusion of the committee that Senate Bill No. 444 if enacted would not be in consonance with the spirit and intent of the treaties referred to, and hence should not be recommended for passage.

Messages from the Governor.

The following messages from the Governor were received and read:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
SACRAMENTO, May 9, 1935.

*To The Honorable Members of the Senate,
State of California, Sacramento, California.*

GREETINGS: I am pleased to inform you that I am this day appointing, with the advice and consent of the Senate, Mr. A. R. O'Brien of Ukiah as a member of the Board of Prison Directors.

Requesting your approval of the same, I am

Respectfully yours,

FRANK F. MERRIAM, Governor of California.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
SACRAMENTO, May 7, 1935.

*Hon. Members of the Senate,
State of California, Sacramento, California.*

GREETINGS: Herewith enclosed find copy of letter received from Harold G. Hoffman, Governor, State of New Jersey, together with a copy of joint resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to negotiate interstate compacts.

Same is forwarded to the Senate for its information and whatever action, if any, it may desire to take.

Yours cordially,

FRANK F. MERRIAM, Governor of California.

*Hon. Frank F. Merriam, Governor,
Sacramento, California.*

DEAR GOVERNOR: For some time past I have been studying the possibilities of interstate cooperation in the fields of taxation, labor, industry, liquor traffic, truck regulation, crime prevention and other related matters subject to State legislation and incidental to State government. I believe that the time has come when the several States must enlarge their program of interstate cooperation in handling these questions that cut across boundary lines and must be treated as regional and interstate problems.

The present New Jersey Legislature has established a Commission on Interstate Cooperation whose obligation it will be to facilitate cooperation between New Jersey and the other States of the Union. Similar commissions, I am informed, have been established in Colorado, New York and Maryland.

In order that the full possibilities inherent in these agencies may be realized, it is highly desirable that such agencies be created by the other States. Because of my conviction that interstate cooperation is necessary if we are to meet in any adequate way many of our vital problems, I am prompted to suggest that you lend your good office to the creation of an agency for interstate cooperation in your State. I am pleased to enclose herewith a copy of the Senate Joint Resolution adopted in New Jersey and to say that it is proposed to enact this resolution as a permanent statute.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed)

HAROLD G. HOFFMAN, Governor.

Joint Resolution Providing for the Appointment of a Commission to Negotiate Interstate Compacts.

WHEREAS, The laws of neighboring States are in conflict and in competition with each other in such fields as taxation, labor, industry, liquor traffic, truck regulation, crime prevention, and other related matters subject to State legislation and inherently incidental to State Government; and

WHEREAS, It is in the interest of the people of the State of New Jersey that uniform standards of legislation should be adopted and should conform to the more enlightened statutes in effect among the several States; and

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States in Article I, section 10, permits of securing such uniform standards by interstate compacts entered into by the several States with the consent of the Congress of the United States; now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. That there be hereby established an unpaid commission, to be known as the Commission on Interstate Compacts, to consist of seven members, two of whom shall be members of the House of Assembly and shall be named by the Speaker thereof, and two shall be members of the Senate and shall be named by the President thereof, and three shall represent the public and shall be named by the Governor, who shall also designate the chairman of said commission. Said members of the House of Assembly and of the Senate shall serve only during their respective terms in the Legislature, but of the three members representing the public, one shall serve two years, one three years, and one four years. The commission is hereby authorized, on the part of New Jersey, to meet with similar commissions appointed with similar authority on part of other States for the purpose of negotiating or agreeing upon a joint report. Said report shall recommend to the Legislatures of the participating States a policy to be pursued by such States with reference to the subject matter of said report by the enactment of such legislation by such States as will constitute an interstate compact. The commission shall report to the Governor and the Legislature of the State of New Jersey on the first day of each legislative session and also as soon as it determines on a policy.

2. The members of the commission appointed as aforesaid shall serve without compensation but shall be paid their necessary expenses in the performance of their duty. They may employ a secretary and other assistants as are needed in the performance of their duties.

3. The Secretary of State shall forthwith communicate the text of this resolution to the like official of each State with the respectful request that such States in their discretion establish commissions with like powers to treat with the commission appointed hereunder.

4. This joint resolution shall take effect immediately.

Messages referred to Committee on Rules.

Consideration of Daily File.Third Reading of Assembly Bills.

Assembly Bill No. 1370—An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of drainage districts, for the drainage of agricultural lands other than swamp and overflowed lands, and to provide for the acquisition or construction thereby of works for the drainage of the lands embraced within such districts."

approved March 20, 1903, as amended, by amending the title and sections 37 and 40 thereof, and adding a new section to be designated section 97, to authorize the borrowing or procuring of money by drainage districts from the United States or any agency thereof, and declaring the urgency thereof.

Bill read third time.

Urgency Clause.

SEC. 5. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and shall take effect immediately. The facts constituting such necessity are as follows: There exists throughout the State of California economic conditions which make it impossible for many property owners to pay taxes and assessments levied upon their property and many of the drainage districts in this State are in default in the payment of obligations under their outstanding bonds, and the operations of such districts are seriously hindered and great distress exists therein. Many of such districts are negotiating with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, an agency of the United States, for loans to enable them to reduce and refinance their outstanding indebtedness, and if such loans can be obtained speedily, the distress in such districts will be greatly alleviated. The completion of such loans is being delayed by questions as to the scope and meaning of the act hereby amended, and the amendments herein provided for are necessary to hasten the obtaining of such loans and the relief of large numbers of landowners, who will otherwise lose their property and be compelled to rely on governmental agencies for support and maintenance.

Urgency clause read.

"SECTION 1. Section 400 of the Vehicle Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
400. Liability of Governmental Agencies. (a) The State, and every political subdivision thereof, and every public corporation formed or organized for the government of a portion of the State including, but without excluding by reason of the hereinafter contained enumeration any such municipal public corporation of whatsoever class, type or designation, every school district, irrigation district, municipal corporation, and quasi municipal corporation shall be liable for civil damages on account of personal injury to or death of any person or damage to property resulting from the negligent operation of either a publicly or privately owned motor vehicle by an officer, agent, or employee thereof when acting within the scope of his office, agency, or employment, whether or not liability is imposed by law upon such operator, subject to the limit in amount of five thousand dollars for personal injury to or death of one person as the result of any one accident and, subject to said limit as to one person, the amount of ten thousand dollars for personal injury to or death of all persons as the result of any one accident and one thousand dollars for damage to property of others as the result of any one accident.

(b) This section shall apply to the negligent operation of all vehicles as herein provided, including the operation of any authorized emergency vehicle whether operated in response to an emergency call or otherwise by an officer, agent, or employee acting within the scope of his office, agency or employment.

(c) Any person having such a claim against any such public entity or corporation may present the same to such public entity or corporation in the same manner as other claims are presented and if thereupon such claim is not acted upon within thirty days after said presentation or is rejected in whole or in part, then said person may sue such public entity or corporation in a court of competent jurisdiction in the manner prescribed by law for the commencement and maintenance of such a suit against a private individual.

(d) Whenever in any such suit, a judgment is rendered against said State, political subdivision or public corporation, and such public entity or corporation thereafter satisfies the same in whole or in part, then said public entity or corporation shall be subrogated to the rights of the owner of said judgment theretofore existing to the amount of such satisfaction and may recover in a civil action such amount from the officer, agent or employee whose operation of a motor vehicle resulted in such liability against said public entity or corporation.

(e) The State Compensation Insurance Fund is hereby authorized to insure any such public entity or corporation against the liability imposed by this section, and any such public entity or corporation may secure insurance against such liability exclusively with the State Compensation Insurance Fund. Any and all premiums for such insurance shall be paid to the State insurance fund and shall be a proper charge against the general fund of such entity or corporation.

SEC. 2. Section 401 of the Vehicle Code is hereby amended to read as follows: "

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, after "SECTION 1.", insert the following: "Section 2 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Aid may be granted under this act to any person who:

- (a) Has attained the age of sixty-five years;
- (b) Is a citizen of the United States;
- (c) Resides in the State of California and has so resided continuously for at least five years within the ten years immediately preceding the date of application;
- (d) Resides in the county or city and county in which the application is made and has so resided continuously for at least one year immediately preceding the date of application;
- (e) Is not at the time of receiving such aid an inmate of any public or private home for the aged, or any public home, or any public or private institution of a custodial, correctional, or curative character, except in the case of temporary medical or surgical care in a hospital;
- (f) Has no relative of the following degree of kindred: husband, wife, parent or child, able and responsible under the law of this State for his support;
- (g) Has not made any voluntary assignment or transfer of property for the purpose of qualifying for such aid; and
- (h) Has an income, which when joined with the income of such person's spouse, is inadequate to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. The amount of aid to which any such person shall be entitled shall be fixed with due regard to the conditions existing in each case, but in no case shall it be less than an amount which, when added to the income of the applicant from all sources, shall total fifty dollars per month.

SEC. 3. Section 9a is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof to read as follows:

Sec. 9a. The total amount of aid paid under this act to any recipient shall be a lien upon his estate. On the death of a person receiving aid, or of the survivor of a married couple, both of whom receive aid, the total amount paid shall be allowed and deducted from the estate by the court having jurisdiction and paid to the State and the county in proportion to the amount of aid paid by each. At any time the board of supervisors may execute and file with the county recorder a certificate showing the amount of assistance paid to said person and when so filed said certificate shall be a legal claim against his estate and shall have the same force and effect as a judgment at law. The recorder shall keep a suitable record of such certificates and enter therein an acknowledgment of satisfaction upon receipt of notice thereof from the board of supervisors. All funds recovered under the provisions of this section shall be allocated to the county and State in the same proportion as aid is paid by the county and State. No lien shall be enforced against any real estate of a beneficiary while it is occupied by the surviving spouse of the beneficiary and while such surviving spouse remains unmarried.

SEC. 4. Section 21 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 21. There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated to each and every county and city and county maintaining or supporting aged persons who come within the provisions of this act, aid not in excess of four hundred and twenty dollars per annum for each aged person maintained or supported by such county or city and county. Payments of such aid shall be made in the manner provided in section 15 of this act.

SEC. 5. Sections 4 and 5 of the act cited in the title hereof are hereby repealed.

Sec. 6. The provisions of any act or acts of the Congress of the United States providing for allotment of moneys to the several States by the Federal Government for old age assistance are hereby accepted, and the Governor is hereby authorized and directed to accept the same on behalf of the State of California and to submit to the Federal Government the plan of this State for old age assistance as provided by the laws of this State.

"SECTION 1. A new chapter is hereby added to Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, to be numbered Chapter 13, to comprise sections 11525 to 11533, inclusive, and to read as follows:

"CHAPTER 13. VOLUNTARY MUTUALIZATION OF INCORPORATED LIFE AND LIFE AND DISABILITY INSURERS HAVING A CAPITAL STOCK AND ISSUING NON-ASSESSABLE POLICIES ON A RESERVE BASIS.

Article 1. Authority and Requirements to Mutualize.

11525. A solvent domestic incorporated insurer having a paid-in capital represented by outstanding shares of capital stock and issuing, on a reserve basis, non-assessable policies of life insurance or of both life and disability insurance, may convert itself into an incorporated mutual life insurer, or life and disability insurer, issuing nonassessable policies on a reserve basis. To that end it may provide and carry out a plan for the acquisition of the outstanding shares of its capital stock for the benefit of its policyholders by complying with the requirements of this chapter.

11526. Such plan shall include appropriate proceedings for amending the insurer's articles of incorporation to give effect to the acquisition, by said insurer, of the outstanding shares of its capital stock and the conversion of the insurer from a stock corporation into a nonstock corporation for the profit of its members. All such members shall be policyholders of said insurer. Such plan shall be:

(a) Adopted by a vote of a majority of the directors.
(b) Approved by the vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares at a special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose.

(c) Submitted to the commissioner and approved by him in writing.

(d) Approved by a majority vote of all the policyholders voting at an election by the policyholders called for that purpose, subject to the provisions of section 11528. For the purpose of this chapter such policyholders include the employer to whom, or a president, secretary or other executive officer of any corporation or association to which a master group policy has been issued, but excluding the holders of certificates or policies issued under or in connection with a master group policy.

(e) Filed in the office of the Secretary of State after having been approved as provided in subdivisions (b), (c) and (d) of this section.

11527. The commissioner shall examine the plan submitted to him under the provisions of subdivision (e) of section 11526. He shall not approve such plan unless in his opinion the rights and interests of the insurer, its policyholders and shareholders are preserved, and that the plan will be fair and equitable in its operation.

11528. At the election prescribed by subdivision (d) of section 11526, every policyholder whose insurance shall have been in force for at least one year prior to such election shall have one vote, regardless of the number of policies or amount of insurance he holds, and regardless of whether such policies are policies of life insurance or policies of disability insurance. Notice of such election shall be given to such policyholders by mailing from the principal office of such insurer at least thirty days prior to the date set for such election, in a sealed envelope, postage prepaid, addressed to each such policyholder at his last known address.

Voting shall be by one of the following methods:

(a) At a meeting of such policyholders, held pursuant to such notice, by ballot in person or by proxy.

(b) If not by the method described in subdivision (a) of this section, then by mail pursuant to a procedure and on terms to be prescribed by such plan.

Such election shall be conducted under the direction and supervision of those impartial and disinterested inspectors appointed by the insurer and approved by the commissioner. In case any person appointed as inspector fails to appear at such meeting or fails or refuses to act at such election, the vacancy, if occurring in advance of the convening of the meeting or in advance of the opening of the mail vote, may be filled in the manner prescribed for the appointment of inspectors; and, if occurring at the meeting or during the canvass of the mail vote, may be filled by the person acting as chairman of such meeting or designated by that person in such plan. The decision, act or certificate of a majority of the inspectors shall be effective in all respects as the decision, act or certificate of all. The minutes of election shall determine the number of policyholders, the voting power of each, the policyholders represented at the meeting or voting by mail, the existence of a quorum and the authenticity, validity and effect of proxies. There shall neither be any appeal nor determination of any challenge or question in the way of any vote, nor shall the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes, interpret the result, and do such other acts as are proper to conduct the vote with fairness to all policyholders. The inspectors of election shall before commencing performance of their duties subscribe to and file with the insurer and with the commissioner an oath that they, and each of them, will perform their duties honestly, in good faith, to the best of their ability, and as expeditiously as is practicable. On the request of the insurer, the commissioner, a policyholder or his proxy, the inspectors shall make a record in writing of any challenge or question or matter determined by them and execute a certificate of any fact found by them. They shall also certify the result of each vote to the insurer and to the commissioner. Any report or certificate made by them shall be prima facie evidence of facts stated therein. All necessary expenses incurred in connection with such election shall be paid by the insurer. For the purpose of this section, a quorum shall consist of two per centum of the policyholders of such insurer entitled to vote at such election.

Article 2. Execution of Plan.

11529. In carrying out any such plan, the insurer may acquire any shares of its own stock by gift, bequest or purchase. Any shares so acquired shall be placed in trust for the policyholders of the insurer as hereinafter provided. Such shares shall be assigned and transferred on the books of such insurer to those trustees appointed by the commissioner and approved by the commissioner. Such trustees shall hold in trust and vote such stock at all company meetings at which stockholders have the right to vote, until all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of such insurer have been acquired. Thereupon all said shares shall be converted, the certificate of amendment of the insurer's articles of incorporation, relating thereto shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of section 104 of the Civil Code, and the insurer shall become a nonstock corporation for the benefit of its members. Thereafter such corporation shall be conducted for the mutual benefit, ratably, of its policyholders and shall, upon issuance to it by the commissioner of a certificate of authority have power to issue nonconvertible policies on a reserve basis subject to all provisions of law applicable to incorporated life insurers of life and disability insurers, as the case may be, issuing nonconvertible policies on a reserve basis, but shall be exempt from the provisions of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 2 of this code.

11530. Every payment for the acquisition of any shares of the capital stock of such insurer, the purchase price of which is not fixed by such plan, shall be subject to the prior approval of the commissioner. Neither such plan, nor any such payment, may be approved by the commissioner unless he finds that the rights and interests of the insurer, its policyholders and shareholders are preserved, nor unless at the time of each such approval, the paid-in capital of the insurer, after deducting the amount described in subdivisions (a) or (b) of this section, as is proper thereunder, is sufficient at least to qualify such insurer to be admitted as to the classes of insurance transcribed by it in this State. The amounts to be deducted as provided in this section are as follows:

(a) The aggregate sum fixed by such plan for the acquisition of any part or all of its shares of capital stock.

(b) In case of any payment not fixed by such plan and subject to separate approval after the approval of such plan, the amount of such payment.

11531. The trustees referred to in section 11529 shall file with such insurer and with the commissioner a verified acceptance of their appointments and verified declarations that they will faithfully discharge their duties as such trustees. All dividends and other sums received by said trustees on the shares held by them, after paying the necessary expenses of executing their trust, shall be immediately repaid to such insurer for the benefit of all who are, or may become, policyholders of such insurer and entitled to participate in the profits thereof and shall be added to and become a part of the assets of such insurer.

11532. Such insurer, after mutualization, shall be a continuation of the original insurer, and such mutualization shall not affect existing suits, rights or contracts except as provided in said plan for the acquisition of the outstanding shares of the capital stock of such insurer, approved as provided in this chapter. Such insurer, after mutualization, shall exercise all the rights and powers and perform all the duties conferred or imposed by law upon insurers writing the classes of insurance written by it, and to protect rights and contracts existing prior to mutualization, subject to the effect of said plan.

11533. The provisions of Article 8 of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of this code shall not apply to any of the following:

(a) Shares of the capital stock of such insurer acquired as provided in section 11529 and assigned and transferred to the trustees as is provided in said section, and the assignment and transfer of said shares as so provided.

(b) Any certificate or other instrument issued to a policyholder of such mutualized insurer conferring or evidencing membership in such mutualized insurer or conferring or evidencing such member's right to participate in the profits or share in the assets of such mutualized insurer by virtue of his membership therein, and the issuance of such certificate or other instrument.

(c) The plan for the acquisition of the outstanding shares of the capital stock of such insurer authorized by the provisions of this chapter, the subdivision of said plan to the commissioner and to the policyholders of such insurer as provided in this chapter, and the approval and carrying out of said plan or any part thereof in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Bill read second time, ordered to engrossment, and on file for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 17—An act granting in trust to the City and County of San Francisco the interest of the State in and to, and the control and management of the harbor of San Francisco, as described in the act; providing for the disposition of revenues derived from the operation of said harbor; providing for the sale of bonds authorized but not sold; providing for the payment of interest on bonds, and for the redemption of bonds; fixing the terms and conditions of the grant; providing for the issuance of a proclamation by the Governor; providing for the continuation in service of employees and entitling them to the benefits of the civil service provisions of the charter of the City and County of San Francisco; providing that the members of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners shall be continued in office as members of the board, commission or public officers vested with the management of said harbor until their respective terms as members of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners shall expire.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Municipal Corporations, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 17 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 14, line 22 of the printed bill, as amended, insert the following language after the semicolon following the word "San Francisco", and before the word "provided", insert the following words:

"Such persons shall go to the positions now held by them here, without preference over all other persons, and shall have such seniority and preference, in case of lay-off, on the eligible list, over all other persons whether or not employees of the City and County of San Francisco, and whether or not persons eligible out of the City and County of San Francisco. All persons employed in the operating service of the Board of State Harbor Commissioners at the time this act goes into effect shall continue to be members of the State Employees' Retirement System, with contributions subject to the same law, rules and regulations as in the case of State employees. The contributions provided by section 109 of an act entitled 'An act to provide for the establishment, adjustment with other systems, or a retirement system for the employees of the State of California, and make an appropriation therefore,' approved June 9, 1931, shall be made by the City and County of San Francisco from said San Francisco Harbor fund and such employees shall continue to receive the benefits and make the payments provided or will do so approved June 9, 1931.

The cost of the additional pension and second additional pension provided by sections 83 and 84 of said act shall be a charge upon and be paid by the City and County of San Francisco, out of said San Francisco Harbor fund, in all such cases.

All persons employed in the operating service of the Board of State Harbor Commissioners at the time this act goes into effect and who have been employed at least one year prior to the date when this act goes into effect, and who on the date this act takes effect reside outside the City and County of San Francisco shall not thereafter be required to reside within the City and County of San Francisco nor shall they otherwise have their residence restricted.

The provisions of this act in respect to persons employed in the operating service of the Board of State Harbor Commissioners at the time this act takes effect shall also apply to heads of departments and bureaus in such operating service in the same manner as to the other employees."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 14 of the printed bill, as amended, between lines 43 and 44 add a new section thereto, to read as follows:

"Sec. 134. Title to all property and rights herein granted shall not rest finally in the City and County of San Francisco unless and until said City and County of San Francisco shall by amendment to its charter and city ordinances comply with or make it lawful to comply with, each and all of the terms and conditions hereof."

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Municipal Corporations, the following amendments to Assembly Bill No. 668 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 3 of the title of the printed bill, as amended, following the word "from", insert the words "taxes or from", and on page 1, line 1, strike out all of the language following the period; strike out all of lines 2 to 10, inclusive, and in line 11, strike out the language preceding the period, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "Any bonded indebtedness consisting of outstanding unpaid bonds and outstanding unpaid interest coupons of bonds issued by or for any special improvement district the bonds of which are payable from special taxes or special assessments levied wholly or partly in accordance with the assessed value of lands may be funded or refunded under and pursuant to the provisions of this act."

On page 2, line 2, of the printed bill, as amended, following the word "refunded", insert the following: ", and the rate of interest on the refunding bonds shall not exceed the rate of interest on the bonds to be refunded"; and on page 2, line 2, strike out the word "said", and in the same line, following the word "body", insert the following: "of the city or county or city and county which conducts the refunding proceedings"; and on page 2, line 11, following the period, insert the following: "In refunding such indebtedness under this act, the total amount of the assessments to be levied under this act plus contributions, if any, of public money to aid in such refunding shall be less than the total amount of unpaid bonds and due and unpaid interest coupons to be refunded."

On page 2, line 33, strike out all of the language following the words "state the", and strike out all of lines 34 to 45, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "total amount of the outstanding indebtedness to be refunded, and shall state the amount of the principal of bonds included therein, and the amount of due and unpaid interest coupons included therein, all as of the date said resolution is adopted. No error or mistake in the computation of the amount of unpaid principal or unpaid interest shall affect the validity of the refunding proceedings, and no error or mistake in any statement of the amount of such principal or interest in any notice, resolution or order in the course of the proceedings shall invalidate in any way the assessment or the refunding bonds or the refunding proceedings; provided, that the total sum of the assessment levied in the refunding proceeding, plus any contribution or contributions of public funds made to aid in such refunding, shall not exceed the sum of the principal amount of the bonds to be refunded and the amount of the due and unpaid interest coupons to be refunded.

Said resolution shall also contain a date, hour, and place for the hearing of objections to said refunding, and the date fixed for said hearing shall not be less than twenty (20) days nor more than sixty (60) days subsequent to the date of adoption of said resolution. Said resolution shall also contain a statement that the refunding shall not be authorized unless the written consent of the owners of a majority in area of the land in the district subject to assessment to pay the principal and interest of the outstanding bonds is filed with the clerk of the legislative body, and that any owner of land in said district may file his written consent to such refunding at any time prior to the adoption of the resolution ordering the refunding."

Amendment No. 3.

On page 3, line 45, of the printed bill, as amended, following the word "mailing", insert the words "or posting".

On page 3, line 52, following the period, insert the following: "The date of the first publication of the resolution of intention, the date of the posting of copies of such resolution, and the date of mailing copies of such resolution (which dates need not be the same) shall be at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of hearing fixed in said resolution."

On page 3, strike out all of line 1, and in line 2, strike out the words "prior thereto any", and insert in lieu thereof the word "Any".

On page 3, line 12, strike out "and of", and strike out all of lines 13 to 17, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "Executors, administrators, special administrators, and guardians may consent for any property of the estate represented by them. Any trustee of an express trust in land, other than as security for the payment of money, may consent for all or any part of the land held in such trust. A trustee in bankruptcy may consent for all or any part of the property of the bankrupt. Such executors, administrators, guardians and trustees are deemed owners of land within the meaning of this act. The written consent of the owners of a majority in area of the lands in the district subject to assessment in the refunding proceedings shall be binding upon the owners of the minority in area of the lands in such district."

On page 3, line 18, strike out all of the language following the figure "4"; strike out all of lines 19 to 25, inclusive, and on page 4, strike out lines 1 to 14, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "At any time not later than the hour set for hearing objections to the proposed refunding, any person interested and any owner of property which is subject to assessment in the refunding proceeding may file his written objection against the proposed refunding with the clerk of the legislative body. Such objection must contain a description of the property in which each signer thereof is interested, sufficient to identify the same, and shall set forth the nature of each signer's interest therein, and shall be delivered to the clerk of said legislative body at or before the time set for hearing, and no other protests or objections shall be considered. At the time and place fixed for the hearing of objections, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, the legislative body shall hear and consider all objections so filed. The hearing may be continued from time to time, by order of the legislative body to be entered upon its minutes. Any objection or protest to such refunding not made at the time and in the manner hereinbefore provided shall be deemed to be waived voluntarily by any person who might have made such protest or objection, and such person shall be deemed to have consented to the proposed refunding. The legislative body may sustain or deny any or all objections and protests and its determination thereon shall be entered upon the minutes and shall be final and conclusive. Said legislative body shall also at said hearing, as originally fixed or as adjourned, by order or resolution entered upon the minutes, determine whether the written consent of the owners of a majority in area of the lands in the district subject to assessment has been filed or not, and if it determines that such consent has been filed it shall thereupon acquire jurisdiction to proceed further under this act.

The validity, sufficiency, or genuineness of said consents, or any thereof, or the finding and determination of the legislative body thereon, shall not be contested in any action, suit or proceeding unless the same shall be commenced within three months after the determination of said legislative body has been made, and thereafter no person in any action, suit or proceeding may plead or prove that said consents or any thereof, or the finding or determination of the legislative body thereon, was in any way defective, invalid, or insufficient.

After the legislative body has determined that the written consent of the owners of such majority in area has been filed, it may by resolution entered upon the minutes order the refunding and reassessment."

On page 13, line 9, of the printed bill, as amended, following the period, insert the following: "The bonds shall be given as of the date of the recording of the assessment."

On page 15, lines 9 and 10, strike out the following: "and shall be issued in series as herein provided".

Amendment No. 9.

On page 15 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of the language contained in section 18, and on page 19, strike out the same three times, and in line 4 strike out the word "anywhere", and insert in its stead the following: "At the holders of all of the outstanding bonds agree to permit their bonds to be purchased in the refunding proceeding, then all refunding moneys, all moneys received on the payments levied in the refunding proceeding, and all partial contributions (if any) shall be paid and delivered to the holder of the outstanding bonds in such amounts and proportions as may be taken by contract with such bondholders. Any contract with the holder of any bond may provide such terms and conditions of exchange as may be agreed upon by the holder and the legislative body, and may include such terms and conditions relating to time of performance, manner of payment thereof, and the method and mode of performance, as may be agreed upon and proven. Whenever the refunding bonds are received, if any, by the holder of such bonds, said bondholders must concurrently deliver to the legislative body or its representatives the outstanding unpaid bonds, when due, and all outstanding interest income coupons, constituting the entire indebtedness of said bonds, and the same shall forthwith be canceled.

In the event that the holders of one or more of the outstanding bonds do not enter any contract with the legislative body to refund the same, nevertheless if two-thirds of seventy-five per cent or more of the outstanding bonds so contract, with the legislative body which conducts the refunding proceeding, or the refunding of the bonds owned or held by them, said legislative body shall have authority to refund all of the bonds of said district under the provisions of this act, but in such event, what is recorded the assessment levied under this act, sufficient moneys to completely provide for the retirement or payment of the bonds of the nonconsenting owners must be provided and set aside in the proper fund for that purpose. Any city or county or city and county which is authorized under this act to apply moneys to refunding the bonds of the district, may make an advancement or contribution or an additional contribution in order to enable the city to pay or retire bonds of such nonconsenting holders. Whenever any city or county or city and county or any person or corporation advances moneys to provide for the payment or retirement of the bonds of nonconsenting holders, the legislative body must deliver at par all or any portion of the refunding bonds which are not to be delivered to consenting bondholders to the person, corporation, city, county or city and county making such advance or advances, or sell at par all or any part of such refunding bonds not to be delivered to consenting bondholders, and from the proceeds thereof reimburse such person, corporation, city, county or city and county entirely or partially, and may contract to make such sale or delivery. If the legislative body makes all or any part of such advancement it may reimburse the city, county or city and county of which it is the legislative body, entirely or partially by taking all or any part of such refunding bonds at par. Any cash collected on assessments and not required to pay consenting bondholders may also be used to reimburse in whole or in part any person, corporation, city, county or city and county making such advance or advances, and the legislative body may contract to so apply such cash. Any other method of paying funds for the payment or retirement of the bonds of nonconsenting bondholders which will prior to the time the assessment is recorded under this act adequately provide the moneys necessary for such payment or retirement is hereby authorized. Wherever any moneys are placed in any fund for the retirement or payment of the bonds of nonconsenting holders the said moneys shall be used only for that purpose and after all of the bonds of said nonconsenting holders have been paid or retired any sum remaining in said fund shall be returned to the city or county or city and county which advanced the same.

If the contract with the bondholders so provides, said legislative body may sell all of the refunding bonds for cash and pay said bondholders in cash at a price to be fixed in said contract.

In the event that the discharge of the bonds of any nonconsenting holders at less than the par value thereof has been authorized by any final decree or order confirming a plan of readjustment under any bankruptcy law of the United States of America in any proceedings initiated under the authority of this act, said legislative body is authorized to do and perform all acts and things necessary for the discharge of such bonds in accordance with said decree or order.

Resolution.

The following resolution was offered:

By Senators Slater, Sharkey, Deuel and Knowland:

Senate Resolution.

Relative to commending Sacramento Bee, C. K. McClatchy and Arthur B. Waugh.

WHEREAS, The Pulitzer award for disinterested and meritorious public service, inaugurated in 1918, and awarded annually by the board of trustees of Columbia University to the American newspaper most distinguished for the year in the public duties above described, was established by the late Joseph Pulitzer, himself a famous editor and newspaper publisher; and

WHEREAS, The Sacramento Bee, which has long been one of the most progressive newspapers of the State and of the Nation, has been awarded the Pulitzer prize for the most disinterested and meritorious public service performed by an American newspaper during the year 1934, for a series of articles relating to the appointment of Federal judges in Nevada written by Arthur B. Waugh, under the direction of C. K. McClatchy, owner and publisher of the Sacramento Bee; and

WHEREAS, The Sacramento Bee is the first California newspaper to receive such an award, thus bringing greater fame and honor to the State of California and to the newspaper fraternity of this State; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the Sacramento Bee, C. K. McClatchy and Arthur B. Waugh, be commended by this Legislature for their splendid service to the people of this State; and be it further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be directed to transmit a copy of this resolution, suitably engrossed, to C. K. McClatchy, editor of the Sacramento Bee, and to Arthur B. Waugh, the author of the prize-winning articles.

Resolution read, and on motion of Senator Slater adopted.

Communication.

The following communication was received, read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS,
CITY HALL, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, May 6, 1935.

To the Senate of the State of California, Sacramento, California:

Your attention is hereby directed to the following resolution, passed by the board of supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco:

Memorializing the State Senate, the State Assembly and Governor of California to Return Our Waterfront to This City and County.

(Code No. 534).

Supervisor Gallagher presented Resolution No. 1797, as follows:

WHEREAS, The waterfront of the City and County of San Francisco is owned, controlled and operated by the State of California, the sole management thereof being vested in a Board of Harbor Commissioners, appointed by the Governor; and

WHEREAS, All bond issues for the improvement of said waterfront and all laws, rules, regulations and questions of policy for the operation of said waterfront are ultimately subject to the approval or disapproval of all the voters of the State of California, including the voters of various communities that own and operate their respective waterfronts in competition with the San Francisco waterfront; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco is the only large city in the United States, with the exception of New Orleans, Louisiana, that does not enjoy municipal waterfront control; and

WHEREAS, Municipal ownership control is a recognized principle in American governmental affairs; and

WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco desires that the ownership and control of our waterfront be vested exclusively in this city and county, without supervision or control thereof by our competitors, and subject only to such general State laws as may be applicable thereto; and

WHEREAS, The State of California has none of its funds invested in said waterfront, aside from its credit, in the matter of outstanding harbor bonds; now therefore, be it

Resolved, by the board of supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco, the mayor of said city and county concurring. That we hereby respectfully memorialize the State Senate, the State Assembly and the Governor of California to forthwith return our waterfront to this city and county, by appropriate legislation, subject to such reasonable restrictions as may be necessary to protect the credit of the State, the civil service standing of waterfront employees, and the individual status of the Harbor Commissioners; and be it

Further resolved. That we hereby declare the following municipal policy with respect to said waterfront, in the event the same is returned to this municipal government, and we pledge the City and County of San Francisco to the faithful performance thereof, namely:

The civil service status of all civil service employees of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners, as of the date of the assumption of waterfront control by this city and county, shall be faithfully preserved, and such employees shall be "blanketed in" as aforesaid, as civil service employees of this municipality.

The members of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners shall be continued in office, as such commissioners, for the terms which they may be serving at the time of the assumption of waterfront control by this city and county.

Said waterfront shall be operated, controlled and policed by this municipality, in a progressive, orderly and business-like manner, without regard to any political concern whatsoever, and in the interests of all persons who may visit or use said waterfront, whether as shippers, carriers, passengers, or otherwise, and at a minimum cost to said shippers and passengers.

The interests of all shippers, including all agricultural interests, are fully recognized and appreciated and this city and county pledges itself to exert every legitimate means to safeguard the rights of all shippers of agricultural commodities over, in or upon said waterfront and to erect and to maintain thereon or adjacent thereto, at minimum rates to such agricultural interests, such structures and enterprises as may be advisable for the accommodation of such agricultural interests.

Adopted by the board of supervisors February 11, 1935.

AYES—Supervisors Gallagher, Havenner, Hayden, McSheehy, Ratto, Roncovieri, Schmidt, Shannon, Uhl—9.

ABSENT—Supervisors Brown, Colman—2.

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was adopted by the board of supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco.

Approved February 14, 1935.

Message from the Governor.

The following message from the Governor was received and read:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
SACRAMENTO, May 10, 1935.

*Honorable Members of the Senate,
State of California, Sacramento, California.*

GREETINGS. I am herewith returning, with my approval, Senate Bill No. 694—An act to add section 690.5 to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to exemption from attachment, garnishment, and execution of moneys paid to persons receiving relief, and declaring the urgency hereof.

I am informed by those whose duty it is to investigate these matters for me, that this bill is unnecessary and goes too far, in fact, probably farther than the author intended. In this view I concur.

Under the existing law (Code of Civil Procedure, section 690) the earnings of heads of families, for personal services rendered within 30 days next preceding the levy, are exempt, except that 50 per cent of such earnings is subject to a levy for a debt incurred for necessities of life. This provision would seem to take care of most of the persons receiving work relief.

It is believed that the bill goes too far for the reason that the Federal work relief bill recently passed provides that in all cases the money shall be expended in such a manner as to afford unemployment relief. All money granted in this State for highway purposes, for example, would seem to come within the genera mentioned in this bill. The effect of the bill might be to prohibit the execution of any contract with a contractor who held a contract which was ultimately to be paid from Federal money, and it would also seem to apply to any person employed on such a project, regardless of the compensation he receives.

There would seem to be no reason why the earnings of a skilled tradesman, receiving high wages, should not be subject to execution on attachment in the same manner as if he were employed by a private employer or by a public body on its regular pay roll.

It would seem to be entirely reasonable to exempt the direct relief given to persons who are out of employment, and it might be possible to work out a bill whereby the compensation of persons receiving aid on any unemployment relief project under a certain amount could be exempt from execution.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK F. MERRIAM, Governor of California.
Sustaining Governor's Veto.

Message from the Governor announcing his objections to Senate Bill No. 694 read.

The question being: Shall Senate Bill No. 694 become a law, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?

The roll was called, and the objections of the Governor sustained by the following vote:

AYES—None.

NOES—Senators Biggar, Denel, Duval, Fletcher, Garrison, Gordon, Hays, Jessperson, Keough, King, Knowland, McCall, McCormack, McGuinness, Metzger, Mixer, Parkman, Perry, Powers, Reindollar, Rich, Schottky, Scollan, Seawell, Sharkey, Slater, Snyder, Stow, Swing, Tickle, Wagy, Williams, and Young—33.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 59.

Relative to memorializing the President and the Congress of the United States to enact bill H. R. 6628 which proposes to provide remunerative employment for the blind citizens of the United States and its possessions and urging the Committee on Labor of the House of Representatives to expedite consideration favorable to said bill.

WHEREAS, During recent times there has been a great deal of public interest and discussion on the part of social and welfare organizations and individuals throughout the United States of the necessity to enact immediate legislation for the purpose of providing remunerative employment for the blind citizens in the United States; and

WHEREAS, In recent years it has become clear to all workers for the amelioration of the condition of the blind that the blind problem is essentially an economic problem which can be solved only through remunerative employment; and

WHEREAS, On March 12, 1935, there was introduced in the House of Representatives by John H. Tolan of California a bill known as H. R. 6628 which has as its purpose "to provide blind citizens of the United States with remunerative employment, to enlarge economic opportunities of the blind, and to stimulate the blind to greater efforts in striving to render themselves self-supporting; and

WHEREAS, The Tolan Bill H. R. 6628 is general in its application and seeks to provide employment for all blind citizens who are between 21 and 50 years of age; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the President and Congress of the United States are respectfully urged to enact legislation proposed by bill H. R. 6628, and that the Committee on Labor of the House of Representatives is also urged to expedite consideration favorable to said bill; and be it further

Resolved, That the Governor of the State of California is hereby requested to transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the chairman of the Committee on Labor of the House of Representatives, and to each member of the Committee on Labor of the House of Representatives and to each Senator and member of the House of Representatives from California in the Congress of the United States and that such Senators and members from California are hereby respectfully urged to support such legislation.

Weighing the Evidence.

Almighty God, an ever present help in time of trouble, guide us here in our tribulations.

May we weigh each issue pending, not by momentary smiles, not by fleeting letters and telegrams inspired from doubtful sources, but rather face each question be tried in the balance of our own inner conscience and be measured by Those own enduring standards of rightness and justice.

Help us, O Lord, to give victory to every just cause, compassionate help to every worthy human need and to give security and peace to all things as we shape the affairs of this great State. Amen.

400. Liability of Governmental Agencies. (a) The State, and every political subdivision thereof, and every public corporation formed or organized for the government of a portion of the State including, but without excluding by reason of the hereinafter contained enumeration any such aforesaid public corporation of whatsoever class, type or designation, every school district, irrigation district, municipal corporation, and quasi municipal corporation shall be liable for civil damages on account of personal injury to or death of any person or damage to property resulting from the negligent operation of either a publicly or privately owned motor vehicle by an officer, agent, or employee thereof when acting within the scope of his office, agency, or employment, whether or not liability is imposed by law upon such operator, subject to the limit in amount of five thousand dollars for personal injury to or death of one person as the result of any one accident and, subject to said limit as to one person, the amount of ten thousand dollars for personal injury to or death of all persons as the result of any one accident and one thousand dollars for damage to property of others as the result of any one accident.

(b) This section shall apply to the negligent operation of all vehicles as herein provided, including the operation of any authorized emergency vehicle whether operated in response to an emergency call or otherwise by an officer, agent, or employee acting within the scope of his office, agency or employment.

(c) Any person having such a claim against any such public entity or corporation may present the same to such public entity or corporation in the same manner as other claims are presented and if thereupon such claim is not acted upon within thirty days after said presentation or is rejected in whole or in part, then said person may sue such public entity or corporation in a court of competent jurisdiction in the manner prescribed by law for the commencement and maintenance of such a suit against a private individual.

(d) Whenever in any such suit, a judgment is rendered against said State, political subdivision or public corporation, and such public entity or corporation thereafter satisfies the same in whole or in part, then said public entity or corporation shall be subrogated to the rights of the owner of said judgment theretofore existing to the amount of such satisfaction and may recover in a civil action such amount from the officer, agent or employee whose operation of a motor vehicle resulted in such liability against said public entity or corporation.

(e) The State Compensation Insurance Fund is hereby authorized to insure any such public entity or corporation against the liability imposed by this section, and any such public entity or corporation may secure insurance against such liability exclusively with the State Compensation Insurance Fund. Any and all premiums for such insurance shall be paid to the State insurance fund and shall be a proper charge against the general fund of such entity or corporation.

SEC. 2. Section 401 of the Vehicle Code is hereby amended to read as follows: "

Consideration of Special Order.

The hour having arrived for the consideration of Assembly Bill No. 947, heretofore set as a special order for two o'clock and thirty minutes p. m., the same was taken up for consideration.

Third Reading of Assembly Bill No. 947.

Assembly Bill No. 947—An act to amend Chapter 763, Statutes of 1929, approved June 10, 1929, as amended by Chapter 401 Statutes of 1931, approved May 25, 1931, and as amended by Chapter 10 Statutes of 1933, approved January 26, 1933, entitled and known and cited as "California Toll Bridge Authority Act" by amending the title thereof and by amending section 2, 6½, 9, 11, 14, 16, 20 and 22½, and by adding thereto new sections numbered 4½, 5½, 5¾, 8½, 8¾, 9½, 9¾, 12½, 13¾, 16½ and 16¾, relating to and prescribing additional duties, powers and limitations regarding the construction and financing of toll bridges; and providing for the acquisition, construction, financing and operation of transportation facilities thereof and thereto; and providing that this act become effective immediately.

Bill read third time.

Urgency Clause.

SEC. 20. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of section 1, Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of California, and it is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety that this law shall go into immediate effect. The construction of a toll bridge and approaches thereto over the bay of San Francisco from the City and County of San Francisco to the county of Alameda and the provision for the transportation thereto and thereover of persons and property are essential to complete and make effective the system of State highways. It is necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety that greater facilities for travel and transportation across the bay of San Francisco be immediately afforded by the construction of such toll bridge and the approaches thereto and the transportation facilities thereon and thereto; this act is necessary in order to enable and assure the immediate financing and construction of said toll bridge and transportation facilities. There now exists unemployment in this State to such an extent that the public peace, health, and safety are threatened and endangered. The immediate construction of said toll bridge and the approaches thereto, with the transportation facilities thereon and thereto, will do much to relieve the present unemployment situation, by furnishing employment for thousands of people. It is therefore essential that this act go into immediate effect, and the Legislature so determines that it shall become effective immediately.

Urgency clause read.

The question being on the adoption of the urgency clause.

AYES—Senators Biggar, Crittenden, Deuel, Difani, Edwards, Fletcher, Garrison, Gordon, Hays, Jespersen, Keough, King, Knowland, McCall, McCormack, McGuinness, Metzger, Mixer, Parkman, Perry, Pierovich, Powers, Reindollar, Rich, Schottky, Scollan, Seawell, Sharkey, Slater, Snyder, Swing, Tickle, Wagy, Williams, and Young—35.

NOES—Senator Olson—1.

Senator Deuel in the Chair.

At two o'clock and fifty-five minutes p. m., Senator Deuel of the sixth district was called to the chair.

Amendments from the Floor.

During third reading of Assembly Bill No. 947, the following amendments, offered by Senator McGovern, were read:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 9, line 25, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out "such," and insert in lieu thereof the following "any".

Amendment refused adoption.Statement by Senator Walter McGovern.

The foregoing Amendment No. 1, to Assembly Bill No. 947, as the same was amended on May 9, 1935, and which Amendment means to substitute the word "any" for the word "such" on line 25 of page 9 of said bill, with a view to the granting authority of a city, county, or city and county, over the streets of which the California Toll Bridge Authority may propose to erect an elevated railway system, to be incorporated in connection with any toll bridge, a vote in the adoption of the same, is now elevated railway system.

The bill, in its present form, confers such a right upon any city, county, or city and county, where the California Toll Bridge Authority proposes to construct a bridge, as is known in the bill as "additional transportation facilities," meaning, according to the language of the bill, "transportation facilities on the surface and not over transportation facilities as may be elevated and as may be constructed as part of one approach to or terminal of the bridge." The word "such" as it appears in the bill, at this time, has a limited meaning, referring only to such surface transportation facilities. If the word "any" were substituted for the word "such" as above suggested, then every city, county, or city and county, in this State, would have the right to maintain a degree of home rule, at least with respect to the granting of transportation facilities, over, in and upon its streets, if the California Toll Bridge Authority proposed the construction of elevated railroads in connection with any toll bridge.

Assembly Bill No. 947 confers upon the California Toll Bridge Authority great and unusual powers with respect to the construction and operation of transportation facilities, within the boundaries of municipal corporations, and without the necessity of obtaining the consent of such municipal corporations. This is a marked departure from the established practice of State governmental functions, in California, since statehood.

Unless the bill is amended as suggested, it should be defeated, because, if in present form, it permits unwarranted increase of the government of a city, county, or city and county, and confers powers on a State political body, over cities that it should not possess. The adoption of the foregoing amendment would correct the evil now contained in this bill.

Signed, WALTER MCGOVERN

Amendment No. 2.

On page 9, line 36, of the printed bill, as amended, after the period, insert the following: "No bonds, debentures or obligations of any kind shall be issued by said California Toll Bridge Authority for the purpose of obtaining any funds or credit to provide, in any manner, for the additional transportation facilities, surface and facilities are to be owned and operated exclusively by said California Toll Bridge Authority."

Communication.

The following communication was received, read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE.

SACRAMENTO, May 13, 1935.

Hon. Harry L. Parkman,

State Senate, Sacramento, California.

MY DEAR SENATOR PARKMAN: As requested, we have calculated the amount that a tax of 5 cents per $100 of assessed value would yield on the properties of Alameda, Marin, San Francisco, and San Mateo counties, using the assessed values as shown on the State Controller's Statement No. 16.

It is understood that the values of public utility properties on this statement are those returned by county assessors, and the amounts would be considerably changed by the valuations compiled by the Board of Equalization.

Using the values shown on Statement No. 16, after deducting the solvent credits and intangibles, we find the total assessed value of all property in the four counties to be $1,647,551,245. A tax rate of 5 cents per $100 would produce on this valuation $823,775.62.

Yours very truly,

A. E. STOCKBURGER, Director of Finance.

Recess.

On motion of Senator Rich, at four o'clock and fifty-five minutes p.m., Senator Denel, in the chair, declared recess until eight o'clock and thirty minutes p.m.

Reconvened.

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 11.

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of said State by amending section 1 of Article XVI thereof, relating to incurrence and retirement of bonded indebtedness by the State.

Read by the Senate, the Assembly concurring. That the Legislature of the State of California at its fifty-first regular session commencing on the seventh day of January, 1935, heretofore of the people elected to each of the two houses of the said Legislature before their respective houses convened in the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State of California be amended by amending section 1 of Article XVI thereof to read as follows:

Section 1. The Legislature shall not, in any manner, create any debt or liability or liabilities, which shall, except as to the mortgage with any previous debt or liabilities, exceed the sum of $1,000,000, except by vote of two-thirds majority or suppress appropriation, unless the same shall be authorized by law for some single object or work to be distinctly specified therein, which law shall provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest of such debt or liability as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt or liability within 40 years of the time of the contracting thereof, except as hereinafter provided, and shall be irrevocable until the principal and interest thereon shall be paid and discharged, but no such law shall take effect until at a general election, it shall have been submitted to the people and shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election, and all moneys raised by authority of such law shall be applied only to the discharge thereof or to the payment of the debt thereby created, and such law shall be published in at least one newspaper in each county in one and same way, it may be published therein, throughout the State, for three months next preceding the election at which it is submitted to the people. The Legislature may, at any time after the approval of such law by the people, if no debt shall have been contracted in pursuance thereof, repeal the same.

Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, bonds issued in accordance with the authorization of the Legislature pursuant to this section, shall not be for a longer time than 40 years. Bonds so issued shall be in the form of serial bonds maturing in substantially equal semiannual or annual installments. The authorization must provide that the date of first maturity of any bonds issued under this section shall be not later than three years from and after the date of issuance of such bonds, except that where bonds are issued for the construction or improvement of revenue-producing utilities, as hereinafter defined, the date of first maturity shall be not later than fifteen years from and after the date of issuance of such bonds. The words "revenue-producing utilities" as used herein shall be deemed to mean such utilities as those from which revenue is customarily or may be derived from charges, rates or rentals imposed upon or collected from users, consumers, or customers thereof, together with such works, facilities and appliances used or useful in connection therewith or incidental thereto.

The Legislature may provide in the authorization that bonds issued thereunder may at the option of the State be subject to call by the issuing authority at some date before maturity and at some figure above the par value thereof, which date and figure must be set forth in the original proposal submitted to the people for approval as aforesaid.

Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to limit or prohibit the issuance of bonds for the purpose of refunding a valid outstanding bonded indebtedness, and nothing in this section contained shall be construed to limit or prohibit the issuance of bonds authorized in accordance with law prior to the taking effect of this section but not yet sold or issued at said time.

Bonds issued in accordance with the authority of the Legislature pursuant to this section for the acquisition, development or distribution of waters and water resources, including electric energy, may be for a longer time than 40 years but shall not be for a period exceeding 70 years.

Senate Resolution.

Marketing of Agricultural Products.

WHEREAS, The agricultural industry is the basic industry of the State of California and the prosperity and happiness of all of the people of the State are dependent thereon and, during the recent period of depression, an intolerable burden has been placed upon the agricultural industry; and

WHEREAS, The cost to the consumer of agricultural products is excessively high as compared to the producer's return; and

WHEREAS, The agricultural industry of the State of California is carrying a burden of an elaborate system of inspection and there is some complaint, particularly by the prune, peach and apricot growers, that this inspection is insubstantial; and

WHEREAS, There are now in effect, and pending, many regulations affecting the marketing of agricultural products, many of which are experimental; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary that in the future laws be enacted perpetuating what is good of such regulations and eliminating those features which are bad; and

WHEREAS, A Senate committee was appointed on January 6, 1935, to study marketing methods and conditions and, for lack of time, was unable to complete its investigations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California. That the President of the Senate appoint a committee of seven members to investigate the matters hereinbefore set forth and to determine the effect of the laws and regulations now in effect or hereafter to become effective relating to the marketing of agricultural products and the differential between the price paid to the producer and the price paid by the consumer, the price paid to California producers of agricultural products as compared with the price paid in the local markets and in other markets, and to investigate complaints in regard to the inspection of agricultural products, to study the operation of cooperative marketing in this State and in other States, and to report during the first week of the next ensuing session of the Legislature with recommendations as to needed legislation; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee shall be and is hereby authorized and empowered to do all things necessary to make a full and complete investigation of the matters hereinbefore set forth in order to enable the Senate to act judiciously and advisedly upon such matters, and the said committee shall hereby be empowered to summon and subpoena witnesses, require the production of papers, books, accounts, reports and records of every kind; to issue subpoenas and to take all necessary means to compel the attendance of witnesses and to procure testimony; the members of such committee are, and each of them is, hereby authorized to administer oaths; all of the provisions of Article VIII of Chapter 2, Title I, Part III, of the Political Code of this State, relative to the attendance and examination of witnesses before the Legislature and committees thereof, shall apply to the committee appointed under this resolution, and said committee shall have the power therein specified; the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate is hereby authorized and directed to serve any and all subpoenas and orders or other process that may be issued by said committee, when directed so to do by the chairman thereof, and do and perform any other service required of him by said committee, and that said committee be, and it is hereby given leave, to sit during the sessions of the Legislature of 1935 and the sessions of 1937, and between said times to hold meetings throughout the State at such places as may be convenient to the committee, and to the witnesses and parties interested. Said committee may hold a public or executive meeting as may be necessary or desired; and be it further

Resolved, That the sum of $2500 be and the same is hereby made available for the purpose of defraying the expenses of said committee, said sum to be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate, and the State Controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants in favor of the chairman of said committee for such expenditures as may be certified to him from time to time by the chairman of the said committee, and the State Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the same.

Resolution referred to Committee on Contingent Expenses.

321.5. As used in this article, the term "meat" includes rabbit meat and dressed poultry. Whenever rabbits and poultry are shipped or handled together, all accounts thereof shall be segregated."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, engrossment, and on file for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 1071—An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the inspection, quarantine and registration of aviaries and other places where shell parrakeets are sold, offered for sale, trade or barter; and to provide for the inspection of all birds which may be kept in such places; to declare the urgency thereof and provide that this act shall take effect immediately," approved by the Governor May 26, 1933.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Public Health and Quarantine, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 1071 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out the title, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "An act to provide for the inspection, quarantine and registration of aviaries and other places where shell parrakeets are sold, offered for sale, trade or barter, or otherwise distributed, and to provide for the inspection of all birds which may be kept in such places; to repeal an act entitled "An act to provide for the inspection, quarantine and registration of aviaries and other places where shell parrakeets are sold, offered for sale, trade or barter; and to provide for the inspection of all birds which may be kept in such places; to declare the urgency thereof and provide that this act shall take effect immediately," approved May 26, 1933; to declare the urgency thereof and provide that this act shall take effect immediately."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, after "Section 1", insert the following: "No person or persons, firm, association or corporation, shall hereafter maintain or conduct in this State an aviary, or other place as hereinafter described, where shell parrakeets are kept, without first obtaining a certificate of registration, in writing, from the State Department of Public Health.

SEC. 2. All aviaries and other places where shell parrakeets are kept, sold, offered for sale, trade, barter or other distribution, shall be open to inspection at all times to inspectors of the State Department of Public Health.

SEC. 3. No shell parrakeets shall be sold, offered for sale, traded, bartered or otherwise distributed from such places unless the person or persons, firm, association or corporation conducting such aviary or other such place has first obtained such certificate of registration.

SEC. 4. A Class 1 aviary as hereinafter defined shall pay an annual fee of five dollars for such certificate of registration.

A Class 2 aviary, as hereinafter defined, shall be required to pay an annual fee of one dollar for such certificate of registration.

All fees collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the State treasury to the credit of the "Aviary inspection fund," which fund is hereby created. All moneys in the aviary inspection fund shall be paid out in accordance with law to pay the salaries of inspectors employed by the Department of Public Health to enforce the provisions of this act, and also to pay all other necessary expenses incurred in the enforcement of this act.

SEC. 5. A Class 1 aviary is a place where shell parrakeets are kept or propagated for sale, trade, barter, or other distribution.

A Class 2 aviary is a place where shell parrakeets are maintained, and from which no birds are offered for sale, trade, barter or other distribution. This class includes only places where not less than five (5) nor more than twenty (20) shell parrakeets are kept.

SEC. 6. If an aviary, or other such place where shell parrakeets are maintained, is found to contain birds infected with psittacosis, such an aviary is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and shall be abated as such.

SEC. 7. It is unlawful to transport any shell parrakeets from one locality to another within this State, except for purposes of laboratory tests for psittacosis by the State Department of Public Health, until a certificate has first been secured from the said State Department of Public Health, or an authorized representative thereof, stating that the aviary from which such birds are transported is free from the disease known as psittacosis or parrot fever.

SEC. 8. All shell parakeets sold, offered for sale, trade, barter or transportation, must be banded with an identification band bearing a code number of the bander of such parakeets and insignia of the State of California, such bands to be furnished by the State Department of Public Health. It is unlawful for any person or persons, firm, corporation or association to use in this manner any band other than those described in this section. A fee of three cents per band shall be charged for issuance for each bird so banded. A further fee of three cents per bird shall be charged to the shipper for the issuance of certificates as required by the United States public health service for shipment of such birds interstate.

SEC. 9. If any clause, sentence, paragraph or part of this chapter shall for any reasons be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the provisions thereof, nor shall be grounds in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or part thereof, directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

SEC. 10. Any person or persons, firm, corporation or association, who violates any section of this act, or who fails to comply with any of the provisions thereof, is guilty of misdemeanor.

SEC. 11. An act entitled "An act to provide for the inspection, quarantine and registration of aviaries and other places where shell parakeets are sold, offered for sale, trade or barter; and to provide for the inspection of all types where they are kept in such places; to declare the urgency thereof and provide that this act shall take effect immediately," approved May 26, 1933, is hereby amended.

SEC. 12. This act is hereby declared to be an urgent measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency.

There is now prevalent in the State of California a disease known as psittacosis (parrot fever), which disease is caused and spread by contact with the psittacine family. In order to effectively control the contraction and spread of this disease, and thus properly safeguard the health of the people of this State, it is necessary that the transportation and sale of said birds be controlled and regulated by the proper State authority. To this end it is imperative that legislation be immediately enacted providing for the licensing and regulation of persons, firms and corporations selling, trading, bartering or otherwise distributing such birds."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Public Health and Quarantine.

Senate Bill No. 154—An act to amend section 14 of the State Medical Practice Act, approved June 2, 1913, as amended, relating to refusal to issue certificates, suspension and revocation of certificates and probation of certificate holders.

Bill read second time, ordered to engrossment, and on file for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 1097—An act to amend sections 2 and 3 of an act entitled "An act for the preservation of the public health of the people of the State of California and empowering the State Board of Health to enforce its provisions, and providing penalties for the violation thereof," approved March 23, 1907, amended April 1, 1911, June 13, 1913, and May 24, 1917, so as to prevent the construction and use of sewer wells extending into subterranean water-bearing strata used or intended to be used, or suitable for, a source of water supply for domestic purposes.

Bill read second time, ordered to engrossment, and on file for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 364—An act to amend section 580a of the Code of Civil Procedure, limiting amount of deficiency judgments and the time within which actions therefor may be commenced.

Bill read second time, ordered to engrossment, and on file for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 15—An act to add a new section to the Penal Code, to be numbered 159b, relating to the solicitation of law business.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Judiciary, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 15 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 18, of the printed bill, as amended on March 27, 1935, insert a period after the word "corporation", and strike out the remainder of line 18, and all of lines 19 to 22, inclusive.

Amendment No. 2.

Add the following to said printed bill, as amended March 27, 1935: "Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding one year, or both. The superior court shall have original jurisdiction of all violations of this section."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, engrossment, and on file for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 464—An act to amend sections 3046 to 3065b, inclusive, of the Civil Code, relating to liens.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Judiciary, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 464 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "sections 3046 to 3065b, inclusive," and insert in lieu thereof the following: "section 3051".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, strike out "3046", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "3051".

Amendment No. 3.

On page 1, line 3, of the printed bill, strike out "3046.", and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"3051. Every person who, while lawfully in possession of an article of personal property renders any service to the owner thereof, by labor or skill, employed for the protection, improvement, safekeeping, or carriage thereof, has a special lien thereon, dependent on possession, for the compensation, if any, which is due to him from the owner for such service; a person who makes, alters, or repairs any article of personal property, at the request of the owner, or legal possessor of the property, has a lien on the same for his reasonable charges for the balance due for such work done and materials furnished, and may retain possession of the same until the charges are paid; and livery or boarding or feed stable proprietors, and persons pasturing horses or stock, have a lien, dependent on possession, for their compensation in caring for, boarding, feeding, or pasturing such horses or stock; and foundry proprietors and persons conducting a foundry business, have a lien, dependent on possession, upon all patterns in their hands belonging to a customer, for the balance due them from such customers for foundry work; and laundry proprietors and persons conducting a laundry business, have a general lien, dependent on possession, upon all personal property in their hands belonging to a customer, for the balance due them from such customer for laundry work; and veterinary proprietors and veterinary surgeons shall have a lien dependent on possession, for their compensation in caring for, boarding, feeding, and medical treatment of animals; and keepers of garages for automobiles shall have a lien, dependent on possession for their compensation in caring for and safekeeping, and for making repairs and performing any labor upon or furnishing supplies or materials for such automobiles; provided, however, that where the possession of, or lien upon, any automobile held under a claim of lien hereunder is lost by reason of fraud, trick or device, the repossession of said automobile by said garage keeper shall revive the lien so lost; provided, further, that any lien thus revived shall be subordinate to any sale, lien, encumbrance, right, title or interest in such automobile acquired or exercised in good faith and for value by any person between the time of loss of possession and the time of repossession."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Senate Bill No. 347—An act to amend the act entitled "An act to define building and loan associations and to regulate them and their organization, business, operation, merger, consolidation and liquidation, and (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) also to do the following: to define and regulate the agents, salesmen and collectors of such associations, and to regulate their officers, directors and employees; to define, authorize, and regulate the issuance of, shares, stock and investment certificates of such associations, and to prescribe the rights, remedies and liabilities of holders thereof, and to make such investment certificates legal investments for certain purposes; to prescribe the rights, powers, remedies, duties and liabilities of such associations and the rights and remedies of their creditors; to regulate the investments, loans and borrowings of such associations, and their accounts, reports, audits, statements and advertising; to create and continue the office of Building and Loan Commissioner, provide for and define the rights, powers, remedies and duties of the commissioner and his assistants and employees; to provide penalties for offenses by such associations, their directors, officers, agents, salesmen, collectors and employees and by other persons and corporations; and to repeal Title XVI of Part IV of Division I of the Civil Code, Chapter 134 of the Statutes of 1911 and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto; Chapter 133 of the Statutes of 1927, and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith," approved May 5, 1931, as amended, by amending sections numbered 12.01 relating to definitions, 12.07 relating to bonds of officers and employees, 13.16 relating to liquidation by the Building and Loan Commissioner, 13.17 relating to assessments for salaries and expenses and 15.16 relating to borrowers' mutual building and loan associations; and adding to said act new sections to be numbered 12.04a relating to foreign building and loan associations and 14.09 relating to liability for acts done or omitted in conformity with any rule, regulation, approval, consent, order, direction or other act of the Building and Loan Commissioner.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Building and Loan Associations, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 347 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1 of the printed bill, in the last two lines of the title, strike out "and 15.16 relating to borrowers' mutual building and loan associations" and in lieu thereof insert the following: "6.06 relating to payments entitled to preference, 12.04 relating to foreign associations, 13.13 relating to the commissioner's powers upon taking possession and 13.15 relating to schedules of property".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 2 of the printed bill, in the first line of the title, after the word "numbered", insert the following: "8.09 relating to dividends".

Amendment No. 3.

On page 4 of the printed bill, strike out all of lines 41 to 46, both inclusive, and in lieu thereof substitute the following: "doubtful debts or claims, or to borrow money, or to sell, convey or transfer real or personal property. If a purchaser for any property or any bad or doubtful debt or claim can not be obtained and it appears improbable in the case of any such bad or doubtful debt or claim that recovery thereon can be had, and that the cost of action to enforce collection of the same would probably be lost, the court may direct that suit thereon need not be brought, and if in the case of any such property it appears improbable that anything can be realized therefrom and that the cost of maintaining, preserving or protecting said property would probably be lost, the court may direct the commissioner to abandon the same."

Amendment No. 4.

On page 5, line 44, of the printed bill, strike out the following: "All claims of creditors, investors or other", and strike out all of lines 45 to 49, both inclusive, and "forever barred;" in line 50, and in lieu thereof insert the following: "All claims, demands or causes of action of whatever nature, and regardless of whether or not a suit shall be pending to enforce the same at the time of the taking possession of the assets of the association by the commissioner, of creditors, investors or other persons against the association or against any property owned or held by it in trust or otherwise, must be presented to the commissioner in writing, verified by the claimant, or some one in his behalf, within the period limited in the above mentioned notice for the presentation of claims; and the commissioner shall have no power to approve any claim not so presented, and any such claim, demand or cause of action not so presented shall be forever barred;"

Amendment No. 5.

On page 6, line 18, of the printed bill, strike out the following: "From the net realization", and strike out all of lines 19 to 22, both inclusive, and "other creditors;" in line 23, and in lieu thereof insert the following: "From the net realization of assets in excess of such salaries, compensation and expenses, the commissioner shall first pay all claims heretofore or hereafter approved by him in the sum of less than ten dollars, other than the claims of shareholders or stockholders, and other than the claims of certificate holders or other creditors who shall object in writing to such payment. Such claims of less than ten dollars shall be paid at their surrender value as estimated by the commissioner and fixed and determined by the court on the same basis as claims are received in payment of real property as provided for by section 13.16a, and all such claims shall thereupon be canceled. The commissioner shall then pay all claims approved in the sum of ten dollars or more, other than the claims of shareholders and stockholders, without distinction or preference as between the claims of certificate holders and other creditors;"

Amendment No. 6.

On page 6 of the printed bill, after the period in line 40, insert the following: "Where the commissioner shall have taken possession of an association and commenced paying dividends in liquidation prior to the effective date of this section, as amended, he shall nevertheless pay the claims of certificate holders or other creditors approved in the original sum of less than ten dollars, as hereinabove provided for, before paying other dividends in liquidation to those claimants whose claims were originally approved in the sum of ten dollars or more."

Amendment No. 7.

On page 8 of the printed bill, strike out all of lines 7 to 17, both inclusive; and in lieu thereof, insert the following:

SEC. 7. Section 6.06 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6.06. Payments Entitled to Preference. In the event of the liquidation or dissolution of any association, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 13.16 of this act or elsewhere in this act, all sums heretofore or hereafter paid in to such association on investment certificates or shares while such association shall have been on a pro rata basis and all sums which shall hereafter be paid in to such association on investment certificates or shares prior to the expiration of the emergency period as hereinafter in this section 6.06 defined, shall be repaid in full to all investors filing claims therefor regardless of whether such claims shall have been filed within the period provided for by section 13.16 of this act before any payments shall be made to other certificate holders or other creditors or other shareholders, or to stockholders, unless after the receipt of such money and prior to the liquidation or dissolution of such association, there shall have been a period of six consecutive months within which such association shall have had no matured withdrawal claims (except claims for the payment of which funds shall have been set aside by the association). An association which has issued and outstanding both shares and investment certificates shall not accept any money on account of free shares if such money might be entitled to a preference under the provisions of this section 6.06. No association shall accept any money on account of investment certificates or shares, except investment certificates and shares pledged to such association in connection with loans secured by real property, if such money might be entitled to preference pursuant to this section 6.06, if the commissioner in writing shall have directed the association not to accept such money. The term "emergency period" as used in this section 6.06 shall mean the period commencing March 10, 1933, and ending September 1, 1935; provided, however, that said emergency period may be terminated at any time prior to September 1, 1935, by order of the commissioner.

SEC. 9. Section 1204 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 1204. Foreign Associations. No foreign association formed for the purpose of conducting and carrying on a business similar to that authorized by this act, or whose by-laws, rules, prospectus, contracts or methods of business provide for the conducting or carrying on the business of accumulating the periodical payments or savings of its shareholders, stockholders, members or investors in the amount of association, or as authorized and provided in this act, shall enter the State of California for the transaction of business or for selling its shares, stock, and investment certificates or shall sell any of its shares, stock, or investment certificates, or otherwise transact any of its business of a character similar to that authorized by this act unless it shall have first (a) complied with all the requirements of the laws of this State relative to associations as defined in this act and more immediately hereof and supplemental hereto; and (b) applied for and received from the commissioner a license to transact business in this State as required of a domestic association; and (c) deposited with the State Treasurer the money or securities hereinafter in this section required for the transaction of such business within this State. Every such association transacting business in this State of a character similar to that authorized by this act or in such subject as might lead the public to believe that its business is that of a banking and trust association, shall become subject to the supervision of the commissioner and shall conduct all its business in accordance with the statutes governing domestic associations.

Every foreign association mentioned or referred to in the preceding paragraph of this section desiring to enter the State of California for the transaction of business or for selling its shares, stock or investment certificates must first deposit with the State Treasurer not less than one hundred thousand dollars in lawful money of the United States, or in bonds or other securities referred to in subdivisions (1), (4) and (5) of section 9002 of this act, or in such thereof of temporary value in such amount secured by first mortgages or first deeds of trust upon improved real property located in this State satisfactory to the commissioner, all duly assigned or endorsed in blank, to be held by him as a guarantee fund for the protection and indemnity of residents of this State who shall invest in any of its shares, stock or investment certificates, or with whom it shall do business. In the event mortgages or deeds of trust shall be deposited, the association shall be required to make all collections thereon, and to do such acts as may be necessary or proper to protect and preserve the security thereof, and shall make monthly reports to the commissioner of the status thereof. Whenever any foreign association shall have outstanding shares and investment certificates issued to residents of this State of an aggregate value in excess of two million dollars, the deposit above mentioned in money or security of the character above mentioned shall be increased and at all times maintained in a sum at least equal to five per cent of such aggregate value. With the consent of the commissioner, any of the securities deposited as herein provided may be withdrawn at any time upon the substitution and deposit of others of the form and character herein specified and of like or greater net value so long as the aggregate net value of all equals or exceeds the amount named herein. The fund thus created is not to be foreclosed or realized upon when the association is out in the hands of the commissioner, except for the liquidation of a fund in payment in favor of residents of California who were investors in such association or with whom it shall have done business, and then only after certified proof thereof has been filed with the State Treasurer. Where the association is in the hands of the commissioner for liquidation as provided for by this act, the fund may be withdrawn by the commissioner at any time for distribution by him in favor of residents of California who were investors of such association or with whom it shall have done business. Except as above provided, securities deposited as herein specified shall not be withdrawn until satisfactory proof of the liquidation of all liabilities to residents of this State, approved by the commissioner, shall be filed with the State Treasurer, when all may then be withdrawn. Only those persons who have resided in the State of California continuously from the time of investing in or doing business with such association to the time of securing a final judgment or to the determination by the commissioner to liquidate such association, shall be entitled to participate in the fund provided for by this section.

Any person who, as principal, agent, salesman, solicitor or in any other capacity, shall solicit or conduct in this State the business of selling, disposing of or taking or soliciting subscriptions for the sale of any of the shares, stock, or investment certificates of any foreign association which has not complied with all the requirements of this section and which is not at that time the lawful holder of a license to transact business in this State issued by the commissioner and then in force shall be guilty of a public offense and shall be punished by imprisonment in the State prison not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding two years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

No foreign association issuing any securities other than shares, stock and investment certificates shall be entitled to a license to transact business in this State and no foreign association transacting business in this State shall issue any securities except shares, stock and investment certificates. The term "securities," as used in this paragraph, shall not include borrowings permitted by sections 9.05 or 9.06 of this act or instruments executed in connection therewith.

SEC. 9. Section 13.13 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13.13. Powers Upon Taking Possession. Upon taking possession of the business, property and assets of any association, the commissioner may under his hand and official seal appoint a custodian, require from him a good and sufficient bond and place him in charge as his representative. Upon taking such possession, the commissioner shall have authority to collect all moneys due to such association and to give full receipt therefor, and to do such other acts as are necessary or expedient to collect, conserve or protect its business, property and assets. Unless the commissioner shall be enjoined from further proceedings and directed to surrender such business, property and assets or unless such association shall with the consent of the commissioner resume business, then the commissioner shall proceed to liquidate the affairs of such association as hereinafter provided. Whenever the commissioner shall be in possession of the business, property and assets of any association, and regardless of whether or not he shall be liquidating the affairs of such association, the commissioner may in his discretion (1) apply to the superior court of the county in which the principal office in this State of such association is located for an order confirming any action theretofore taken by the commissioner, or authorizing the commissioner to do any act or to execute any instrument not expressly authorized by this act, which order shall be given and made after a hearing on such notice as the court shall prescribe; (2) pay and discharge any secured claims against such association, whether or not such claims shall theretofore have been presented for payment or have become barred from presentation by the expiration of the time limit hereinafter specified; provided that no such claim shall be paid in an amount larger than the then value of the security therefor; (3) pay such administrative or current expenses incurred prior to the taking of possession by the commissioner as may be necessary or convenient to the orderly or economic liquidation or preservation of the assets, and pay all wages or salaries, not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars per month to any one person, earned within six months prior to the taking of possession by the commissioner, whether or not claims for such expenses, wages or salaries shall theretofore have been presented for payment, or shall have become barred from presentation by the expiration of the time limit hereinafter specified; or (4) within six months after obtaining knowledge of the existence thereof, disaffirm any executory contracts (including leases) to which such association is a party, and disaffirm any partially executed contracts (including leases) to the extent that they remain executory.

SEC. 10. Section 13.15 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13.15. Officers Must Furnish Schedule of Property. Upon taking possession of the property, business and assets of any association, the commissioner shall require the president and secretary of such association to, and such officers shall, make a schedule of all its property and assets and of all collateral held by it as security for loans and make oath that such schedule sets forth all such property, assets and collateral and shall deliver such schedule, and the possession of any and all such property, assets and collateral as may not have been so previously delivered, to the commissioner, who may at any time examine under oath such president and secretary, or other officers of such association, or the directors, agents or employees thereof, to determine whether or not all such property, assets or collateral have been transferred and delivered into his possession. The power of the commissioner to issue subpoenas and to require attendance of parties for examination under this section shall be as provided for in section 13.08 of this act.

SEC. 11. A new section is hereby added to said act as amended, to be numbered 8.09a and to read as follows:

Sec. 8.09a. Dividends payable subject to approval of commissioner. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 8.09 of this act, an association may, with the prior approval of the commissioner in each case, pay dividends on stock from that part of its net profits after dividends on shares, computed in accordance with accounting practices prescribed or approved by the commissioner, as shall not have resulted either (a) from the reduction, pursuant to the provisions of said section 8.09, of interest on its investment certificates or dividends on its shares, below the contractual rate or rates thereof or (b) from the acceptance, pursuant to the provisions of section 6.07 of this act, of its investment certificates or shares in payment for property sold by such association. In no case shall the commissioner approve the payment of dividends from such net profits unless he shall have caused a notice of such intended action to be published, at least five days before such intended action is taken, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or city and county in which such association's principal office in this State is located."

"Sec. 2. Section 672 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows: 672. Upon a conviction for any crime punishable by imprisonment in jail or prison, in relation to which no fine is herein prescribed, the court may, in addition to the imprisonment prescribed, impose a fine on the offender not exceeding—

- (a) Two hundred dollars if the offense is a misdemeanor; or
- (b) Three times the amount of the damage to person or property or person and property found by the court to have been directly injured or damaged by the commission of the offense, if the offense is a felony.

Bill and proposed amendments ordered held on file.

Report of Special Joint Committee.

The following report, offered by the Special Joint Committee on Revenue and Taxation, was ordered printed in the Journal:

To the Honorable Members of the Senate and the Assembly:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 25, providing for the appointment of a select committee of fourteen members of the Senate and Assembly, authorized us to confer on revenue and tax measures and to make recommendations to the Legislature. We have made our studies and submit our report.

The three major problems have been considered: (1) a balanced budget for the next biennium, (2) adequate provision for unemployment relief, and (3) the present deficit.

I.

THE 1935-1937 BUDGET

The original estimate of the budget deficit for the coming biennium was

$205,000,000 00

This amount may be reduced by three items:

(a) Revised estimate of gross premium tax on insurance companies at present rate	$4,000,000 00
(b) Increase in liquor licenses to be assessed by the State Board of Equalization under provisions of existing law	2,000,000 00
(c) Reduction of the proposed emergency appropriation from $1,500,000 to $1,000,000	500,000 00
	$6,500,000 00

6,500,000 00

Revised estimate of deficit..... $89,100,000 00

EXPLANATION OF REDUCTIONS.

(a) The measure of 1935-1937 revenue from the gross premium tax on insurance companies in 1934-1935 business. In 1934 there was a marked increase in insurance written in the State. The first four months of 1935 show further increase. With these known figures, the committee is satisfied that the State revenue from this source will be about $4,000,000 more than originally estimated. Sixteen months of the 24 are already completed. This is assured revenue. The increase in the revenue from the existing insurance tax is about one-third above the preceding biennium. Since insurance activity represents a fair cross section of general business, this figure is not without value in reflecting the present trend in California.

(b) Under existing law the State Board of Equalization has power to levy liquor licenses and to fix the rate. In the opinion of the committee, $2,000,000 more for the biennium should be raised from this source.

(c) The budget fixes the emergency appropriation fund at $1,500,000. It is recognized that circumstances justify an increase over previous years but the committee believes that the fund should not exceed $1,000,000. The budget estimate is accordingly reduced by the sum of $500,000.

II.

PROPOSED SOURCES OF ADDED REVENUE.

The proposals of the committee are set out in the following table in order that the measures and their effect may be briefly summarized.

	Added revenue
(1) Sales tax at 3 per cent (with essential foods exempt under Assembly Bill No. 122)-----	$35,500,000 00
(2) Additional sales tax revenue, under Assembly Bills Nos. 1271 and 1273-----	4,800,000 00
(3) Additional bank and corporation franchise tax (4 per cent to 8 per cent)-----	17,000,000 00
(4) Personal income tax-----	17,500,000 00
(5) Spirituous liquor tax (80 cents a proof gallon)-----	9,000,000 00
(6) Revision of inheritance tax rates and exemptions--	3,000,000 00
(7) Revision of truck tax-----	2,000,000 00
(8) Real estate transfer tax-----	6,000,000 00
(9) State tax on motor vehicles in lieu of present local tax -----	18,000,000 00
	$112,800,000 00
Revised budget deficit-----	89,100,000 00
Balance available for unemployment relief-----	$23,700,000 00

EXPLANATION OF NEW REVENUE ESTIMATE.

(1) and (2). Sales Tax. It is recommended that the sales tax rate be fixed at 3 per cent, with the act enforced under the present measure. It is also recommended that essential foodstuffs be exempt, as provided in Assembly Bill No. 122, and that Assembly Bill No. 1271 and Assembly Bill No. 1273 be adopted in order to reach certain purchases and transactions not now taxable.

The committee has studied the operation of the sales tax and the yield from it over the past two years and has tried to make a reasonable estimate of what may be expected in the next biennium. There is a definite upswing in prospect, both in volume and price. The receipts from the first quarter of this year are about 15 per cent above those in the first quarter of last year. Indications are that the increase will continue for the next two years. Considering governmental and trade reports, and the present trend, the committee feels justified in counting upon at least a 10 per cent increase over present levels for the next two years.

The deduction in revenue on account of the exemption of foods has been liberally estimated. Any steps that may be taken by the Legislature in restricting the exemption to foodstuffs that may properly be called essential, will be reflected in a corresponding increase in revenue.

The budget estimate of the sales tax at 2 per cent, with no exemptions, for the coming biennium was $84,000,000. The committee's estimate for the 3 per cent rate with food exempt is $119,500,000. The net additional revenue from this source is therefore $35,500,000.

The estimate of the yield under Assembly Bills Nos. 1271 and 1273 is an additional $4,800,000.

Added revenues to be derived under Assembly Bills Nos. 1271 and 1273 are conservatively estimated. No figures are available to fix a formula. The committee has therefore taken an amount which is well under the first estimate made by the sponsors of the bill. It is not unlikely that the yield from this source may be much greater than any estimate yet made.

(3) Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax. The present rate on general corporations is 2 per cent and on banks 6 per cent. It is proposed to increase the corporate rate to 4 per cent and the bank rate to 8 per cent. The new rates are to apply to 1934 income, returnable in 1935.

As in the case of insurance premiums and retail sales there is a substantial increase in current corporate franchise tax returns. In addition, public utilities will hereafter be subject to the Franchise Tax Act. The combined effect of increased rates on banks and corporations, the inclusion of utilities, the upswing in returns, and the elimination of consolidated returns, should supply additional revenue from this tax in the sum of $17,000,000.

(4) Personal Income Tax. The committee recommends a personal income tax at State rates which will equal 20 per cent of the present Federal rates. The normal rate for persons in the lowest bracket will be eight-tenths of 1 per cent with surtax increasing on a graduated scale to 11.8 per cent.

The Federal income tax is not applicable to officials and employees of the State and its political subdivisions, but the State act will include them. Based upon current Federal returns and the projection of the present curve for next year it is estimated that the State income tax for the biennium will yield not less than $17,500,000.

In order that this amount may be realized, it is recommended that the tax become immediately effective and that the tax to be paid in 1935 shall be upon one-half of the income of 1934. Thereafter the tax will be based on full annual income. Enough time should be allowed for filing returns this year. The committee feels administration, the Federal method of computing net income should be followed as far as possible.

When the tax on intangible personal property was adopted in 1929, it was represented that this unsatisfactory form of taxation should eventually be superseded by an income tax. The committee now recommends that the income tax law be in lieu of the intangible tax.

(5) Spirituuous Liquor Tax. A tax of 80 cents a proof gallon should be levied. This is comparable to the tax imposed by other States. The estimate of the revenue to be derived from this source which were submitted to the committee ranged from $7,000,000 to $17,000,000. This is a new tax levy and no accurate State record is available for precise computation. The committee feels however that an estimate of $9,000,000 is reasonable and strongly recommends provision for strict enforcement.

(6) Inheritance Tax. The committee recommends that there be a revision of the rates and exemptions in the Inheritance Tax Act which will yield an increase of $3,000,000.

(7) Truck Tax. The committee recommends that there be a revision of the existing tax on trucks to yield an increase of $2,000,000.

(8) Real Estate Transfer Tax. The committee recommends a tax on conveyances of real property, with the basis the same as in the Federal law, but with the rate fixed at 1 per cent. For unmortgaged property the tax will be measured by the full amount of the consideration. For property mortgaged at the time of sale the tax will be measured by the equity. The estimated yield from this source is $2,000,000.

(9) State Tax on Motor Vehicles in Lieu of Local Tax. It is recommended that motor vehicles be eliminated from the local tax rolls and that they be taxed solely for State purposes. The return of the public utility properties to the local polls will benefit the counties to the extent of at least $50,000,000 a biennium. Two years ago a further benefit of $80,000,000 a biennium was provided for the counties when the sales tax was adopted and the State assumed a larger part of the school costs.

It is estimated that a rate approximating 1 1/2 per cent, applied to the standard and annually adjusted "Blue book" value of motor vehicles, with proper allowance for make and age, and with a minimum of $1 a car, will yield $18,000,000 for the biennium. The committee recommends the adoption of this measure with an expiration date of December 31, 1937.

The committee further recommends that the first revenue received from this tax be earmarked and applied to the payment of interest and amortization charges on State highway bonds. For the 1935-1937 biennium this will amount to $8,100,000 and will, if continued thereafter, decrease each biennium until bonds are retired.

UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF

It appears from the table previously incorporated in this report that after deducting the revised budget deficit from the proposed sources of revenue there is a balance available for relief of about $24,000,000. The committee recommends that the money raised by the State for relief, $10,000,000 be allocated to employment of labor in making permanent and necessary improvements to State institutions.

The Federal authorities have suggested that it may be necessary before the biennium is ended to supply an additional $24,000,000 in order that the State may avail itself of its full quota of Federal aid.

The added revenue to be derived from the proposed measures, and the exact amount of the Federal requirements over the next two years, can not now be determined with certainty. Several potential factors, not fully taken into account in the committee's estimates, may increase the revenue return and supply a further part of the later Federal requirements.

California has never failed to meet promptly the suggestion that Federal aid be adequately matched. It has recognized its obligation and will not fail to meet it again. The committee does not believe it now necessary or advisable to propose any further emergency tax burden, and recommends that the solution of the remainder of the problem, if there be one, be postponed until the early part of next year. The committee feels assured that the Legislature will readily respond in special session to the Governor's call to survey the situation when it crystallizes and when the need is known. If it be the will of the Legislature, the committee will be glad to continue to serve in the interim in its present capacity.

If the Legislature concurs in the committee's recommendations, it may adjourn shortly with the assurance that the budget is balanced and that the maximum Federal requirements for the first year of the biennium have been met. Timely and advised action to meet future needs can be taken whenever occasion requires. A State ad valorem tax is no part of the program contemplated by the committee.

IV.

THE PRESENT DEFICIT.

The deficit for the current biennium will be about $25,000,000 on June 30, 1935. The committee has been advised that early in June it will be necessary to transfer about $7,000,000 from cash balances of special funds to the general fund under section 15 of Article XIII of the Constitution. The major part will come from the gas tax fund. If this amount be not restored to the special fund the general fund deficit will be reduced to about $18,000,000.

The committee considered on several occasions the advisability of proposing for the coming two years the application of $8,100,000 from the gas tax fund to the servicing of highway bonds. It decided, however, against such a recommendation, being influenced in part by the suggestion of the State Department of Public Works that the funds proposed to be taken from the gas tax fund in June might not be replaced.

The committee is assured that if its recommendations be adopted, the present deficit can be funded through tax anticipation warrants or some other form of short term paper with a fixed maturity. This will put the State again on a cash basis. The interest rate payable under the plan proposed would probably not exceed 1 per cent in the present market, in place of the 5 per cent paid on warrants. In addition, the cost and nuisance of registering warrants and the uncertainty arising out of the absence of a fixed due date would be eliminated. The adoption of Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 18 and Senate Bill No. 708 with such amendments as may be deemed necessary, will make this recommendation effective.

The committee recommends that the Legislature call a special election at a time to be fixed by it and submit Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 18 to the people. It is further recommended that at the same election, the Legislature submit to the voters a bond issue to provide necessary money for permanent State institutions, including the purchase of a prison site in southern California. The proposed bond issue should also cover an amount sufficient to reimburse the general fund in the sum now provided in the Governor's budget for permanent improvements to State institutions. The total amount of the proposed issue should not, however, exceed $12,000,000.

Respectfully submitted.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Governmental Efficiency, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 515 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 6 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out lines 7 to 43, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"95. In addition to the powers heretofore granted by any act of the Legislature of the State of California to any existing district agricultural association there are by this section granted such additional powers as are hereinafter enumerated, set forth in separate sections and such additional powers as hereinafter enumerated shall by this reference thereto be added to any agricultural district heretofore formed under any act of the Legislature of the State of California, and nothing in this act or in the Agricultural Code, shall not limit the powers heretofore granted to any district agricultural association heretofore formed under any act of the Legislature of the State of California."

On page 6 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out lines 48 to 52, inclusive, and on page 7, lines 1 to 29, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"95.1. Any agricultural district, by and through its district agricultural association, may incur indebtedness, and as evidence thereof may issue revenue bonds in an aggregate amount not in excess of one per cent of the assessed value of all taxable real and personal property within its territorial limits; provided, however, that said bonds shall only be issued for the purpose of raising money to acquire and construct revenue-producing improvements of a self-liquidating character, which said district is authorized to acquire and maintain.

Whenever any district agricultural association of any agricultural district in the State of California, determines that it is advisable or necessary to acquire and construct revenue-producing improvements of a self-liquidating character such as said agricultural district is authorized to acquire and maintain, said agricultural district may incur indebtedness therefor, and as evidence thereof may issue revenue bonds in an aggregate amount not in excess of one per cent of the assessed value of all taxable real and personal property within its territorial limits.

The determination of said district agricultural association to issue said revenue bonds shall be evidenced by the adoption by a majority of the board of directors of such district agricultural association declaring the advisability and necessity of acquiring and constructing such revenue-producing improvements and authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds in an amount therein specified to provide for such acquisition or construction.

All such bonds so authorized shall be issued in the name of the agricultural district for which said district agricultural association is acting and shall be identified as agricultural district bonds and shall contain a recital of the fact thereof that the payment or redemption of said bonds and the payment of interest thereof is secured only by the revenues received from the operation of the revenue-producing improvements of such agricultural district, and that neither the payment of the principal nor any part thereof, nor any interest thereon constitute a debt or general obligation of the State of California; that all of said revenue bonds shall contain the further recital written or printed thereon that the said district agricultural association reserves the right to retire and buy from any funds that may be available therefor all or any part of any issue of said bonds which may be outstanding after the expiration of five years from the date of the issuance thereof, such bonds to be so retired at not less than par, or at such other amount in excess of par as said district agricultural association may determine and recite on the face of said bonds when issued."

Amendment No. 3.

On page 7 of the printed bill, as amended, following section 2, as amended, and preceding line 30, insert the following:

"SEC. 3. Section 95.2 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

95.2. All revenue bonds authorized under the terms of this act shall be issued and sold from time to time by the district agricultural association authorizing the issuance of the same as and when money is needed for the acquisition or construction of any such revenue-producing improvements and to pay interest on outstanding bonds of any particular issue during the period of actual construction of any such revenue-producing improvements, and for a period of six months thereafter and the proceeds thereof are hereby made available for such purpose.

The district agricultural association authorizing the issuance of said bonds shall determine the form, conditions and denominations, except that no bond shall be of a denomination less than one hundred dollars nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars, and they shall be payable in lawful money of the United States, and from time to time, as the sale of any portion of the bonds authorized for the construction of any particular revenue-producing improvements are to be issued and sold, said district agricultural association shall determine the dates which the bonds so to be sold shall bear, and the interest rate thereon, which rate shall be fixed by said district agricultural association according to the then prevailing market conditions, but shall at no time exceed six per cent per annum, and the determination of said district agricultural association as to the rate of interest shall be conclusive as to the then prevailing market conditions; and the said district agricultural association shall also fix the time of maturity of all such bonds issued and the time and place of payment of interest and principal thereon; provided, however, that such bonds shall be payable within thirty years from their date and shall mature serially at such times that may be fixed by the board of directors of such district agricultural association, and provided further that the earliest maturity of the principal of such bonds shall be fixed at a date not more than ten years from the issuance of such bonds. The said bonds shall contain such registration privileges as the board of directors may determine.

All such bonds shall be signed by the president of the board of directors of such district agricultural association, and countersigned by the secretary thereof, and shall bear the corporate seal of said district agricultural association. The coupons attached to each of said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the president of said board of directors which said signature may be facsimile.

In case any of such officers whose signatures or countersignatures appear on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officers before the delivery of such bonds to the purchaser thereof such signatures or countersignatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if they had remained in office until the delivery of the bonds.

All bonds issued under the terms of this act shall be negotiable instruments under the law merchant."

Amendment No. 4.

On page 7 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of lines 30 and 31, and the figure "95.2", at the beginning of line 32, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SEC. 4. Section 95.3 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows: 95.3."

Amendment No. 8.

On page 8 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of lines 33 to 52, inclusive, and on page 9, strike out all of lines 1 to 15, inclusive.

Amendment No. 9.

On page 10 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of line 12 after the figures "95.8", and strike out all of lines 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18, and the words "or of any board of supervisors" in line 22, and strike out the words "the board of supervisors and or" in line 24, and the words "the board of supervisors or" in line 29, and the words "the election authorizing the incurring of such indebtedness and" in line 34, all as shown on page 10 of said bill.

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Governmental Efficiency.

Senate Bill No. 541—An act to amend the law relating to the Department of Agriculture.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Governmental Efficiency, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 541 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, in the title of the printed bill, strike out the words "the law relating to the Department of Agriculture", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "Sections 228, 228.1 and 231 of and to add section 228.1 to the Agricultural Code, relating to bovine tuberculosis."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, immediately following the period, add the following: "Section 223 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

223. The department may designate veterinarians, as approved veterinarians, to buy, possess or use tuberculin, and may suspend or revoke such designation. It is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ninety days, without alternative of a fine in any case, for any person other than an approved veterinarian to buy, possess, or use tuberculin.

Sec. 2. Section 228 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

228. It is unlawful to:

(a) Obstruct, attack, or interfere with, or permit to be obstructed, attacked, or interfered with, the department or an approved veterinarian conducting a tuberculin test.

(b) Neglect or fail to properly secure and restrain any bovine animal to be tuberculin tested, or under tuberculin test, for examination, injection, observation, or other procedures pertaining to a tuberculin test.

Sec. 3. Section 228.1 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code, to read as follows:

228.1. It is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ninety days, without the alternative of a fine in any case, to attempt to defeat, obstruct, or interfere with the application of a tuberculin test.

Sec. 4. Section 231 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

231. Every reactor shall, immediately upon the determination of such reaction, be permanently branded on the left jaw by its owner or his agent, under the supervision of the approved veterinarian conducting the tuberculin test. The brand shall be the letter "T", not less than three (3) inches in length from top to bottom, and two (2) inches wide at the top."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Governmental Efficiency.

Senate Bill No. 973—An act to amend the "State Civil Service Act."

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Civil Service, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 973 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out everything except "An act", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "relating to the State civil service and declaring the urgency thereof and that this act shall take effect immediately."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, after the period, insert the following: "No person mentioned in section 5, other than subdivision (f) thereof, of Article XXIV of the Constitution of this State and who has been in the employ of the State for not less than four years preceding December 20, 1934, shall after the effective date of this act be dismissed, removed, demoted, suspended, reprimanded, or in any manner disciplined except after charges filed, hearing held, and procedure taken, all in the way and manner prescribed in section 14 of the State Civil Service Act as said section existed on January 1, 1935, for any such action against the persons in said section 14 mentioned.

SEC. 2. Every person mentioned in section 5, other than subdivision (f) thereof, of Article XXIV of the Constitution of this State, and who has been in the employ of the State for not less than four years preceding December 20, 1934, against whom any appointing power or other officer or person in charge of him, between the effective date hereof and November 6, 1934, has taken or purported to take any action mentioned in section 1 hereof without charges filed, hearing held, and procedure taken, all in the way and manner prescribed in section 14 of the State Civil Service Act as the same existed on January 1, 1935, shall be forthwith reinstated without regard to such purported action as of the date of such purported action in and to the position he held on the effective date of said Article XXIV of the Constitution; provided, that such person is not entitled to any salary, compensation or emolument for the period during which he was separated from State employment.

SEC. 3. Every person desiring to accept the benefits of section 2 of this act must, within thirty days from the effective date of this act, file with the executive officer of the State Personnel Board a notice of his acceptance of reinstatement and a copy thereof with the appointing power or other officer or person theretofore in charge of him and a copy thereof with the State Controller and thereupon his reinstatement shall be complete. Any person failing to file the notice of acceptance provided for in this section shall be deemed to have waived the benefits of section 2 of this act. Every such notice of acceptance of reinstatement must contain the name of the employee, the name of the appointing power, the date of the purported dismissal, removal, demotion, suspension, reprimand, or other disciplinary action, the position held, the rate of compensation paid, and the elapsed period of time since last paid. Such notice may be filed in person or by registered mail and the copy filed with the State Controller must contain proof of filing such notice with the other persons in this section mentioned.

SEC. 4. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:

The civil service constitutional amendment, Proposition Number 7, adopted by vote of the people on November 6, 1934, and effective December 20, 1934, granted rights thereunder to certain persons in the State service who became subject to the amendment. Existing laws do not adequately recognize or cover the status thus newly created nor do they adequately provide for disciplinary proceedings concerning such persons or the review of such proceedings by an appropriate administrative agency. The purpose of this act is to correct such defects, to avoid multiple suits, unwarranted salary claims against the State, and to facilitate the effective operation of the constitutional amendment and thereby improve the State service and the proper and adequate performance of State functions. It is therefore necessary that this act take effect immediately."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, engrossment, and on file for third reading.

680. Whenever a franchise shall have been granted by any county or city in any public highway which has been or is subsequently constituted a State highway, the department may enforce any obligations of the grantee or holder of such franchise in respect to the repair of the highway. The department may require any person who has placed and maintained any pole, pole line, pipe, pipe line, conduit, street railroad or railroad tracks, or other structures or facilities upon any State highway, whether under such or any franchise, to move the same at his own cost and expense to such different location in the highway as is specified in a written demand of the department, which demand may be made by the department whenever necessary to insure the safety of the traveling public or to permit of the improvement of the highway. The department shall specify in the demand a reasonable time within which the work of relocation must be commenced and the grantee or owner must commence such relocation within the time specified in said demand and thereafter diligently prosecute the same to completion.

The department may likewise serve such a demand on the owner of any encroachment to require its removal entirely from the right of way, where the owner does not have an existing franchise right to place and maintain the same therein.

In case the owner fails to comply with any such demand, the encroachments specified in the demand become subject to the provisions of Article 3 of this chapter."

Amendment No. 3.

On page 2 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out lines 9 to 47, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to Article 2 of Chapter 3 of Division I of the Streets and Highways Code, to be numbered 681, and to read as follows:

681. Whenever a franchise shall have been granted by any county or city in any public highway heretofore or hereafter constituted a State highway, all of the rights of the grantor under such franchise, including the right to collect and receive tolls, charges or payments thereunder other than the rights transferred to the department by section 680, are reserved to such county or city."

Assembly Bill No. 528—An act to amend sections 4750 and 4751 of the School Code, relating to the computation of average daily attendance of school districts, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

Bill read third time.

Urgency Clause.

SEC. 3. This measure is hereby declared to be an urgent measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and as such shall take effect immediately.

The reasons constituting such necessity are as follows:

Under School Code section 4751 as it now exists, whenever the records of a school district for any school year have been lost or destroyed or the average daily attendance thereof has been materially affected by a public calamity, the average daily attendance of the district is determined by adding to or subtracting from the average daily attendance of the district for the preceding school year the average yearly increase or decrease, as the case may be, for the next preceding three school years. In no case has the average daily attendance for any year in a district been decreased by the operation of the existing law. The attendance in practically every school district increases yearly. Under the existing law, if the attendance of a district is materially affected by a public calamity for two or more successive school years there is a pyramiding of the attendance computed under the present law. During the current school year 1934-1935 the school districts comprising one school system alone received about $1,039,000 more from State funds than it would normally have been entitled to receive. This sum was taken from the general fund of the State. To prevent a recurrence of this situation during the next school year 1935-1936, which begins July 1, 1935, and thereafter, it is necessary that this measure take effect immediately.

Urgency clause read.

Resolution.

The following resolution was offered:

By Senator Tickle:

Cost of Medical and Hospital Care.

WHEREAS, The development of more adequate health services at rates within reasonable reach of self-supporting individuals and families of small and moderate incomes is essential to promote the comfort, health, safety, economic security and general welfare of the people of the State of California; and,

WHEREAS, The committee appointed by the Senate April 19, 1933, composed of Senators Williams, Tickle, Difani and its Coordinator Secretary, Dr. Celestine J. Sullivan, have performed a distinguished public service by devoting two years of disinterested and arduous work at their own expense to the study of health insurance and the investigation of the high cost of sickness and the preparation of a very valuable report published in the Senate Daily Journal, April 12, 1935; and,

WHEREAS, The useful data assembled by the committee show the complexity and magnitude of the questions involved and the fundamental importance of vital underlying problems which affect the life of the commonwealth to such an extent that further study is deemed desirable in order that laws passed by this session or previous sessions of the California Legislature, relating to medical care, may be revised to suit changed conditions and made to conform to reasonable amounts which the taxpaying public can afford; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That a committee of five members of the Senate be appointed by the President of the Senate to continue the study of present methods of medical and hospital care and the economic order under which they operate and the practical application of such laws as now exist or be adopted at the fifty-first session of the California Legislature so that accurate and up-to-date information may be available for the 1937 session of the Legislature; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee shall proceed to organize by the election of one of its members as chairman and by the selection of a coordinator secretary and the adoption of such rules as it shall deem necessary or advisable to enable it to carry into full force and effect the duties herein imposed; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee is authorized to hold public hearings at any place in the State of California at which hearings the people shall have opportunity to present their views to the committee; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee is hereby authorized and empowered to do all things necessary to make a full and complete investigation of the matters herein referred to and to require the production of records, books, agreements, contracts, fee schedules, documents and papers of every kind; to issue subpoenas and to compel attendance of witnesses and to procure testimony. Each of the members of said committee and the coordinator secretary chosen by the committee is hereby authorized to administer oaths and all the provisions of Article VIII, of Chapter II, Title I, Part III of the Political Code of the State, relative to the attendance and assemblage of witnesses before the Legislature and committees thereof and during the interval between sessions; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee in order to make a comprehensive investigation of the problem, may accept donations from philanthropic persons, foundations and others interested in the study and investigation and shall expend such donations in carrying out the purposes hereof; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee shall report and make recommendations to the fifty-second session of the Legislature during the session commencing in January, 1937, before the constitutional recess thereof.

Senate Bill No. 584—An act to add a new section to the Political Code to be known as section 3663d, relating to the assessment of property by the State Board of Equalization and the allocation of the assessed value of such property to the various taxing jurisdictions of the State and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

Consideration of Assembly Amendments

The Senate took up for consideration Assembly amendments to Senate Bill No. 584.

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, in the last line of the title of the printed bill, after the word "State", add the following: "and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately."

Amendment No. 2.

Strike out all of lines 3 to 13, both inclusive, of the printed bill, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"3663d. In assessing property pursuant to section 3663 of this title the State Board of Equalization shall determine and assess as one amount, under the average amount of rolling stock which is ordinarily in this State. The amount of rolling stock located in any county, city and county, city or district of this State shall be determined by the average amount of such rolling stock which is ordinarily in said county, city and county, city or district.

The average amount of rolling stock ordinarily in this State and in any county, city and county, city or district of this State shall be determined upon the basis of car mileage, truck mileage or such other factors or combination thereof as are reasonably calculated to establish the basis of such rolling stock.

The term "rolling stock" means cars, engines or other equipment owned or designed for operation on rails, and includes motor vehicles when not operated between fixed termini or over a regular route.

The words "between fixed termini or over a regular route" mean terminal or route between or over which rolling stock is assessed on a regularly scheduled run though there may be departures from said termini or route whether such departures be periodic or irregular.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency:

In 1933 amendments to the Constitution were adopted by the people substantially changing the tax system of the State. These amendments provided among other things that properties of certain companies formerly taxed exclusively for State purposes should on and after January 1, 1935, be assessed by the State Board of Equalization and be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as other property. Unless such properties are assessed and taxed as required by the Constitution the revenue system of the State and its political subdivisions will be disrupted and the orderly functioning of government will be seriously impaired.

Among the properties so required to be assessed by said board are large amounts of rolling stock. The present law relating to the assessment of such rolling stock is ambiguous and inconsistent in many respects. Since said board must complete its work of assessment and equalization as of its current assessment date prior to a date which will be ninety days after the adjournment of the present session of the Legislature, it is essential that this act take effect immediately in order to make certain that such properties will be assessed and taxed as required by the Constitution."

The question being: Shall the Senate concur in Assembly amendments to Senate Bill No. 584?

The roll was called, and Assembly amendments to Senate Bill No. 584 concurred in by the following vote:

AYES—Senators Biggar, Crittenden, Deuel, Edwards, Fletcher, Garrison, Hays, Hulse, Jaspersen, Keough, McCormack, McGovern, Metzger, Mixer, Olson, Parkman, Perry, Powers, Reindollar, Rich, Schottky, Scollan, Seawell, Sharkey, Slater, Snyder, Stow, Swing, Wagy, and Young—30.

NOES—None.

Senate Bill No. 584 ordered to enrollment.

Leave of Absence Waived.

Senator McGuinness waived his leave of absence granted for the remainder of this legislative day.

Unfinished Business—(Resumed).

Consideration of Senate Joint Resolution No. 21.

Relative to exemption from taxation of bonds issued by governmental agencies and memorializing the President and Congress of the United States to take immediate steps for the termination of the exemption of such securities from taxation.

WHEREAS, The exemption from taxation of bonds issued by the Federal, State and local governments has progressed to such a point that there are now outstanding tax exempt securities of this character amounting to the aggregate par value of approximately forty-five billion dollars; and

WHEREAS, Such securities are owned and held by a very small percentage of the population of the country and there results a great and most unjust disproportion in the bearing of the cost of government as between the owners and holders of various types and classes of property; and

WHEREAS, It is a fundamental principle of government that one group or class should not be favored as are the owners of these tax exempt securities, and all persons enjoying the order and protection which government affords should share fairly equally and equitably in bearing the cost of government; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California jointly. That the Legislature of this State hereby memorialize the President and Congress of the United States to consider and enact such legislation and to propose such amendment or amendments to the Constitution of the United States as may be found suitable and appropriate effectively to prevent the further exemption from taxation of any and all bonds and other evidences of indebtedness issued by the Federal, State and local governments, to the fullest extent that the President and the Congress may have power so to do, and that the members of the Senate and of the House of Representatives from California are hereby urged and requested to use all honorable means in furtherance of the consideration and enactment of such legislation; and be it further Resolved. That copies of this resolution be forthwith transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the members of the House and Senate from the State of California.

Resolution read.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution.

The roll was called, and Senate Joint Resolution No. 21 adopted by the following vote:

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Roads and Highways.

Senate Bill No. 847—An act to amend sections 31, 51a and 51b of "An act providing for the incorporation of public utility districts in unincorporated territory, authorizing such districts to incur bonded indebtedness for the purpose of the construction of works and the acquisition of property, and to levy and collect taxes to pay the principal and interest on bonds and for carrying on their operations, and providing for the powers, management and government of such districts, and imposing certain duties and functions in connection with such districts upon certain county officers," approved May 31, 1921, relating to public utility districts in unincorporated territory.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Municipal Corporations, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 847 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "sections 31, 51a and 51b", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "section 31 and to amend and renumber sections 51a and 51b as added by chapter 999 of the Statutes of 1933".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, after "SECTION 1.", strike out "Subdivision (11) of section 31 of said act is", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "Section 31 of the act cited in the title hereof is".

Amendment No. 3.

On page 1 of the printed bill, between lines 2 and 3, insert the following:

"SEC. 31. (1) Whenever any petition or petitions, each signed by electors of the district equal in number to fifteen per centum of all the votes cast within the territory of the district at the last preceding general election held for the election of State and county officers, shall be presented to the board of directors asking for the construction, completion or acquisition of the public utility or utilities or public utility works therein named, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the district to immediately proceed to examine and verify the signatures to such petition or petitions and to certify the result of such examination to the board of directors. If the required number of signatures be found to be genuine, the clerk shall transmit to the president of the board of directors an authentic copy of such petition or petitions, without the signatures thereto.

(2) Upon receiving the petition or petitions, with the certificate of the clerk stating that it or they contain the required number of signatures, the board of directors shall formulate for submission to the electors of the district at a general district election or at a special election called for that purpose, a separate proposition for the construction, completion, or acquisition of each public utility or public utility works named in such petition or petitions.

In the formulation of the proposition or propositions the board of directors must procure plans and estimates of the cost of original construction and completion by the district of such public utility or public utilities or in the case of the proposed acquisition of an existing utility works the cost of original construction and completion by the district of similar works. The board of directors must also procure an estimate of the revenues that can be expected to be derived from the public utility or utilities or public utility works named in said petition or petitions.

In securing estimates of the cost of original construction and completion of waterworks by the district, the board of directors must procure and place on file plans and estimates of the cost of obtaining, from such sources as the board of directors may find and designate as available, a sufficient supply of good, pure water for the district.

(3) Before submitting propositions to the electors for the acquisition, by condemnation or otherwise, the construction or completion of any public utility or utilities or utility works, the board of directors must solicit and consider offers for the sale to the district of existing utilities, or utility works of the same character, or such portion thereof, as would be useful to the district, in order that the district may have the benefit of acquiring the same at the lowest possible cost thereof. The board of directors may apply to the Railroad Commission of the State of California to ascertain the value of such existing utility works for the purpose of submitting to the electors estimates of the cost of acquiring such public utility or utilities or public utility works. Such valuation by the Railroad Commission shall be made in accordance with the provisions of section 47 of the Public Utilities Act of the State of California, and said Railroad Commission shall have power upon such application, and it shall be its duty, to make such valuation without delay. When the Railroad Commission shall have made and filed its findings and decision, the board of directors of the public utility district may have said findings reviewed, as in sections 47 and 70 of said Public Utilities Act provided; or such board of directors may immediately adopt such findings and decisions as the basis of its estimate of the cost of acquiring such public utility or utilities or public utility works by purchase or by condemnation.

(4) Upon the filing of the plans and estimates, as heretofore provided, the board of directors shall determine whether the cost of the public utility or public utilities or public utility works proposed for acquisition, construction or completion can be paid from revenues of the district from the operation of its public utilities in addition to the other necessary expenses of the district.

(5) When the cost of any public utility or utilities or public utility works named in such petition or petitions can be paid out of the revenues of the district derived from the operation of the public utilities, in addition to the other necessary expenses of the district, each proposition, petition, or petitioners, shall specify the cost of the public utility or public utility works chosen proposed for acquisition, construction, or completion by the district, the proposed method and manner of payment thereof, and the board of directors shall submit thereon to the electors the question whether the same shall be accepted or not.

(6) If, however, the cost of any public utility or public utilities or public utility works named in such petition or petitions shall so far exceed the revenues of the district derived from the operation of its public utilities in addition to the other necessary expenses of the district, so as to require it to raise, in some district bonded indebtedness therefor, each such proposition shall specify the amount of the bonded indebtedness necessary therefor, and the rate of interest thereon, and the board of directors shall submit to the electors, at such meeting, the question of whether such bonded indebtedness shall be incurred.

(7) At the next regular meeting after the submission of the proposition or propositions for the acquisition, construction or completion of the public utility or utilities or public utility works named in said petition, the board of directors of the district by ordinance shall submit the proposition or propositions to the electors of the district at a general district election or at a special district election called for the purpose.

All propositions formulated under the provisions of subsections two of this section shall be submitted within six months after the filing of such petition or petitions, unless more time is required by reason of the making of a valuation applied for to the Railroad Commission under the provisions of subsection three of this section, in which case the said proposition or propositions shall be submitted as soon as may be possible after such valuation shall have been made and become final.

(8) The affirmative vote of a majority of the electors voting upon the proposition shall be necessary to accept any proposition submitted under the provisions of subdivision 5 of this section. Whenever a proposition is submitted under subsection 6 of this section the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the electors voting at such election upon the proposition shall be necessary to approve the construction, completion or acquisition of any public utility or utilities or public utility works and to warrant the issuance of district bonds therefor.

(9) At as early a date after the determination of the result of such election as the board of directors shall deem for the best interests of the district, it shall undertake proceedings and enter into such negotiations and contracts as may be necessary for the acquisition, construction or completion of any public utility or utilities or public utility works named in any proposition or propositions approved by the majority of the electors voting thereon at such election.

(10) Whenever the board of directors shall determine that the public interest or necessity of the district demands the acquisition, construction or completion of any public utility or utilities or public utility works, it shall specifically declare such determination by a resolution."

Amendment No. 4.

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out lines 8 and 9, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"(12) When the cost of such public utility or utilities or public utility works can be paid out of the revenues of the district, derived from the operation of its public utilities, in addition to the other necessary expenses of the district, the board of directors shall, as soon after the filing of the plans and estimates as it may deem for the best interests of the district by ordinance determine to acquire, construct or complete such utility or utilities or public utility works. Such ordinance shall be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation printed and published in the district or, if there be no such newspaper in the district, then in some newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county where such district or some part thereof is situated, and shall state the proposed cost of such acquisition, construction or completion and the proposed method and manner of payment therefor; and provided, further, that no such ordinance, in case it involves the expenditure of more than one hundred thousand dollars, shall become effective before thirty days from and after its final passage."

Amendment No. 5.

On page 2 of the printed bill, between lines 20 and 21, insert the following:

"(14) Whenever under the provisions of section 31 of this act, of which this subdivision is a part, a special election is called for the purpose of submitting to the electors a proposition or propositions, the board of directors shall pass an ordinance calling such election.

At such special election all propositions formulated under the provisions of this section may be submitted to the electors of the district, but no question other than such propositions shall be submitted at such special election.

The ordinance calling such election shall set forth the purposes for which it is called, the estimated cost of each utility or utility works proposed for acquisition, construction or completion by the district, the proposed method and manner of payment thereof, and shall fix a day on which such special election shall be held, the manner of holding such election, and the manner of voting for or against each proposition thereat submitted to the electors; and if it shall be necessary to incur a district indebtedness for any utility or utilities or public utility works therein proposed, the ordinance shall specify the objects and purposes for which such indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, and that bonds of the district shall issue for the payment of the cost of such utility or utilities or public utility works, as in said ordinance set forth if the proposition or propositions therefor be accepted by the electors. Such election shall be held as provided for holding elections in the district."

Amendment No. 6.

On page 2 of the printed bill, strike out lines 21 to 50, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 51a, as added by Chapter 999 of the Statutes of 1933, is hereby renumbered 51.5, and amended to read as follows:

Sec. 51.5. Unincorporated territory contiguous to the district may be annexed to said district in the manner following:

(1) A petition signed by not less than fifteen per cent of the qualified electors residing in the territory proposed to be annexed, describing said territory and asking that proceedings be taken for its annexation, may be addressed to the board of directors and filed with the secretary of the district. Thereupon the secretary shall compare the signatures of said petition with the affidavits of registration on file with the county clerk of the county or counties wherein said territory proposed to be annexed is situated, and if he finds that said petition has been signed by the required number of electors he shall attach his signature thereto and present said petition to the board of directors of the district.

(2) If the board of directors shall determine that the annexation of said territory will facilitate the acquisition, construction or completion or operation of any public utility, public utilities or public utility works of the district, or will be for the advantage of the said district, and that the territory proposed to be annexed will be benefited by such annexation, then said board shall determine the terms and conditions upon which said annexation should be made. In the terms and conditions so determined provision may be made, among other things, for the payment of special taxes within the territory to be annexed in addition to the taxes elsewhere in this act provided for, the fixing of rates, rentals and charges differing from those fixed, or existing elsewhere, within the utility district, the incurring or assumption of indebtedness or the making of a payment or payments, or the transfer of property, real or personal, or other assets to said utility district by the territory proposed to be annexed, in such manner as the board of directors shall deem just for the purpose of equalizing the proportionate obligations, expenditures and costs of operation between the territory within the district and the territory proposed to be annexed. Such terms and conditions shall become effective and be binding upon the utility district and upon the territory to be annexed when approved in the manner hereinafter set forth.

The boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed need not be coterminous with any election precincts.

(3) The board of directors of said utility district shall by ordinance describing the territory proposed to be annexed, and setting forth such terms and conditions at length, declare its intention of approving such annexation and terms and conditions. Said ordinance, together with a notice fixing the time and place for hearing thereon, and notifying all persons interested in or that may be affected by the proposed annexation of said territory within the district to appear at such meeting and show cause in writing, if any they have, why said territory or any of it should not be annexed as proposed in said petition, shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in said utility district, or if there be no such newspaper then in some newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county where such district or some part thereof is situated. A copy of said ordinance and notice shall be filed with the secretary of said utility district. The time fixed for such hearing shall be not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of the first publication of said ordinance. Said notice and ordinance shall be posted in three public places in the territory proposed to be annexed at least thirty days before the date set for said meeting.

At such hearing any person interested may file with the board of directors of the utility district written protest to the proposed annexation or to the approval of such terms and conditions. Upon such hearing the board of directors of the utility district shall hear and determine all protests so filed and all evidence presented thereto; said board shall thereupon determine whether said territory shall be annexed and shall determine upon what terms and conditions, if any, said annexation shall be made.

Failure of any person interested in said utility district or in the matter of the proposed annexation on the terms and conditions set forth in said ordinance to show cause by written protest as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as an assent on his part to a change in the boundaries in the utility district upon the terms and conditions, if any, set forth.

Any such hearing may be adjourned from time to time or from place to place by the board of directors without further notice other than an order to be entered upon the minutes of the meeting at the time of adjourning fixing the time and place that such meeting shall reconvene.

In the event that the board of directors after such hearing by resolution approves the proposed annexation of the territory described in said petitions or such part thereof as the board shall determine will be benefited by annexation, with or without terms or conditions, and said annexation is also approved either by a written consent containing a description of the territory proposed to be annexed and setting forth the terms and conditions, if any, of such annexation signed by a majority of the electors who were registered in the territory to be annexed at the date of the presentation of the petition or petitions for annexation, which written consent is filed with the secretary of the board who shall thereupon verify the signatures thereon in the same manner as the signatures to the petitions for annexation are required to be verified by the provisions of subdivision (1) of this section, or by a majority vote in favor of annexation at an election called and held as hereinafter in this section, provided within the territory proposed to be annexed; it shall make an order describing the boundaries of said territory proposed to be annexed and also describing the exterior boundaries of the district as they shall exist after said annexation. For the purposes of said order the board may cause a survey to be made of said boundaries or such portions thereof as may be deemed necessary. Said order shall also set forth in detail the conditions and terms, if any, of the annexation. Said order shall be set forth in full upon the minutes of the board.

(4) The board of directors, after its approval of said annexation by resolution as hereinbefore provided, may call an election to determine whether said annexation is approved by the electors of said territory proposed to be annexed, but before calling such election it may require an undertaking with sufficient security from the petitioners for the annexation, conditioned that the petitioners or their sureties will pay all costs to the district of such election in case such annexation be disapproved by such election.

In calling such election the board shall fix the time at which such election shall be held and cause notice thereof to be given and published. Such notice shall be given and published and such election shall be held and conducted and returns thereof shall be made and canvassed and the result of the election ascertained and declared, and all things pertaining thereto conducted in the manner prescribed by said act in case of a special election to determine whether bonds of a public utility district shall be issued. The ballots cast at such election shall contain the words "for change of boundary" or "against change of boundary" or words equivalent thereto. The notice of election shall describe the territory proposed to be annexed in such manner that it can be readily understood and shall set forth the terms and conditions if any of such annexation.

At such election only electors registered at the time of the presentation of the petition for annexation and who at the time of said election are still electors in said territory shall be qualified to vote. If at such election a majority of all the votes cast on the proposition shall be against such annexation the board shall order that the petition be denied and shall proceed no further in that matter, but if a majority of such votes be in favor of such annexation the board shall thereupon in the manner provided in subdivision (3) of this section order that the annexation be made.

(5) Upon the making of such order changing the boundaries of the district as aforesaid a copy of the order of the board of directors ordering such change certified by the president and secretary of the board shall be filed for record in the recorder's office in each county within which the district and any part thereof and within which the territory annexed or any part thereof is situated, and thereupon the district, including the territory annexed, shall be and remain a public utility district as fully and to every intent and purpose as if the lands which are included in the district by the change of the boundaries as aforesaid has been included therein at the original organization of the district, except that this provision shall not modify or impair the terms and conditions upon which said annexation shall be made.

(6) Upon the filing of the copies of the order, as in the last preceding section mentioned, the secretary shall record in the minutes of the board the petition aforesaid; and the said minutes, or a certified copy thereof, shall be admissible in evidence, with the same effect as the petition.

(7) In case land is annexed to any district as aforesaid, the board of directors thereof shall, but not less than thirty days before any election in such district, reestablish the boundaries of the units and election precincts within such district, so as to include such land therein in the same manner and with the same effect as set forth in section 12 hereof. In case of the annexation of any land less than thirty days before an election within such district, the inhabitants of the lands so included shall not be entitled to vote at such election.

Sec. 3. Section 51b, as added by Chapter 999 of the Statutes of 1933, is hereby renumbered to be 51.6 and amended to read as follows:

Sec. 51.6. No contest of any thing or matter herein provided shall be made other than within the time and manner herein specified, and in any such action all findings of facts or conclusions of said board of directors, or of the board of supervisors upon all matters, shall be conclusive, unless such action was instituted within six months after such finding or conclusion was made."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, engrossment, and on file for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 285—An act to provide, in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the regulation and licensing of horse racing, horse race meetings, and the wagering on the results thereof; to create the California Horse Racing Board for the regulation, licensing and supervision of said horse racing and wagering thereon; to provide penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act, and to provide that this act shall take effect upon the adoption of a constitutional amendment ratifying its provisions," for the allocation and apportionment of balances in the "Fair and exposition fund," approved June 5, 1933, for the benefit of State institutions of learning providing vocational training in agriculture, animal husbandry and kindred subjects.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Revenue and Taxation, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 285 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill, as amended, strike out "provide, in accordance with the provisions of an act", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "amend sections 12, 13 and 16 of an act".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out lines 9 to 14, inclusive, of the title, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "constitutional amendment ratifying its provisions", relating to horse racing".

Amendment No. 3.

On page 1 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out lines 1 to 15, inclusive, and strike out all of page 2, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SECTION 1. Section 12 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 12. The license fee to be paid by licensees shall be four per cent of all money handled in the pari-mutuel pools; payment of same shall be made by said licensee, daily, during each racing meeting; each application for a license to conduct such racing meeting shall be accompanied by a certified check payable to the Treasurer of the State of California, as ex officio Treasurer of the Racing Board in either of the following sums, dependent upon the classification of the county where the said meeting is to be held.

Counties of the first class-----	$10,000
Counties of the second class-----	10,000

Counties of the third class, at the rate of fifty dollars ($50) per day for such race meeting.

When the meeting for which said license is granted has terminated, and the licensee has fully paid said four per cent of said money handled in said pools, the said sum so deposited with such application for a license shall be returned to said licensee; in the event said licensee fails, refuses or neglects to pay said four per cent of said money handled in said pools, the amount thereof shall be deducted from said sum so deposited with such application for a license and the balance, if any, shall be returned to said licensee.

If by reason of any cause beyond control, and through no fault or neglect of any licensee, and when such licensee is not in default, it should become impossible for such licensee to hold or conduct racing upon any date or dates licensed by the board, the board in its discretion and at the request of such licensee shall have power to return the fine paid by such licensee for racing upon the date upon which it is possible for such licensee to hold or conduct racing at its facility on any other day or days which will replace the date omitted and to take them over. No license fee shall be required for horse race meetings conducted by a State or county fair or by a district agricultural association.

Sec. 2. Section 13 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13. All fees, commissions and other moneys received by the board shall be paid into the State treasury, notwithstanding upon receipt of the same and credited to a special fund hereby created to be known as the "Fair and exposition fund." All such moneys, to the extent of twenty-five per cent of the total amount received, are hereby appropriated to be used to defray the expenses of the board and to pay the salaries and expenses of the officers and employees of the board. The remainder of all moneys in said fund are hereby apportioned as follows: one dollar, one hundred thousand dollars thereof for the support of the California State Fair and seventy-five thousand dollars thereof for payment to and use of the Los Angeles County fair; of the balance of said moneys, after all of the above mentioned have been made, two per cent for payment to and use of the State Marine Agricultural Association for the purpose of holding a promotional campaign and of citrus products and of all the industries and industrial enterprises, resources and products of every kind or nature of the State; three per cent of said balance for payment to and use of those certain citrus fruit fairs and county, district and combined fairs defined in section 24 of the Agricultural Code and which are not fair or agricultural association or any county fairs. Said three per cent to be apportioned between such citrus fruit fairs and expositions from the base of the percentage of the several counties in which such fairs and expositions are held; and if only one such fair and exposition is held, then it shall receive all of said three per cent; fifteen per cent of such balance after the payments for the support of the board and the support of the California State fair and for payment to and use of the Los Angeles County fair, for the encouragement of county, district or combined county and district agricultural fairs (exclusive of the Los Angeles County fair, the Sixth District Agricultural Association, and combination fairs, county and district fairs), to be apportioned by and expended under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Finance in the manner and for the purpose provided by section 94 of the Agricultural Code and other applicable provisions of law; and one per cent of such balance or combined county and district agricultural fair shall be and one per cent greater than forty thousand dollars from the fair and exposition fund. The balance of said moneys in said fund after all of the above mentioned have been made is hereby transferred to the credit of the general fund of the State treasury and is hereby appropriated for the benefit permanent improvements and support of State educational institutions devoted to agricultural and practical training in animal husbandry and for the purpose of unemployment relief. One third of such funds is hereby appropriated, allocated and apportioned to the State Emergency Relief Administration for the relief of unemployment within the State of California; one third of such funds is hereby appropriated, allocated and apportioned to the California Polytechnic School; and one third of such funds is hereby appropriated, allocated and apportioned to the University of California.

The funds hereby appropriated, allocated and apportioned for the relief of unemployment within the State of California and for the benefit of the California Polytechnic School and the University of California are in addition to any other funds heretofore or hereafter appropriated for such purposes and for such institutions.

The funds appropriated, allocated and apportioned for the benefit of the California Polytechnic School and the University of California shall be used exclusively by such institutions to provide vocational training in agriculture, animal husbandry and kindred subjects.

Sec. 3. Section 16 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 16. No license or excise tax or fee in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) for each racing day, except as provided in this act shall be assessed or collected from any licensee by the State or by any town, district, city, township, village or any other body having the power to assess or collect a tax, license or fee; and no tax, license or fee shall be assessed or collected from any State, district agricultural association or any county fair conducting horse race meetings, except when such meetings are conducted by a private person, firm or corporation."

Senate Bill No. 728. An act to amend sections 11, 12, 18, 19, 20, 26, 29, 31 and 59 of the "Workmen's Compensation Insurance and Safety Act of 1917," approved May 23, 1917, relating to compensation, awards, proceedings, jurisdiction and insurance under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Consideration of Committee Amendment.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Insurance, the following amendment to Senate Bill No. 728 was read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 3, of the printed bill, after "Sec. 11", insert the following: "(a) The right to compensation for disability under this act shall be enjoyed unless a claim therefore is filed within one year after the injury, and the right to compensation for death shall be enjoyed unless claim thereon is filed one year after the death except that if payment of compensation has been denied without an award on account of such injury or death, a claim may be filed within one year after the date of the last payment.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), failure to file a claim within the period prescribed in such subsections shall not be a bar to such right unless objection to such failure is made by answer to such claim as provided in this act.

(c) If a person who is entitled to compensation under this act is mentally incompetent or a minor, the provisions of subsection (a) shall not be applicable so long as such person has no guardian or other authorized representative, but shall be applicable in the case of a person who is mentally incompetent, or a minor from the date of appointment of such guardian or representative, or in the case of a minor, if no guardian is appointed, before he becomes of age, from the date he becomes of age.

(d) Where recovery is denied to any person in a suit brought at law to recover damages in respect to injury or death on the ground that such person was not employee and that the defendant was an employer within the meaning of this act and that such employer had secured compensation to such employee under this act, the limitation of time prescribed in subsection (a) shall begin to run only from the date of the termination of such suit.

(e) Upon its own motion on the ground of error or mistake, or upon petition of any party or parties interested in the proceedings on the ground of a change of conditions, the commission may at any time after notice of hearing to the parties interested, review any award, and on such review may make an award ending, diminishing, maintaining or increasing the compensation previously awarded subject to the maximum and minimum compensation provided in this act and shall state its conclusions of facts and rulings of law and shall immediately send to the parties a copy of the award. No such review shall affect such award as regards any moneys already paid, provided that no award of compensation shall be rescinded, altered or amended unless petition therefor or notice of intention so to do shall be filed with the commission within two hundred forty-five weeks from the date of injury.

Sec. 2. Section 18 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 18. (a) If any defendant disclaims any interest in the subject matter of the claim in controversy or considers that the application is in any respect inaccurate or incomplete or desires to bring any fact, paper or document to the attention of the commission as a defense to the claim or otherwise he shall, within five days after the service of the application upon him file with or mail to the commission his answer setting forth the particulars in which the application is inaccurate or incomplete and the facts upon which he intends to rely. A copy of such answer must be served upon all adverse parties. Upon proper showing in writing made within the time fixed therefor the commission may extend the time for filing such answer not exceeding ten days at any one time. Evidence before said commission shall be limited to the issues presented in said answer.

(b) If the defendant fails to appear or answer, no default shall be taken against him, but the commission shall proceed to the hearing of the matter upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper. Such defendant failing to appear or answer, or subsequently contending that no service was made upon him, or claiming to be aggrieved in any other manner by want of notice of the pendency of the proceedings, may apply to the commission for relief substantially in accordance with the provisions of section four hundred seventy-three of the Code of Civil Procedure, and the commission is hereby authorized to afford such relief. No right to relief, including the claim that the findings and award of the commission or judgment entered thereon are void upon their face, shall accrue to such defendant in any court unless prior application shall have been made to the commission in accordance with this subsection, and in no event shall any application to any court be allowed except as prescribed in sections sixty-seven and sixty-eight of this act.

(c) If upon the filing of an application, such application shows upon its face that the applicant is not entitled to compensation, the commission may, upon its own motion or upon the motion of the adverse party, and after opportunity to the applicant to be heard orally or in writing, and upon good cause appearing therefor, dismiss the application prior to any hearing thereon. The pendency of such motion or notice of intended dismissal shall not, unless otherwise ordered by the commission, delay the hearing upon the application upon its merits.

(d) Upon the filing of an application by or on behalf of an injured employee or his dependents or any other party in interest, the commission may, in its discretion, in the cases mentioned in section four hundred twelve of the Code of Civil Procedure (or in any case where the employer has failed to secure the payment of compensation as required by section twenty-nine of the Workmen's Compensation, Insurance and Safety Act of 1917, as amended by chapter four hundred seventy-one of the Laws of 1919), direct the county clerk of any county or city and county to issue writs of attachment authorizing the sheriff to attach the property of the defendant in an amount not to exceed the greatest probable award against him in such matter, to be fixed by the commission, as security for the payment of any compensation which may thereafter be awarded. The provisions of part two, title seven, chapter four, of the Code of Civil Procedure of this State, as far as applicable to proceedings before the commission, shall govern the proceedings upon attachment, and the commission shall be substituted for the superior court in said provisions for the purpose of this act. No writ of attachment shall be issued except upon the order of the commission or a commissioner, and such order shall not be made where it appears from the application or affidavit in support thereof that the employer was, at the time of the injury to the employee, insured against liability imposed by this act in any insurance carrier licensed to do business in the State of California. If it should at any time after the levying of an attachment be made to appear that such employer was so insured, and the requisites for dismissing said employer from the proceeding and substituting the insurance carrier as defendant under any of the methods prescribed under section thirty (c) of this act be established, the commission must forthwith discharge the attachment. In levying such attachment, preference must be given to the real property of the employer.

SEC. 3. Section 19 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 19. (a) No pleadings, other than the application and answer, shall be required. The hearing on the application may be adjourned from time to time and from place to place in the discretion of the commission or commissioner or referee holding such hearing. Either party shall have the right to be present at any hearing, in person or by attorney or by any other agent, and to present such testimony as shall be pertinent under the pleadings, but the commission may, with or without notice to either party, cause testimony to be taken, or inspection of the premises where the injury occurred to be made, or the time-books and pay roll of the employer to be examined by any commissioner or referee appointed by the commission, and may from time to time direct any employee claiming compensation to be examined by a regular physician; the testimony so taken and the results of any such inspection or examination to be reported to the commission for its consideration.

(b) The parties to a controversy may stipulate the facts relative thereto in writing and file such stipulation with the commission. The commission may thereupon make its findings and award based upon such stipulation, or may in its discretion set the matter down for hearing and take such further testimony or make such further investigations as may be necessary to enable it to completely determine the matter in controversy.

(c) The commission may receive as evidence, either at or subsequent to a hearing, and use as proof of any fact in dispute, the following matters, in addition to sworn testimony presented in open hearing:

- (1) Reports of attending or examining physicians.
- (2) Reports of investigators appointed by the commission.
- (3) Reports of employers, including copies of time sheets, book accounts or other records.

(4) Hospital records relating to the case of the injured or deceased employee, provided, however, that the commission may, by rule, prescribe that reports of attending or examining physicians or hospital records shall be filed with the commission not less than five days prior to the hearing to be held upon the case to which such reports shall refer, copies of all such reports to be served upon the opposite party or parties in interest.

(d) The burden of proof lies upon the party holding the affirmative of the issue. The following are affirmative defenses, and the burden of proof shall rest upon the employer to establish them:

- (1) That an injured person claiming to be an employee is an independent contractor or otherwise excluded from the protection of this act, where there is proof that such injured person was at the time of his injury actually performing service for the alleged employer.
- (2) Intoxication of an employee causing his injury.
- (3) Wilful misconduct of an employee causing his injury.
- (4) Aggravation of disability by unreasonable conduct of the employee.
- (5) Prejudice to the employer by failure of the employee to give notice as required by section fifteen.

(e) Where it is represented to the commission, either before or after the filing of an application, that an employee has died as a result of injuries sustained in the course of his employment, the commission may require an autopsy, and the report of the physician performing such autopsy may be received in evidence in any proceedings thereunder or thereafter brought. If at the time such autopsy is requested the body of such employee be in the custody of the coroner, the coroner must, upon the request of the commission or of any party interested, afford reasonable opportunity for the attendance of any physicians named by the commission at any autopsy ordered by him. If the coroner should not require, or shall have already performed such autopsy, he shall permit an autopsy or reexamination to be performed by physicians named by the commission. No fee shall be charged by the coroner for any service arranged, ordered or permission given by him.

If the body is not in the custody of the coroner, the commission shall have authority to authorize the performance of such autopsy and the examination of the body for such purpose if necessary. If the dependents, or a majority thereof, of any such deceased employee, having the custody of the body of such deceased employee, shall refuse to allow the performance of such autopsy, such autopsy shall not be held, but upon the hearing of any application for compensation it shall be a disputable presumption that the injury or death was not due to causes entitling the claimants to benefits under this act.

SEC. 4. Section 20 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 20. (a) After final hearing by the commission, it shall, within thirty days, make the file (1) its findings upon all facts involved in the controversy and (2) its award which shall state its determination as to the rights of the parties.

(b) The commission in its award may fix and determine the total amount of compensation to be paid and specify the manner of payment, or may fix and determine the weekly disability payment to be made and order payment thereof during the continuance of such disability.

(c) If, in any proceeding under sections six to thirty-one, inclusive, of this act, it is proved that an injury has been suffered for which the employer would be liable to pay compensation if disability had resulted therefrom, but it is not proved that any incapacity had resulted, the commission may, instead of dismissing the application, award a nominal disability indemnity, if it appears that disability is likely to result at a future time.

(d) The commission shall have continuing jurisdiction over all its orders, decisions and awards made and entered under the provisions of sections 6 to 31, inclusive, of this act and may at any time, upon notice, and after opportunity to be heard is given to the parties in interest, rescind, alter or amend any such order, decision or award made by it on good cause appearing therefor, such power including the right to review, grant or regrant, diminish, increase or terminate, within the limits prescribed by this act any compensation awarded, upon the grounds that the disability of the person in whose favor such award was made has either recurred, increased, diminished or terminated; provided that no award of compensation shall be rescinded, altered or amended unless petition therefor shall be filed within two hundred forty-five weeks from the date of the injury. Any order, decision or award rescinding, altering or amending a prior order, decision or award shall have the same effect as is herein provided for original orders, decisions or awards.

SEC. 5. Section 26 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 26. If an employee entitled to compensation under this act be injured or killed by the negligence or wrong of another not in the same employ, such injured employee, or in the case of death, his dependents, shall, before filing any claim under this act, elect in writing whether to take compensation under this act or to pursue his remedy against such third party. Such election shall be evidenced in such manner as the commission may by rule or regulation prescribe. If such injured employee, or in the case of death, his dependents, elect to take compensation under this act, the awarding of compensation shall operate as and be an assignment of the cause of action against such other to the State Compensation Insurance Fund, if compensation be payable by the State Compensation Insurance Fund, and otherwise to the person, association, corporation or insurance carrier liable for the payment of such compensation; however, said insurance carrier shall not be entitled to recover any sum in excess of the amount of compensation for which said carrier is liable under this act to the injured employee, but to that extent said carrier shall be subrogated to the rights of the injured employee against said third party causing the injury. If the injured employee elects to proceed against such third party, he may, notwithstanding such election, file his application with the Industrial Accident Commission, and proceedings thereon shall be held in abeyance until such time as he shall have finally disposed of his action against such third party, in which case the State Compensation Insurance Fund, person, association, corporation or insurance carrier, as the case may be, shall contribute only the deficiency, if any, between the amount of the recovery against such third party actually collected and the compensation provided by this act in such case. A compromise of any such cause of action by the employee or his dependents at an amount less than the compensation provided for by this act shall be made only with the written approval of the commission if the deficiency of compensation would be payable by the State Compensation Insurance Fund, and otherwise with the written approval of the person, association, corporation or insurance carrier liable to pay the same. Whenever an employee is killed by the negligence or wrong of another not in the same employ, and the dependents of such employee entitled to compensation under this act are minors, such election to take compensation and the assignment of the cause of action against such other and such notice of election to pursue remedy against such other shall be made by such minor, or shall be made on his behalf by a parent of such minor or by his next friend or duly appointed guardian as the commission may determine by rule in each case.

SEC. 6. Sec. 29 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 29. Every employer subject to the provisions of this act shall secure compensation for his employees in one of the following ways which shall be deemed to be compliance with the insurance requirements of this act.

(a) By insuring and keeping insured the payment of such compensation in the State Compensation Insurance Fund; or

(b) By insuring and keeping insured the payment of such compensation with any stock or mutual corporation authorized to transact the business of workmen's compensation insurance in California. If insurance be so effected in such stock or mutual corporation, the employer or insured shall forthwith file with the commission in form prescribed by it a notice specifying the name of the insured and the insurer, the business and place of business of the insured and the effective and termination dates of the policy, also when requested a copy of the contract and policy of insurance.

(c) By securing from the commission a certificate of consent to self-insure, which may be given upon his furnishing proof satisfactory to the commission of ability to carry his own insurance and pay any compensation that may become due to his employees, the commission may, in its discretion, require such employer to deposit with the State Treasurer a bond or securities, but not both a bond and securities, approved by the commission, in an amount to be determined by the commission. Such certificate may be revoked at any time for good cause shown after hearing had, such good cause including among others things, the impairment of the solvency of said employer, the practice by such employer or his agent in charge of the administration of his obligations under the Workmen's Compensation Act of any of the acts denounced by sections 596b or 633 of the Political Code, with respect to the conduct of insurance companies, their officers or agents. So long as the certificate of consent to self-insure has not been revoked, and the self-insurer has deposited with the State Treasurer such bond or securities, the self-insurer shall not be required or obliged to pay into the State Compensation Insurance Fund any sums covering liability for compensation, excepting life pensions; but shall be permitted, and such permission is hereby given the self-insurer, to fully administer any and all such compensation benefits assessed against the said insurer. The Industrial Accident Commission shall have complete authority, in the event that the surety on such bond becomes liable for payment thereunder, or resort must be had to the deposited securities, to direct the order, manner and amounts of payment due the beneficiaries; and payment by the surety pursuant to the order of the commission or when ratified by the commission shall constitute a full release of his liability under the bond to the extent of such payment, and shall entitle the surety to full reimbursement by the principal or his estate, including necessary attorney fees and other costs and expenses, without prior claim or proceedings on the part of the injured employee or other beneficiary. The assets making payment of compensation hereunder shall have the same preference over the other debts of the principal or his estate as is given by law to the person directly entitled to such compensation.

(d) If any employer shall fail so to secure the payment of compensation, any injured employee or his dependents may proceed against such employer by filing an application for compensation with the commission, such as before, then, such injured employee or his dependents may bring an action or law against such employer for damages, the same as if they had not applied and shall be entitled to such action to the right to attach the property of the employer at any time prior or after the institution of such action, in an amount to be fixed by the court, to secure the payment of any judgment which may ultimately be obtained. Such judgment shall include a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, except in so far as they may be inconsistent with this act, shall govern the issuance of and proceedings upon such attachments, provided, that if as a result of such action for damages a judgment is obtained against such employer in excess of the compensation awarded under this act, the compensation awarded by the commission, if paid, or if so set aside approved by the court to grant the payment, shall be credited upon such judgment, provided, further, that in such action it shall be presumed that the injury to the employee was a direct result and grew out of the negligence of the employer, to secure the presumption of negligence. It shall be a defense to the employer that the employee was here and guilty of contributory negligence, or assumed the risk of the hazard concerned or that the injury was caused by the negligence of a fellow servant. No recovery of lost wages shall be allowed to accrue to the employee or to the surviving dependents, provided, however, that the State itself and such county, city, town, township, district, water and school district thereto, and such public institutions, and every administrative board thereof shall at all times insure and keep insured the payment of such compensation in the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

SEC. 7. Section 31 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 31. Every contract for the institution of compensation and benefits as herein provided or against liability therefor shall be deemed to be made subject to all the provisions of this act, but all provisions of such contract for insurance inconsistent with the provisions of this act shall be void. Any contract of insurance issued hereunder by any insurance company, including such as a paid compensation and the State Compensation Insurance Fund may include and cover any benefits of any employee on account of personal injury sustained by him or death occurring therefrom to any employee as such. No employer shall be required to carry more than one compensation insurance policy, and no insurance company shall operate a policy of insurance covering the liability under this act of any employer except on a form that has been previously filed with and approved by the Industrial Accident Commission, nor shall there be attached to said policy, contract or insurance any endorsement, rider, letter or other document affecting such contract unless the same has been filed with, and the form thereof approved by said commission, which form shall be similar to that used by the commission. The Industrial Accident Commission shall, from time to time, approve and procure a standard or a universal form as nearly as possible for every contract or policy of insurance, endorsement, rider, letter or other document affecting such contract for use in insuring the compensation hereby provided.

SEC. 8. Section 39 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 39. (a) Hearings arising under this act may be held before the commission or any referee of the commission or any commissioner as referee, when said commissioner has been specially appointed by the commission to hold any such hearing. The commission shall appoint one or more referees, and any referee shall have power and authority to call, preside at and conduct hearings, including the power to issue subpoenas. At the conclusion of each hearing the referee shall make a summary order allowing or denying said claim without being required to make known the findings of fact. If compensation benefits be granted, it shall be sufficient to specify the amount or amounts thereof, the disability for which compensation benefits are granted, by whom and to whom such benefits should be paid, and the method and time of such payments. Such order of the referee shall be in writing, and a copy of such order shall be furnished to each of the parties in interest, the original of which shall be a part of the records in such case. Said order shall be the final order of the commission unless a petition for rehearing is filed as in this act provided. All referees shall be appointed and hold their office subject to the provisions of the Civil Service Laws of the State of California and shall receive such compensation for their services as may be fixed by the commission, provided, however, that referees who have served more than two years as a referee shall receive a salary of not less than four thousand two hundred dollars per annum.

(b) Any party in interest in any hearings held before the commission may object to any person acting as referee upon any one or more of the grounds specified in section 641 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and such objections must be heard and disposed of by the commission.

(c) Before entering upon his duties, the referee must be sworn before an officer authorized to administer oaths faithfully and fairly to hear the matters and issues referred to him and to make just findings and decisions according to his understanding. All such oaths of office shall be filed with the Secretary of State."

Senate Bill No. 943—An act to amend the title and sections of the "Workmen's Compensation, Insurance and Safety Act of 1917," approved May 23, 1917, relating to workmen's compensation.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Insurance, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 943 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "the title and sections", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "section 29".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, after the period, insert the following: "Section 29 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 29. (a) Every employer as defined in section 7 hereof, except the State and all political subdivisions or institutions thereof, shall secure the payment of compensation in one or more of the following ways:

1. By insuring and keeping insured against liability to pay compensation in the State Compensation Insurance Fund. Policies of such insurance with a private insurer, heretofore written, shall not be carried beyond next anniversary date.

2. By securing from the commission a certificate of consent to self-insure, which may be given upon his furnishing proof satisfactory to the commission of ability to carry his own insurance and pay any compensation that may become due to his employees, the commission may, in its discretion, require such employer to deposit with the State Treasurer a bond or securities, but not both a bond and securities, approved by the commission, in an amount to be determined by the commission. Such certificate may be revoked at any time for good cause shown after hearing had, such good cause including among other things, the impairment of the solvency of said employer, the practice by such employer or his agent in charge of the administration of its obligations under the Workmen's Compensation Act of any of the acts denounced by sections 596 (b) or 633 of the Political Code, with respect to the conduct of insurance companies, their officers or agents. So long as the certificate of consent to self-insure has not been revoked, and the self-insurer has deposited with the State Treasurer such bond or securities, the self-insurer shall not be required or obliged to pay into the State Compensation Insurance Fund any sums covering liability for compensation, excepting life pensions; but shall be permitted, and such permission is hereby given the self-insurer, to fully administer any and all such compensation benefits assessed against the said insurer. The Industrial Accident Commission shall have complete authority, in the event that the surety on such bond becomes liable for payment thereunder, or resort must be had to the deposited securities, to direct the order, manner and amounts of payment due the beneficiaries; and payment by the surety pursuant to the order of the commission or when ratified by the commission shall constitute a full release of his liability under the bond to the extent of such payment, and shall entitle the surety to full reimbursement by the principal or his estate, including necessary attorney fees and other costs and expenses, without prior claim or proceedings on the part of the injured employee or other beneficiaries. The surety making payment of compensation hereunder shall have the same preference over the other debts of the principal or his estate as is given by law to the person directly entitled to such compensation.

(b) If any employer shall fail so to secure the payment of compensation, any injured employee or his dependents may proceed against such employer by filing an application for compensation with the commission, and, in addition thereto, such injured employee or his dependents may bring an action at law against such employer for damages, the same as if this act did not apply, and shall be entitled in such action to the right to attach the property of the employer, at any time upon or after the institution of such action, in an amount to be fixed by the court, to secure the payment of any judgment which may ultimately be obtained. Such judgment shall include a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, except in so far as they may be inconsistent with this act, shall govern the issuance of and proceedings upon such attachment; provided, that if as a result of such action for damages a judgment is obtained against such employer in excess of the compensation awarded under this act, the compensation awarded by the commission, if paid, or if security approved by the court be given for its payment, shall be credited upon such judgment; provided further, that in such action it shall be presumed that the injury to the employee was a direct result and grew out of the negligence of the employer, and the burden of proof shall rest upon the employer, to rebut the presumption of negligence. In such proceeding it shall not be a defense to the employer that the employee may have been guilty of contributory negligence, or assumed the risk of the hazard complained of, or that the injury was caused by the negligence of a fellow servant. No contract, rule or regulation shall be allowed to restore to the employer any of the foregoing defenses.

(c) Failure to secure the payment of compensation as heretofore provided shall constitute a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months or both. In case of the willful failure by an employer to secure the payment of compensation as herein provided, the amount of compensation otherwise recoverable for injury or death as provided in this act shall be increased ten per cent. any of the provisions of this act as to maximum payments or otherwise to the contrary notwithstanding. Provided, however, that said increase of award shall in no event exceed one thousand dollars. Failure of the employer to secure the payment of compensation as herein provided shall be prima facie evidence of willfulness on his part.

(d) The commission may require any employer to furnish a written statement at any time showing the manner in which the employee has complied with the provisions of this section. Failure of the employer for a period of ten days to furnish such written statement shall constitute presumptive evidence that such employer has failed or neglected in respect to the matters so required. In any proceeding under this section, the burden of proof shall be upon the defendant to show that he has secured the payment of compensation in one of the two ways set forth in paragraph (a) hereof.

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Insurance.

Senate Bill No. 1042—An act to amend section 13 of the "Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax Act" approved May 29, 1933, relating to the expenditure of funds.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Roads and Highways, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 1042 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill strike out everything except "Act get to", and in line 2, strike out everything except "relating to the roads", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "add sections 1622.1, 1622.2, 1622.3, 1622.4, 1622.5 and 1622.6 to the Streets and Highways Code."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1, line 3 of the title of the printed bill, after "or", insert the following "highway".

Amendment No. 3.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill strike out everything except "Section 4" and strike out all of lines 2 to 27, inclusive, and on page 2, strike out all of lines 1 to 21, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "Section 1622.1 is hereby added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read as follows:

1622.1 All expenditures from the special road improvement fund shall be under the exclusive control of the board of supervisors.

Sec. 2. Section 1622.2 is hereby added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read as follows:

1622.2 Expenditures from the special road improvement fund shall be limited to that portion of the highway or bridge available for use by vehicular traffic except that such funds may be expended for pedestrian underpasses or pedestrian crossings, crossings and the installation and maintenance of traffic control devices, but such funds shall not be expended for street lighting, nor for the construction or maintenance of sidewalks, nor, except as hereinafter expressly authorized, for the construction or maintenance of any structure or facility in, over or under the highway or bridge which is not of direct and primary service in providing a way for vehicular traffic. Sidewalks may be constructed with such funds to replace those removed or damaged by construction or improvement of the highway or bridge.

No moneys shall be expended by the county from such fund except for items specified in the budget and approved by the department as required in this article.

Sec. 3. Section 1622.3 is hereby added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read as follows:

1622.3 It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of each county, on or before the first day of June of each year, to prepare and to submit to the department a budget on such forms as the department may specify, showing the estimated expenditure of such funds recommended to be made during the ensuing fiscal year.

The department may refuse to approve any such budget or any item thereof if in the opinion of the department the work proposed to be done or the expenditures proposed to be made, as outlined therein, do not comply with the requirements of this article as to the purposes for which such funds may be expended. The department may also refuse to approve any such budget or any item thereof if in the opinion of the department the proposed expenditure or expenditures are excessive for the work to be done.

SEC. 4. Section 1622.4 is hereby added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read as follows:"

Amendment No. 4.

On page 2, line 22, of the printed bill, strike out "Any expenditure from said", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "1622.4. Any expenditure from the special road improvement".

"Sec. 5. Section 1622.5 is hereby added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read as follows:

1622.5. Before expending any such funds for construction or improvement of any street, except for preliminary engineering, the board of supervisors shall furnish to the department for approval such surveys, plans, specifications, and estimates of cost therefor as the department may require. When the department has approved the plans, specifications, and estimates, the board of supervisors may proceed to advertise for bids. The written consent of the department must be secured before any contract may be awarded for an amount in excess of the estimates of cost, or to other than the low bidder on the grounds that the low bidder is not responsible, or before the work may be done by day's labor.

The written consent of the department must likewise be obtained before the amount of any item specified in the budget for maintenance or acquisition of real property is exceeded.

Sec. 6. Section 1622.6 is hereby added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read as follows:

1622.6. Each county shall file with the department annually, at such time as the department may designate, a report showing all expenditures made for maintenance in such detail as the department may require.

Within sixty days after the completion by any county of any project for the acquisition of real property for, or for the construction or improvement of, any highway, bridge or culvert, such county shall file with the department a final report in respect thereto, in such detail as the department may require."

"SECTION 1. Section 1240 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1240. The private property which may be taken under this title includes:

1. All real property belonging to any person;

2. Lands belonging to this State, including tide and submerged lands, not within the corporate limits of any city, or city and county, or to any county, incorporated city, or city and county, village or town, not appropriated to some public use; provided, that all sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections, both surveyed and unsurveyed, owned by the State or the United States, which may now or may hereafter be included within the exterior boundaries of a National reservation, or of a reserve, or within the exterior boundaries of lands withdrawn from public entry, shall be and hereby are withheld from the operation of this title and shall not be condemned as against the State or the United States;

3. Property appropriated to public use; but such property shall not be taken unless for a more necessary public use than that to which it has already been appropriated; provided, that where any such property has been so appropriated by any individual, firm or private corporation, the use thereof for a State highway or a public street or highway of the State, or a county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, joint highway district, or the use thereof by the State or a county, city and county, incorporated city or town, joint highway district, or irrigation or municipal water district, for the same public purpose to which it has been so appropriated, or for any other public purpose, shall be deemed more necessary uses than the public use to which such property has already been appropriated; and provided further, that where property already appropriated to a public use or purpose, by any person, firm or private corporation, is sought to be taken by the State, a county, city and county, incorporated city or town, joint highway district, irrigation or municipal water district, for another public use or purpose, which is consistent with the continuance of the use of such property or some portion thereof for such existing purpose, to the same extent as such property is then used, or to a less or modified extent, then the right to use such property for such proposed public purpose, in common with such other use or purpose, either as then existing, or to a less or modified extent, may be taken by the State, such county, city and county, incorporated city or town, joint highway district, or irrigation or municipal water district, and the court may fix the terms and conditions upon which such property may be so taken, and the manner and extent of the use thereof for each of such public purposes, and may order the removal or relocation of any structures, or improvements therein or thereon, so far as may be required by such common use.

4. Property appropriated to any public use by any irrigation district, may be taken by another irrigation district for another public use and purpose, which is consistent with the use of such property for such existing purposes to the same extent as such property is then used; provided, that the right to such limited use in common shall include the right to enlarge, change or improve the property so taken; provided further, that such enlargement, change or improvement shall not interfere with the original use or any necessary extension or enlargement of such use.

5. Franchises for any public utility, and all kinds of property of any nature whatsoever used, either during the existence of or at the termination of said franchise, to supply and furnish the service of such public utility, but such franchise or property shall not be taken except for a more necessary public use.

6. All rights of way for any and all the purposes mentioned in section 1238, and any and all structures and improvements on, over, across or along such rights of way, and the lands held or used in connection therewith shall be subject to be connected with, crossed, or intersected by or embraced within any other right of way or improvements, or structures thereon. They shall also be subject to a limited use, in common with the owner thereof, when necessary; but such uses, crossings, intersections, and connections shall be made in manner most compatible with the greatest public benefit and least private injury.

7. All classes of private property not enumerated may be taken for public use, when such taking is authorized by law.

8. Proceedings to condemn lands belonging to this State are hereby authorized, and must be maintained and conducted in the same manner as are other condemnation proceedings provided for in this title, except that in such proceedings the commissions and a copy of the complaint must be served on the Governor, Attorney General, and Surveyor General of this State.

Sec. 2. Section 1241 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1241. Before property can be taken, it must appear:

1. That the use to which it is to be applied is as authorized by law;

2. That the taking is necessary to such use; provided, when the board of directors of an irrigation district, of a public utility district, or of a water district or the legislative body of a county, city and county, or an incorporated city or town, which by resolution or ordinance, supported by one of two-thirds of all its members, have found and determined that the public interest and community require the improving, reconstruction or completion, for such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or irrigation, public utility, or water district, of any proposed public works, or any public improvement, and that the property described in such resolution or ordinance is necessary therefore, such resolution or ordinance shall be conclusive evidence; (a) of the public necessity of such proposed public utility or public improvement; (b) that such property is necessary therefor; and (c) that such proposed public utility or public improvement is proposed or needed in the manner which will be most compatible with the greatest public good, and the least private injury; provided, that such resolution or ordinance shall not be conclusive evidence in the case of the taking by any county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or irrigation, public utility, or water district, of grounds located outside of the territorial limits thereof.

3. If already appropriated to some public use, that the public use to which it is to be applied is a more necessary public use; provided, that when such property has been so appropriated by any county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, for a public street or highway of the State, or county, city and county, or an incorporated city or town, or water district, or an irrigation district, or a public utility district, or a municipal water district, or an irrigation district, or a public utility district, or a water district for the same purposes to which it has been appropriated or for the public purpose, shall be deemed a more necessary use than the public use to which such property has been already appropriated; and provided further, that property of any character, whether already appropriated to some use or not, including the rights of any nature in water, owned by any person, shall not be taken or appropriated by any county, city and county, or any incorporated city or town, or a municipal water district, or an irrigation district, or a public utility district, or a water district, for the purpose of supplying water or electricity for power, lighting or heating purposes in such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, or an irrigation district, a public utility district, or a water district, or the inhabitants thereof, or for the purpose of supplying and other public utility, or for any other public use. And such taking may be made either in through a separate and distinct supply of such water, and such company for power, lighting or heating purposes, or to provide for any such separate and distinct other public utility or other public use; to furnish such a supply of water for any such other public utility or other public use in conjunction with and other supply or with any other public utility or other public use that may have been theretofore provided for or that may thereafter be provided for in so supplying or providing for such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, or an irrigation district, a public utility district, or a water district, or the inhabitants thereof; or in conjunction with any other supply or with any other public utility or other public use that may have been theretofore determined upon or that may thereafter be determined upon in accordance with law by the people of any such county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, or an irrigation district, a public utility district, or a water district. Nothing herein provided shall be construed as in any way limiting such rights as may be given by any other law of this State to counties, cities and counties, incorporated cities or towns, or municipal water districts or irrigation districts, public utility districts, or water districts."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 2 of the printed bill, as amended, following line 9, insert the following: Sec. 2. Section 1 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. All bonded indebtedness consisting of outstanding unpaid bonds and outstanding unpaid interest coupons of bonds issued by or for any special improvement district the bonds of which are payable from taxes or special assessments levied wholly or partly in accordance with the assessed value of lands may be funded or refunded under and pursuant to the provisions of this act. At least two of the interest coupons on the refunding bonds must be at a rate of interest less than the interest rate on the bonds to be refunded, and the rate of interest on the refunding bonds shall not exceed the rate of interest on the bonds to be refunded. The legislative body of the city or county or city and county which conducts the refunding proceedings may negotiate and contract with the holders of bonds for such refunding and to aid in such refunding may appropriate moneys from the general fund or from any available fund of the city or county or city and county. Also, any county in which the district lies, whether the district be entirely or partly within a city or cities, or entirely or partially within unincorporated territory of the county, is hereby authorized to appropriate moneys from its general fund, road fund or any available fund to assist in such refunding. In refunding such indebtedness under this act, the total amount of the reassessments to be levied under this act plus contributions, if any, of public money to aid in such refunding shall be less than the total amount of the outstanding unpaid bonds and the outstanding due and unpaid interest coupons which are to be refunded.

SECT. 3. Section 2 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECT. 2. Whenever the legislative body of any city or county or city and county of this State determines by resolution that the public interest, convenience or necessity require the refunding of the indebtedness of any special improvement district which it is given jurisdiction to refund under the provisions of this act, said legislative body shall by resolution declare its intention to refund such bonds and shall determine the total maximum principal amount for which a reassessment shall be levied in the refunding proceedings, and shall determine the term of any refunding bonds to be issued to represent unpaid assessments as herein provided and the rate or rates of interest of such bonds. The rate of interest during the entire term of such bonds need not be the same but different rates may be stated for one or more interest payments of such bonds. If such different rates of interest are proposed, each rate and the time during which such rate shall be paid shall be designated in such resolution. The amount of any proposed contribution of public funds to be made to assist in such refunding shall be stated in such resolution, but this shall not prevent said legislative body making additional contributions thereto at any time. In said resolution and legislative body it shall state the total amount of the outstanding indebtedness to be refunded (which shall be deemed to be the principal amount of outstanding unpaid bonds and the amount of due and unpaid interest coupons), the amount of the principal of bonds included therein, and the amount of due and unpaid interest coupons included therein, all as of the date said resolution is adopted. No error or mistake in the computation of the amount of unpaid principal or unpaid interest shall affect the validity of the refunding proceedings, and no error or mistake in any statement of the amount of such principal or interest in any notice, resolution or order in the course of the proceedings shall operate in any way the reassessment or the refunding bonds or the refunding proceedings, provided that the total sum of the reassessment levied in the refunding proceedings plus any contribution or contributions of public funds made to aid in such refunding shall not exceed the sum of the principal amount of the bonds to be refunded and the amount of the due and unpaid interest coupons to be refunded. Said resolution shall contain a statement that for any reassessment not paid within thirty days from the date of recordation thereof a bond will issue in the manner and form provided in this act (designating the act by title or other suitable reference).

Said resolution shall also contain a date, time and place for the hearing of objections to said refunding, and the date fixed for said hearing shall not be less than twenty (20) days nor more than sixty (60) days subsequent to the date of adoption of said resolution. Said resolution shall also contain a statement that the refunding shall not be authorized unless the written consent of the owners of a majority in area of the land in the district subject to assessment to pay the principal and interest of the outstanding bonds is filed with the clerk of the legislative body, and that any owner of land in said district may file his written consent to such refunding at any time prior to the adoption of the resolution ordering the refunding.

SECT. 4. Section 3 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECT. 3. The resolution shall be published once a week for at least two (2) weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the city of the refunding proceedings are conducted by the legislative body of a city or in the county (if the refunding proceedings are conducted by the legislative body of a county). In the event no newspaper of general circulation is published in the city, then publication may be made in any newspaper of general circulation published in the county. Copies of such resolution headed "Notice of refunding and reassessment" shall also be posted upon all open streets within the district of lands proposed to be reassessed in the refunding proceedings. Such notices shall be not more than three hundred (300) feet in distance apart and not less than three (3) of such notices shall be posted. The heading upon such posted notices must be in letters at least one inch in height and such notices shall be posted on or before the date of the first publication of said notice. A copy of the resolution as published shall be mailed, postage prepaid, by the clerk of the legislative body to each person to whom land in the assessment district is assessed as shown on the last equalized assessment roll of the county in which said district lies, at his address as shown upon such roll, and to any person, whether owner in fee or having a lien upon or legal or equitable interest in any land within said district, whose name and address and a designation of the land in which he is interested is on file in the office of said clerk. No error, failure or mistake in the mailing or posting of such notices or any of them and no failure of any owner or person interested in any land within the district to receive such mailed notice shall in any way affect the validity of the proceedings hereunder and the clerk's affidavit of mailing shall be conclusive evidence that all notices have been mailed as required by this act. Affidavits of publication, posting and mailing shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the legislative body. The date of the first publication of the resolution of intention, the date of the posting of copies of such resolution, and the date of mailing copies of such resolution (which dates need not be the same) shall be at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of hearing fixed in said resolution.

Any owner of land within the district subject to tax or assessment for payment of the principal and interest of the outstanding bonds may file his consent in writing to the refunding and reassessment upon the terms stated in said resolution. Such consent need not be in any particular form and no error or informality thereof shall in any manner vitiate the proceedings. Owners of land within the meaning of this section are those, and those only, who appear to be such upon the records in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the district is situated on the day that said consents are filed with the clerk of said legislative body. Executors, administrators, special administrators, and guardians may consent for any property of the estate represented by them. Any trustee of an express trust in land, other than as security for the payment of money, may consent for all or any part of the land held in such trust. A trustee in bankruptcy may consent for all or any part of the property of the bankrupt. Such executors, administrators, guardians and trustees are deemed owners of land within the meaning of this act. The written consent of the owners of a majority in area of the lands in the district subject to reassessment in the refunding proceedings shall be binding upon the owners of the minority in area of the lands in such district.

At any time not later than the hour set for hearing objections to the proposed refunding, any person interested and any owner of property which is subject to reassessment in the refunding proceeding may file his written objection against the proposed refunding with the clerk of the legislative body. Such objection must contain a description of the property in which each signer thereof is interested, sufficient to identify the same, and shall set forth the nature of each signer's interest therein, and shall be delivered to the clerk of said legislative body at or before the time set for hearing, and no other protests or objections shall be considered. At the time and place fixed for the hearing of objections, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, the legislative body shall hear and consider all objections so filed. The hearing may be continued from time to time, by order of the legislative body to be entered upon its minutes. Any objection or protest to such refunding not made at the time and in the manner hereinbefore provided shall be deemed to be waived voluntarily by any person who might have made such protest or objection, and such person shall be deemed to have consented to the proposed refunding. The legislative body may sustain or deny any or all objections and protests and its determination thereon shall be entered upon the minutes and shall be final and conclusive. Said legislative body shall also at said hearing, as originally fixed or as adjourned, by resolution entered upon the minutes, determine whether the written consent of the owners of a majority in area of the lands in the district subject to reassessment has been filed or not, and if it determines that such consent has been filed it shall thereupon acquire jurisdiction to proceed further under this act.

The validity, sufficiency, or genuineness of said consents, or any thereof, or the finding and determination of the legislative body thereon, shall not be contested in any action, suit or proceeding unless the same shall be commenced within three months after the determination of said legislative body has been made, and thereafter no person in any action, suit or proceeding may plead or prove that said consents or any thereof, or the finding or determination of the legislative body thereon, was in any way defective, invalid, or insufficient.

After the legislative body has determined that the written consent of the owners of such majority in area has been filed, it may by resolution entered upon the minutes order the refunding and reassessment.

Sec. 4. Section 6 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6. The total amount for which said reassessment shall be levied shall not exceed the total principal amount of such reassessment as stated in the resolution of intention; but may be for a smaller amount. Said reassessment shall be made upon all such lots, pieces or parcels of land within the assessment district as are subject to tax or assessment to pay the principal and interest of the outstanding bonds to be refunded. The total amount to be reassessed shall be apportioned upon said lots, pieces and parcels of land in the manner hereinafter set forth, to wit: To the total principal amount of the reassessment proposed to be levied shall be added the total sum of all of the amounts (including such interest and penalties as go into such fund) paid into the interest and sinking fund of such district on or prior to the date the resolution of intention in the refunding proceedings was adopted, upon taxes or assessments levied upon any lot, piece or parcel of land subject to reassessment in the refunding proceeding to raise funds to pay the principal and or interest of the bonds of said district which are to be refunded. The total amount of the two sums shall be apportioned as an assessment upon all such lots, pieces or parcels of land within the assessment district as are subject to tax or assessment to pay the principal and interest of the bonds to be refunded. The person making the reassessment shall proceed to estimate upon the lots, pieces or parcels of land within the assessment district and, subject to reassessment under the terms of this act, the benefits arising from the acquisition or improvement or acquisition and improvement, for which the bonds to be refunded were issued, shall be received by each such lot, piece or parcel of land, and shall thereupon accrue upon and against the said lands the total amount of the two sums mentioned in this section mentioned and it is hereby shall assess the said total amount upon the several lots, pieces or parcels of land in said assessment district subject to reassessment in the manner following, to wit:

First, each lot, piece or parcel of land, proportionately by participating in the numerous benefits received by such such lot, piece or parcel of land from the acquisition or improvement, or the acquisition and improvement, for which the bonds to be refunded were issued.

When said total amount has been ascertained upon each of the lots, pieces or parcels of land to be reassessed there shall be deducted from the amount so ascertained upon any lot, piece or parcel of land any sum constituting amount and principal of any bond paid into the interest and sinking fund of the district for the purpose for the debt of redemption of the assessment of interest on the foregoing participating water or gas or assessment based upon any such lot, piece or parcel of land to pay the principal and interest on bonds of said district. In case any such lot, piece or parcel of land was a portion of a larger parcel of land the whole of which was previously assessed the portion of such payment to be deducted from the amount assessed against such smaller lot, piece or parcel of land shall be that proportion of such payment which the amount assessed against such smaller lot, piece or parcel of land bears to the total amount assessed against all of the parcels which composed such larger parcel of land. After all of the amounts of taxes and assessments, including tax payable and interest paid into the interest and sinking fund, have been deducted from the amount assessed to each such lot, piece or parcel of land, the amount remaining assessed against each such lot, piece or parcel of land shall be deemed assessed amount and shall comprise the total reassessment to be levied and shall be levied against the sum stated in said resolution of intending to be refunded sum. If in any case the amount paid as and for any taxes or assessments upon any parcel of land should exceed the amount assessed as benefits against said parcel, no refund shall be made to any property owner.

Sec. 5. Section 9 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9. When said reassessment has been filed with the clerk, the legislative body shall direct said clerk to give notice of the filing of said reassessment, and of the time and place when and where all persons interested in said such reassessment shall be heard by said legislative body. Such notice shall be in substantially the following form:

(Fill in blanks.)

Notice of hearing on proposed reassessment for refunding of bonds of _____ District No. _____ of city or county of _____ Notice is hereby given that a reassessment for the refunding of the bonds of the above entitled district has been filed with the clerk of the _____ (naming the legislative body) of _____ (city or county) and that it is expected to be heard by said body interested. The acquisition or improvement, or acquisition and improvement, for which the bonds of the foregoing words and hereof to pay the costs and expenses in which said bonds were issued, was made pursuant to _____ (resolution or ordinance) of intention No. _____ (if numbered) 19____, and reference is hereby made to such _____ (resolution or ordinance) of intention for a description of the _____ (acquisition or improvement or acquisition and improvement).

The district of lands benefited by said acquisition or improvement, or acquisition and improvement (using the appropriate words), is described in general terms as follows: (Here insert a description in general terms of the district as shown upon the plat or diagram attached to the reassessment, excepting therefrom any lands not to be reassessed.)

Reference is hereby made to the diagram contained in said reassessment for the boundaries and extent of the said assessment district, and said diagram shall govern for all details as to the extent thereof. Said diagram shows each lot, piece or parcel of land reassessed and said reassessment shows the amount proposed to be reassessed upon each lot, piece or parcel of land.

Notice is further given that it is proposed to levy said reassessment for the refunding of the bonds of said district. The total amount of the proposed reassessment is the sum of $_____.

Notice is further given that on the _____ day of _____ 19____, at the hour of _____ o'clock, _____ m., at the chambers of the _____ (designating the legislative body) of the _____ (city or county) in the city of _____ is the time and place the said _____ (designating legislative body) will hold the hearing on said reassessment. Protests or objections to said reassessment or to any proceedings taken in the refunding of said bonds and the levying of a reassessment therefore or to any part of such proceedings or to any specific reassessment upon any ground whatsoever must be filed in writing with the clerk of _____ (designating legislative body) at or before the time of said hearing. Upon the recording of said reassessment, the respective amounts reassessed shall be immediately due and payable. The reassessment proceedings are under and serial bonds shall be issued in the manner and form provided in (here set out the title of this act and its date of approval or refer to the act by other appropriate reference) to represent each reassessment remaining unpaid after the expiration of thirty days from the date of recording said reassessment. Said bonds shall bear interest at the rate (or rates) of ----- per cent from the date of recording of such reassessment and shall be payable in ----- installments extending over a period of ----- years from the second day of January next succeeding the fifteenth day of next November following their date.

Clerk of the (designate legislative body) of (designate name of city or county).

SEC. 6. Section 11 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 11. Protests or objections to the said reassessment or to any of the reassessments upon the respective lots, pieces or parcels of land reassessed or to any action or determination in the making of said reassessment or in the proceedings for said reassessment and refunding, including objections to the amounts of the reassessments, or to the validity or legality of any of the proceedings for said reassessment and refunding must be made in writing and filed with the clerk of said legislative body at or before the time fixed for the hearing on said reassessment. Such protests or objections may be made by any person interested in the reassessment and refunding proceedings. It is the intent of this section that protests or objections upon any ground whatsoever not theretofore waived may be made as provided by this section. Such protests or objections need not be in any particular form, but if protest against or objection to the regularity or legality of the proceedings for the reassessment or refunding is made, such protest must clearly set forth the particular alleged irregularities or invalidities. Any objection or protest upon any ground whatsoever not made at the time and in the manner herein provided shall be deemed to be waived voluntarily by any person who might have made such a protest or objection, and the proceedings for the said reassessment and refunding may not thereafter be attacked upon any ground not stated in an objection or protest so filed, and any land owner or any person otherwise interested in any lands within the said district or in the reassessment and refunding proceedings shall be estopped to attack the said reassessment and refunding proceedings upon any ground not stated in a protest filed by him in accordance with the provisions of this section. At the time fixed for the hearing any person interested may appear and be heard upon any of the matters set forth in his protest or objection. Protests and objections may be taken up in such order as the legislative body deems advisable and any evidence offered thereon by any property owner or person otherwise interested in the proceedings for said reassessment and refunding shall be heard by said legislative body. Said legislative body may also hear any evidence offered in support of the said reassessment and refunding proceedings. If, at the hearing, it appears that the owners of more than one-half of the area of the lands assessed in the refunding proceeding have filed protest or objection to the refunding as proposed, in its entirety, the legislative body shall, by resolution to be entered upon its minutes, so find, and shall abandon such refunding, and no resolution of intention for the refunding of the indebtedness of said district under this act may be adopted within a period of six months from the date of such abandonment. In order that such protests or objections operate as a bar they must specifically state that the objection is to the refunding in its entirety. The determination of said legislative body upon any of the matters presented in any of said protests or objections and upon all matters involved in said reassessment and refunding proceedings and upon the reassessment shall be final and conclusive. Said hearing may be adjourned from time to time by an order entered upon the minutes of the legislative body; provided, that the hearing must be finally completed within sixty days from the date thereof stated in the published notice of hearing. At the said hearing said legislative body shall have power to revise, correct or modify the said reassessment in such manner as may be just and in accordance with the facts and so that the assessment may be apportioned according to benefits. Said reassessment may be confirmed as filed or as revised, corrected or modified. Confirmation of said reassessment shall be made by resolution of the legislative body entered upon its minutes and such resolution shall declare the findings of said legislative body. If no changes are made in any of the matters contained in said reassessment, it shall be sufficient in said resolution to declare that said reassessment is confirmed, but if any changes are made such changes shall be mentioned in said resolution of confirmation and said resolution shall declare that the said reassessment as revised, corrected or modified by the said changes is confirmed. Said legislative body shall also have power at said hearing to correct any of its previous actions, determinations, resolutions or orders and any of the proceedings for the reassessment and refunding. The findings and determinations of said legislative body upon all matters herein mentioned and upon all matters in connection with said reassessment and refunding proceedings shall be final and conclusive upon all persons and in all actions or proceedings as to all matters expressly found and determined and as to the regularity and sufficiency of the reassessment and refunding proceedings, and said resolution confirming the said reassessment shall be conclusive evidence that such reassessment and all proceedings prior thereto are valid and sufficient. No defect in the form of such reassessment and no omission, failure or neglect of, or delay in the execution of any officer, body or person in the reassessment and refunding proceedings and no error in the amounts to be reassessed upon any of the lots, pieces or parcels of land shall invalidate the said reassessment or any of the reassessments therein contained, and each of the reassessments in said reassessment shall become a lien upon the property upon which the same is levied, notwithstanding any money before or becoming therein or in any of the proceedings therefor and notwithstanding that the proceedings for the making of said reassessment are not in full conformity with the provisions of this statute, and any action or determination, necessary or convenient in the making of said reassessment or in the refunding and reassessment proceedings not expressly set forth in this statute is hereby authorized and the same when made shall be valid and sufficient.

Sec. 7. Section 12 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 12. If the refunding proceedings are conducted by the legislative body of a city, said reassessment as conducted shall be recorded with the superintendent of streets of said city. If the refunding proceedings are conducted by the legislative body of a county, said reassessment as conducted shall be recorded with the county surveyor of said county. The reassessment shall not be recorded until the payment of all outstanding bonds and coupons have constituted to exchange such bonds and coupons in the refunding proceedings, or if all holders of outstanding bonds and coupons do not so contract, the reassessment shall not be recorded until a separate provision has been made as required in this act for the settlement of payments of the bonds and coupons of nonconsenting holders. When so recorded the assessed amounts reassessed upon the lots, pieces or parcels of land in said reassessment shall be a lien thereon as of the date of such recordation. Said lien shall constitute said reassessment and all interest and penalties thereon and shall be a lien in like priority over all special assessment liens created against the same property subsequent to the date of such recordation. After foreclosure of said reassessment lien or sale of property for said lien shall convey the said property to the purchaser free and clear of all encumbrances except taxes and such special assessment liens as at the date of the creation of said lien, are by law required to run in connection with the said reassessment. From and after the date of the said recording of said reassessment all persons shall be deemed to have notice of the contents thereof. The amount assessed in said reassessment shall be payable to the said superintendent of streets or county surveyor with whom said reassessment is recorded, and said superintendent of streets or county surveyor is authorized to receive the amount due him, and to receive and give a good and sufficient discharge therefor, provided a bond has not been issued to represent such reassessment. The officer with whom said reassessment is recorded shall give notice by publication for ten days in a daily newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county in which the same reassessment is or by three successive insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed in such county that said reassessment has been recorded in his office and that all sums assessed therein became due and payable upon the recordation of said reassessment, stating the date of such recordation and that the payment of the said sums is to be made to him within thirty days after the date of such recordation. Said notice shall also contain a statement that for any reassessment not paid before the expiration of said thirty days, a bond will issue in the manner and form provided in this act and shall state the period over which said bond shall extend and the rate of interest which shall be payable thereon. Notice shall also be given by mailing a post card to the owner of such lot, piece or parcel of land reassessed according to the name and address appearing on the last equalized assessment roll for county taxes prior thereto or as known to the superintendent or surveyor, provided that a failure of the superintendent or surveyor to give such notice by mailing or of the person addressed to receive the same shall not affect the validity of the proceedings or the validity of the lien of any reassessment or of any bond issued thereon. Upon payment of any reassessment, the superintendent of streets or the county surveyor with which the said reassessment is recorded shall mark upon the said reassessment note of the said payment and shall cancel the said reassessment, and upon request, said superintendent of streets or county surveyor shall also give a receipt to the person paying the said reassessment. Any reassessment upon public property shall be paid by the officer or board having charge of the disbursement of the funds of the owner of such property, and said reassessment shall be an enforceable obligation against the owner of or the governing body controlling the said property. If for any reason there are no moneys available for the payment of said reassessment, then the board or officer whose duty it is to levy taxes for the said owner of said public property shall include in the next tax levy an amount, in addition to moneys for all other purposes, sufficient to pay said reassessment and the interest thereon from the date the reassessment is recorded at the rate to be stated in the refunding bonds, and when the moneys received from said tax levy are available, said reassessment and such interest thereon shall be paid by the officer or board having charge of the disbursement of the funds of the owner of such land. Any reassessment upon public property not in use in the performance of a public function may be foreclosed in the manner provided in section 27 of the "Improvement Act of 1911" as amended; provided, however, that the notice to be given upon the tax bill need not be given or made and that such action may be brought at any time after thirty days after the recording of such reassessment, and in any such foreclosure action the said reassessment and diagram with proof of nonpayment shall be prima facie evidence of the right of plaintiff to recover in the action. Said action shall be brought in the name of the city or county the legislative body of which levied said reassessment upon the request of any person entitled to any portion of the moneys to be derived from said reassessment. The person requesting that said foreclosure action be brought must advance the plaintiff's costs and expenses thereof and said action may be brought by any competent attorney appointed by the legislative body which levied said reassessment. In any case in which the reassessment is levied by the legislative body of a county, the same shall be foreclosed as hereinbefore provided, except that the various officers designated in said section 27 shall be the corresponding county officers as designated in the County Improvement Act of 1921 as amended. No refunding bond shall issue against public property, and the list of unpaid reassessments to be filed with the treasurer shall not include any unpaid reassessment upon public property.

SEC. 8. Section 13 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 13. No action, suit or proceeding to set aside, cancel, avoid, annul or correct any reassessment hereunder or to review any of the proceedings, acts or determinations made in the proceedings for said reassessment and refunding or to question the validity of or enjoin the collection of said reassessment or any reassessment therein or to enjoin the issuance of any bond or bonds to represent the same shall be maintained by any person unless such action or actions shall have been commenced within ninety days after the date of confirmation of said reassessment, and thereafter all persons shall be barred from any such action, suit or proceeding or any defense of the invalidity of said reassessment or any of the reassessments therein contained or any bonds issued thereon.

In any action, suit, or proceeding brought after said ninety days has expired, to enforce any reassessment or bond issued to represent said reassessment no person may urge, plead or prove the invalidity of any reassessment or bond issued to represent said reassessment and in any action to foreclose a bond issued hereunder, said bond shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity and validity of the reassessment proceedings and reassessment, and the bond."

Amendment No. 3.

On page 2, line 10, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the figure "2", and insert in lieu thereof the figure "9".

Amendment No. 4.

On page 2, line 12, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of the language following "15.", and strike out all of lines 13 to 49, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"If the holders of all of the outstanding bonds agree to refund their bonds as proposed in the refunding proceeding, then all refunding bonds, all moneys collected on the reassessments levied in the refunding proceeding, and all public contributions (if any) shall be paid and delivered to the holders of the outstanding bonds, in such amounts and proportions as may be fixed by contract with such bondholders. Any contract with the holder of any bond may provide such terms and conditions of exchange as may be agreed upon by the holder and the legislative body, and may contain such terms and conditions relating to time of performance, conditions precedent thereto, and the method and mode of performance, as may be agreed upon by said parties. Whenever the refunding bonds and moneys, if any, are delivered to said bondholders, said bondholders must concurrently deliver to the legislative body or its representative the outstanding unpaid bonds which are refunded and all outstanding unpaid interest coupons, constituting the entire indebtedness of said district, and the same shall forthwith be canceled.

In the event that the holders of one or more of the outstanding bonds do not enter any contract with the legislative body to refund the same, nevertheless if the holders of seventy-five per cent or more of the outstanding bonds do contract with the legislative body which conducts the refunding proceedings for the refunding of the bonds owned or held by them, said legislative body shall have authority to refund all of the bonds of said district under the provisions of this act, but in such event, prior to recording the reassessment levied under this act, sufficient moneys to adequately provide for the retirement or payment of the bonds of the nonconsenting holders must be provided and set aside in the proper fund for that purpose. Any city or county or city and county which is authorized under this act to appropriate moneys to aid in refunding the bonds of the district, may make an advancement or contribution or an additional contribution in order to provide moneys to pay or retire bonds of such nonconsenting holders. Whenever any city or county or city and county or any person or corporation advances moneys to provide for the payment or retirement of the bonds of non-assessing holders, the legislative body may deliver at par all or any portion of the refunding bonds which are due to be delivered to consenting bondholders to the person, corporation, city, county or city and county making such advance or advances, or sell at par all or any part of such refunding bonds not to be delivered to consenting bondholders, and from the proceeds received reimburse such person, corporation, city, county or city and county, entirely or partially, and may contract to make such sale or delivery. If the legislative body makes all or any part of such advancement in any manner, the city, county or city and county of which it is the legislative body, actually or partially by selling all or any part of such refunding bonds at par. And such contract or advancement and not required to pay consenting bondholders with cash or with any security in whole or in part any person, corporation, city, county or city and county making such advance or advances, and the legislative body may contract to do so, by any cash. Any other method of selling bonds for the payment or retirement of the bonds of non-assessing bondholders which was prior to the date the advancement is recorded under this act is hereby given the same priority for such payment or retirement as bonds purchased. Whenever any money was placed in any fund for the retirement or payment of the bonds of non-assessing holders, the said money shall be used only for that purpose and after all of the bonds of said non-assessing holders have been paid or retired any sum remaining in said fund shall be returned to the city or county or city and county which advanced the same.

If the contract with the bondholders as provided said legislative body may sell all of the refunding bonds for cash and pay said bondholders in cash at a price to be fixed in said contract.

In the event that the discharge of the bonds of non-assessing holders at less than the par value thereof has been authorized by any final decree or order confirming a plan of readjustment under any bankruptcy law of the United States of America in any proceedings initiated under the authority of this act, said legislative body is authorized to do and perform all acts and things necessary for the discharge of such bonds in accordance with said decree or order.

Wherever the word "bond" or "bonds" is used hereinafter in this section or referring to the outstanding bonds the word shall be deemed to include and shall be construed to mean also any certificate or other financial receipt or receipt of any bond or bonds of the district, and the word "bondholder" or "bondholders" as used hereinbefore in this section shall be deemed to include and shall be construed to mean also any holder or holders of outstanding receipt or receipts of bonds of the district.

After the date of the adoption of the resolution of intention in the refunding proceeding all sums paid for any parcel of land into the district and county fund for the payment of principal and interest of the bonds to be refunded shall be credited upon the reassessment levied in the refunding proceeding upon such parcel and shall be applied as moneys paid upon such reassessment.

Upon the resolution of the reassessment in the refunding proceeding of special taxes or special assessment taxes levied to pay principal and interest of the bonds refunded and all penalties and interest thereon shall be deemed assessed and annulled, and the clerk of the legislative body which conducted such refunding proceedings shall notify the proper city officials or the proper county officials as the case may be, that the bonds of said district have been refunded and that said taxes or said special assessment taxes, penalties and interest are assessed and annulled and such officials shall thereupon proceed to make the necessary entries showing the cancellation thereof."

Amendment No. 5.

On page 2 of the printed bill, as amended following line 49 insert the following:

"Sec. 10 Section 30 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 30. At any time within ninety days after the confirmation of the reassessment, any person interested in any of the bonds to be refunded or in any of the lands reassessed may bring an action in the superior court of the county the legislative body of which conducted the refunding proceedings, or the county in which the city, the legislative body of which conducted the refunding proceedings has, to determine the validity or invalidity of such reassessment. Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons for at least once a week for four weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the action is pending such notice to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings. Said summons shall contain a general description of the boundaries of the district of the bonds upon which said reassessment is or is to be levied. Jurisdiction shall be complete within ten days after the full publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Anyone interested may at any time before the expiration of said ten days appear and by proper proceedings contest the validity of such reassessment or uphold the same. Such action shall be specially tried and judgment rendered declaring such matter so contested either valid or invalid. Either party shall have the right to appeal to the Supreme Court at any time within thirty days after the rendition of such judgment, which appeal must be heard and determined within three months from the time of taking such appeal. The motion for a new trial of any such proceeding must be heard and determined within ten days from the filing of the notice of intention.

The court hearing the said proceeding, in inquiring into the regularity, legality or correctness of such reassessment, must disregard any error, irregularity or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to said action or proceeding. The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act are applicable to the proceeding herein provided for. The costs of the legal proceedings provided for in this section may be allowed and apportioned between the parties or taxed to the losing party in the discretion of the court. After said reassessment has been confirmed, it shall not be contested in any way other than at the time and in the manner specified in this section, and in any such action all findings, conclusions and determinations of the legislative body which conducted the reassessment proceedings shall be conclusive in the absence of actual fraud.

If any reassessment or any refunding bond is held illegal or invalid in any action, suit or proceeding upon any ground which would apply to the entire reassessment or the entire issue of refunding bonds, then the unpaid bonds refunded, remain in full force and effect, and if said unpaid bonds have been canceled, the treasurer of the city or county which conducted the invalid refunding or reassessment proceeding shall issue new bonds of the same tenor, force and effect as such canceled unpaid bonds, and all of the provisions of the act under which the original bonds were issued (notwithstanding that said act may have been repealed in whole or in part subsequent to the issuance of such bonds) relative to the payment of the bonds issued thereunder and the levy, collection and enforcement of taxes or special assessment taxes therefor shall apply to such unpaid bonds, and to any bonds issued to replace such unpaid bonds. Until all unpaid bonds which might be refunded hereunder have been fully paid or funds set aside for their payment in full or have been legally refunded, it shall be and remain the duty of the legislative body empowered and directed to levy taxes or the special assessment taxes for the payment of such bonds to proceed under the provisions of the act under which said bonds were issued to levy the said taxes or special assessment taxes provided in said act in accordance with the provisions of said act. The validity of any refunding bonds issued under this act shall not be contested in any action, suit or proceeding unless such action, suit or proceeding shall have been brought within three months after the issuance of such bonds.

SEC. 11. Section 31 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 31. Wherever all or any part of the lands in any district, the bonds of which are proposed to be refunded, lie in another district which has outstanding bonds payable by taxes or assessments levied wholly or partly in accordance with the assessed value of the lands therein, one reassessment may be levied and one issue of refunding bonds issued under the provisions of this act to refund the indebtedness of all of said districts. It is the intent of this section to permit but not to require the refunding in one proceeding of the indebtedness of all districts which wholly or partially overlap. Such refunding shall be had and the reassessment shall be levied under the provisions of this act as in this section modified. Said districts need not be formed under the same act, but if formed under any act under which taxes or assessments are levied wholly or partly in accordance with the assessed value of the lands, may refund their indebtedness in one reassessment proceeding hereunder. The total amount of the reassessment shall be fixed by the legislative body. If the owners of a majority in area of the lands included within the exterior boundaries of the area which comprises the said several districts the bonds of which are to be refunded shall in writing agree to such refunding as provided in this act, then the legislative body shall be authorized to proceed with such refunding and to make a reassessment therefor as in this act provided. The reassessment shall be spread over all lands subject to tax or assessment for the bonds refunded in the area comprising all of the districts. To the total sum of the reassessment shall be added the total sum of all taxes upon land and all assessments including interest and penalties paid into the interest and sinking fund of any of the districts for the payment of principal and/or interest of any bonds of the same issue as the bonds to be refunded. The total amount thus ascertained shall be assessed against all of the lands in the area comprised by the districts in accordance with the benefits derived from the acquisitions or improvements or acquisitions and improvements to pay for which the said bonds to be refunded were issued. From the assessment thus made upon each lot, piece or parcel of land shall be deducted the amounts of such taxes upon land and all assessments including interest and penalties, if any, levied upon such lot, piece or parcel of land to pay principal and/or interest of any bonds of the same issue as the bonds refunded as have been paid into the interest and sinking fund of any of said districts. The amounts remaining after such deductions have been made shall be and constitute the reassessments and the total amount of such reassessments shall be the total sum of the reassessment stated in the landowner's assent, or a smaller sum.

SEC. 12. Section 32 of the act designated in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 32. Special improvement district bonded indebtedness which is payable from taxes levied upon all property or upon all taxable property in the improvement district may be refunded under this act. The proceeding for refunding such indebtedness shall be the same as for refunding other indebtedness under this act and in making the reassessment hereunder, to the total sum of the proposed reassessment shall be added the total sum of all of the amounts (including such penalties and interest as go into such fund) paid into the interest and sinking fund of the district on or prior to the date the resolution of intention in the refunding proceedings is adopted upon taxes levied upon any lot, piece or parcel of land subject to reassessment in the refunding proceeding to raise funds to pay principal or interest of the bonds to be refunded, and the total of the two sums shall be apportioned upon the lands subject to reassessment according to benefits as heretofore provided in this act and from the amounts so apportioned to any lot, piece or parcel of land shall be deducted any sums paid into the interest and sinking fund of the district on or prior to the date said resolution of intention is adopted upon any tax levied upon such lot, piece or parcel of land to pay principal or interest of the bonds to be refunded."

Amendment No. 6.

On page 2, line 50 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the figure "3", and insert in lieu thereof the figures "13".

Amendment No. 7.

On page 3, line 1, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of the language following "33", and strike out all of lines 2 to 17, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"The word 'improvement' where used in the phrase 'special improvement district' in this act shall mean any public improvement of any nature whatsoever, including any acquisition of lands, rights of way or easements for public use and acquisition or construction of buildings, structures or public works of any kind or nature, or a combination of any or all of the foregoing, and the word shall be given the broadest and most liberal construction as including all acquisitions of land and all acquisition and construction of public works authorized under any law of the State of California, including particularly the Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925, the Road District Improvement Act of 1907 and the Municipal Improvement District Acts of 1915 and 1927.

This act shall be known as and whenever mentioned, cited, referred to or amended may be designated as the "Assessment Bond Refunding Act of 1935" and be such designation shall be sufficiently identified in any proceeding hereunder or in any court action or proceeding, and whenever under the procedure set forth in this act the title of the act is to be stated in any resolution, notice or order, it shall be sufficient to designate the act as provided in this paragraph.

The legislative body which conducts the refunding proceedings is authorized to pay any incidental expenses of such proceedings from any available funds of the city or county, or city and county, but no such incidental expenses of such proceedings shall be assessed upon lands in the district.

This act shall in no wise affect any other act or acts now existing or which may hereafter be passed covering the same subject matter, or apply to any proceedings thereunder, but is intended to and does provide an alternative system for the refunding of bonds, and, when in the discretion of any legislative body proceedings are commenced under this act the provisions of this act only shall apply thereto.

Whenever the requisite number of property owners in any district or districts have filed their written consent to the refunding of the indebtedness of such district, any city or county, or city and county, is authorized to file a petition and take all proceedings required under any bankruptcy law or laws of the United States of America now or hereafter enacted, for any district, the bonds of which are authorized to be refunded under this act, or to bring any action, suit or proceeding authorized under the equity powers of any court for the purpose of refunding the bonds of such district.

No bond, coupon, reassessment or installment thereof or of the interest or penalties thereon, and no certificate of sale or deed shall be held invalid for error in the computation of the proper amount due on same, provided the error be found to be comparatively negligible or be found to be in favor of the owner of real property affected thereby.

The bonded indebtedness of special assessment districts payable from ad valorem assessments is so great in many instances that the refinancing of such indebtedness is one of the most important problems of this State. In many of such districts both general taxes and special assessments are delinquent and have been delinquent for several years. The property can not be sold for a sufficient sum to pay the delinquent taxes in view of the large amounts of delinquent special assessments thereon, which are on a parity with the general taxes.

The accumulation of delinquent assessments, penalties and interest, and delinquent taxes, penalties and interest, has discouraged the owners of property in such districts and such property has become almost entirely unproductive of revenue for school, city and county purposes. The immediate refinancing of the obligations of these districts and the restoration of the property to the tax rolls so that it may bear its just burden of city, county and school taxes and so that property owners may be given relief is declared to be the policy of this State.

This act and all of its provisions shall be liberally construed to the end that the purposes hereof may be made effective. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases thereof be declared unconstitutional."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and on file for third reading.

Assembly Bill No. 662—An act to provide for the refunding of bonds issued under the "Improvement Bond Act of 1915" and for the levy of reassessments and the extension of liens of assessments and the collection and enforcement of such assessments and reassessments and the payment of said bonds.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Municipal Corporations, the following amendments to Assembly Bill No. 662 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 2, line 17, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of the language following the period, and strike out all of lines 18 to 27, both inclusive; and on page 2, line 39, strike out the comma.

Amendment No. 2.

On page 2, line 46, of the printed bill, as amended, following the words "amount of", strike out the word "the", and insert in lieu thereof the word "each".

Amendment No. 3.

On page 2, line 47, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the language down to and including the period, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "upon which such reassessment is proposed to be levied. The amount of the reassessment upon any lot, piece or parcel of land shall be computed in the following manner: Subtract from the total amount of unpaid assessments including interest and penalties thereon, if any, on all lands to be reassessed, the amount of the total proposed reassessment, and prorate the amount of the remainder so ascertained by subtraction, among the respective parcels to be reassessed in accordance with the amounts assessed against each of said parcels in the original assessment. The amount so prorated upon any lot, piece or parcel of land shall be subtracted from the total amount of the unpaid assessment, with interest and penalties thereon, if any, on the said parcel and the remainder shall constitute the proposed reassessment on such parcel."

Amendment No. 4.

On page 3, line 5, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the words "liable for the payment of the refunding bonds", and insert in lieu thereof the words "upon which reassessments are proposed to be levied."

Amendment No. 5.

On page 3, line 8, of the printed bill, as amended, following the period, insert the following: "Said resolution shall state the total amount of the outstanding bonds, the amount of the due and unpaid interest coupons, the total amount of unpaid assessments including therein interest and penalties on unpaid installments, if any, the amount of the proposed public contribution, if any, the total amount of the proposed reassessment, the time the refunding bonds shall run, the rate or rates of interest thereon, and shall refer all parties interested to the report on file with the city clerk for the amount of the reassessment proposed to be levied on each lot, piece or parcel of land and for further details."

Amendment No. 6.

On page 3, line 27, of the printed bill, as amended, following the period, insert the following: "Such notice must describe the property upon which the owner elects to continue to pay sufficiently to identify the same. In the event any property owner or owners so elect to continue to pay assessments, the proposed reassessment upon any lot, piece or parcel of land as set forth in the statement on file shall be marked 'Not to be levied' and no reassessment shall be levied on such parcel in the refunding proceeding. The assessments upon property upon which such written notice has been given shall be paid and collected with interest and penalties thereon as provided by the proceedings and statute under which the bonds to be refunded were issued, and outstanding bonds payable serially as the assessments are payable, and in principal amount equal to the principal of the assessments included in said written notices shall not be cancelled in the refunding proceeding but, with interest, shall be payable as provided in the original proceedings. If in order that the principal amount of bonds payable annually and interest thereon shall equal the principal amount of such assessments payable periodically and interest thereon, it is necessary to reduce the amount of any bond or interest coupon to appropriate notation showing the amount of such reduction shall be written, printed or stamped upon the face of each bond or coupon printed in duplicate, and the remaining amount of such bond or coupon shall be payable, mature and enforceable in accordance with the provisions of said Improvement Bond Act of 1915."

Amendment No. 7.

On page 3, line 30, of the printed bill, as amended, following the period, insert the following: "Any owner of land subject to reassessment may have recourse to writing to the refunding and reassessment upon individually the terms set forth in said resolution. Such consent need not be in any particular form and no error or informality thereof shall in any manner vitiate the proceedings. Questions of fact within the meaning of this section are those and those only which appear to be such upon the records in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the district is situated on the day that said consent was filed with the clerk of said legislative body. Executions, administrative, judicial, administrative and guidelines may consent for any property of the estate represented by them. Any transfer of an express trust of land other than an mortgage for the payment of money may consent for all or any part of the land both in such trust. A trustee in bankruptcy may consent for all or any part of the property of the bankrupt. Such executors, administrators, guidelines and trustees are deemed consent of land within the meaning of this act. The written consent of any owner of a majority in area of the lands subject to reassessment must be filed with the clerk of the legislative body before said legislative body shall have jurisdiction to modify said reassessment under this act. At the hearing hereof provided and legislative body shall determine whether the written consent of the owner of a majority in area of the lands subject to reassessment has been filed or not and if it determines that such consent has been filed it shall have jurisdiction to modify the reassessment."

The validity, enforceability or consummation of any contract or any threat as to the finding and determination of the legislative body thereon, shall not be subject to any action, suit or proceeding unless the same shall be commenced within three months after the determination of said legislative body has been made and thereafter no person in any action, suit or proceeding may plead or assert that such consents, or any thereof, or the finding and determination of the legislative body thereon, was in any way defective, invalid or inoperative."

Amendment No. 8.

On page 3, line 43, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out all of the language beginning with the parenthesis and in line 44, strike out all of the language down to and including the close of the parenthesis.

Amendment No. 9.

On page 3, line 46, of the printed bill, as amended, following the word "confirmed", insert the words "by resolution entered upon the minutes", and in the same line, following the period, insert the following: "The resolution of confirmation shall designate by reassessment number or other appropriate designation or description the lots, pieces or parcels of land in the statement on file with the city clerk upon which the reassessments are confirmed and levied."

Amendment No. 10.

On page 4, line 12, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the word "assessment", and insert in lieu thereof the word "assessments"; in the same line following the word "levied", insert the word "thereon"; in the same line, following the word "and", strike out the words "the assessment", and insert in lieu thereof the words "such assessments".

Amendment No. 11.

On page 4, line 14, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the word "assessment", and insert in lieu thereof the word "reassessments"; on the same page, line 18, strike out the word "reassessment", and insert in lieu thereof the word "reassessments"; on the same page, line 20, strike out the word "reassessment", and insert in lieu thereof the word "reassessments".

Amendment No. 12.

On page 4, lines 29 to 36, inclusive, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the sentence which begins in line 29, with the words "Such reassessments".

Amendment No. 13.

On page 4 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the language in line 37 following the figure "7."; strike out all of lines 38 and 39, and in line 40, strike out the words "day period, bonds", and insert in lieu thereof the word "Bonds"; in the same line, strike out the word "unpaid"; and on page 4, line 41, strike out the word "unpaid".

Amendment No. 14.

On page 5, line 8, of the printed bill, as amended, following the period, insert the following: "Said refunding bonds and the interest thereon shall be paid at the office of the city treasurer. Said treasurer shall keep a redemption fund designated by the name of said bonds, into which he shall place all sums received by him from the collection of the reassessments made for such refunding and upon the security of which the said refunding bonds are issued and all interest and penalties thereon. From such fund he shall disburse and pay the said refunding bonds and the interest due thereon upon presentation of the proper bonds and coupons, and under no circumstances shall said bonds or the interest thereon be paid out of any other fund. Said treasurer shall keep a register in his office which shall show the series, number, date, amount, rate of interest and last known holder of each bond and the number and amount of each interest coupon paid by him and shall cancel and file each bond and coupon so paid."

Amendment No. 15.

On page 6, line 44, of the printed bill, as amended, following the word "bonds", insert the following: ", except as to any sum payable from assessments which property owners have by written notice elected to pay,".

Amendment No. 16.

On page 7 of the printed bill, as amended, following line 11, insert the following:

"In the event that the holders of one or more of the outstanding bonds do not enter any contract to refund the same, nevertheless, if the holders of seventy-five per cent or more of the outstanding bonds do contract for the refunding of the bonds owned or held by them the city shall have authority to refund all of the outstanding bonds of said issue under the provisions of this act, but in such event prior to recording the reassessment levied under this act sufficient moneys to adequately provide for the retirement or payment of the bonds of the nonconsenting holders must be provided and set aside in the proper fund for that purpose. The city which is conducting the refunding proceedings may make an advancement or contribution or an additional contribution in order to provide moneys to pay or retire the bonds of such nonconsenting holders. In the event the city makes all or any part of such advancement it may reimburse itself entirely or partially by taking all or any part of such refunding bonds at par. If any person or corporation advances money to provide for the payment or retirement of the bonds of nonconsenting holders the legislative body may deliver at par all or any portion of the refunding bonds which are not to be delivered to consenting bondholders to the person or corporation making such advance or advances or may sell at par all or any part of such refunding bonds not to be delivered to consenting bondholders and from the proceeds thereof reimburse such person or corporation and may contract to make such sale or delivery. Any other methods of raising funds for the payment or retirement of the bonds of nonconsenting holders which will prior to the time the assessment is recorded under this act adequately provide the moneys necessary for such payment or retirement is hereby authorized. Whenever any moneys are placed in any fund for the retirement or payment of the bonds of nonconsenting holders the said money shall be used only for that purpose and after all of the bonds of said nonconsenting holders have been paid or retired any sum remaining in said fund shall be returned to the city, person or corporation which advances the same.

In the event that the discharge of the bonds of any nonconsenting holders at less than the par value thereof has been authorized by any final decree or order confirming a plan of readjustment under any bankruptcy laws of the United States of America in any proceedings initiated under the authority of this act or otherwise said legislative body is authorized to do and perform all acts and things necessary for the discharge of such bonds in accordance with said decree or order. The reassessment shall not be recorded until adequate provision has been made in accordance with the terms of this section for the payment or retirement of bonds of nonconsenting holders."

Amendment No. 17.

On page 7 of the printed bill, as amended, following line 47, insert the following:

"Sec. 11. (a) In the event of such refunding bonds being so issued, then the reassessments and any reassessments which may be issued thereon or in lieu thereof, together with interest thereon, shall remain and constitute a trust fund for the redemption and payment of said refunding bonds and for the interest which may be due thereon. Such reassessments and each installment thereof and the interest and penalties thereon shall be and shall continue to constitute a lien against the lots and parcels of land on which made, until the same be paid, but for a period not exceeding the time within which an action might be brought on the last series of refunding bonds issued upon the security of such unpaid reassessments; provided, however, that unmaturing installments, interest and penalties shall not be deemed to be within the terms of any general warranty of title. Any foreclosure of said reassessment lien or sale of property for said lien shall convey the said property to the purchaser free and clear of all encumbrances except such taxes and special assessment liens as are by law equal or superior to said reassessment lien. Such lien shall be superior to and have priority over all special assessment liens created against the same property subsequent to the date of recordation of the reassessment.

(b) In the event of nonpayment of any reassessment or installment thereof or of any interest thereon, together with any penalties and other charges accruing under the laws or ordinances of the city and not later than four years after the due date of the last installment of principal, as a cumulative remedy, the same when due and delinquent may by order of the legislative body be collected by suit brought in the superior court to foreclose the lien thereof. The costs shall be fixed and allowed by the court and shall include reasonable attorney's fees, interest, penalties and other charges and advances as herein provided, and when so fixed and allowed by the court shall be included in the judgment. The court shall have the power to adjudge and decree a lien against the lot or parcel of land covered by the reassessment for the amount of the judgment and to order and prescribe to be sold on execution as in other cases of the sale of real estate for the payment of said amount, with the same rights of redemption. On appeal, the appellate courts shall have the same power to adjudge and decree a lien and order such proceeds to be sold on execution as is herein provided for the superior court. The foreclosure suit shall be governed and regulated by the provisions hereof, and also where not in conflict herewith by the codes of this State. The city shall have the right to advance and pay county or other taxes whenever necessary to protect its interest in property against which there is a delinquent reassessment. It may also, at its discretion temporarily transfer moneys into the redemption fund from other funds in which such moneys are not immediately needed, the moneys so transferred to be used to pay some due from such redemption fund and to be retransferred therefrom out of the first available receipts. Upon the ordering of any such foreclosure under the tax collector's sale shall be credited upon the assessment roll then in his hands with the amount charged against him on account of such reassessments ordered to suit and be relieved of further duty in regard thereto.

(c) Such action shall be brought in the name of the city and may be brought at any time prior to the expiration of four years subsequent to the date of delinquency of the last installment of reassessment due or to become due thereunder. The complaint may be brief and include substantially only the following allegations with reference to the reassessments sought to be collected: That on a date stated the legislative body passed its resolution or ordinance authorizing to refund certain bonds which had been issued for certain improvement work (the improvement work need not be described); that a reassessment for the purpose of refunding said bonds was duly given and made; that said reassessment was recorded in a stated date; that certain property describing it was thereon reassessed a stated amount; that bonds upon the security of such reassessment were duly issued, giving the date of said bonds, the interest rate and the number of years the last installment of same were to run, and that the same were duly issued under this act, but it shall be unnecessary to state the amount, number, denomination or other term thereof; that on a date stated a certain sum came due on said property on said reassessment and had not been paid and that the legislative body had directed the action to foreclose. The amount of penalties, costs and interest due shall be calculated as hereinafter set forth in sections 13 and 15 hereof up to the date of judgment. In such action plaintiff upon recovering judgment shall be entitled to reasonable counsel fees to be allowed by the court and taxed as costs.

SEC. 12. Interest on all unpaid reassessments shall begin to run from the date of recordation of the reassessment and shall be computed at the same rate or rates as is specified in the bonds secured by such reassessments. Such interest shall be payable annually or semiannually according as the city taxes on real property with which the reassessments are collected are payable annually or semiannually. For each year the interest shall be computed and collected up to the next second day of July succeeding, no deduction being made by reason of any installment of such reassessment being due or paid prior thereto in such year.

Whenever it shall appear to the legislative body that according to the dates when taxes are collected in the city there will be an insufficient amount on hand to pay the interest then due, according to the method of collection provided in this act, then said legislative body may direct that such interest or some portion of the same be collected in the year preceding that in which the same would otherwise be collected under this act, and thereupon such interest or portion thereof shall be extended on the rolls for such preceding year and be due and collected therein.

SEC. 13. A copy of the resolution of the legislative body confirming the reassessments upon the security of which the refunding bonds are issued, shall be filed in the office of the auditor of the city. The auditor shall keep a record in his office showing the several installments of principal and interest on said reassessments which are to be collected in each year during the term of said bonds. The auditor shall annually enter in his assessment roll on which taxes will next become due, opposite each lot or parcel of land affected in a space marked "public improvement assessment," or by other suitable designation, the several installments of such reassessment coming due during the fiscal year covered by such assessment roll, including in each case the interest due on such total unpaid reassessments as herein provided, and also including a percentage of one-fourth of one per cent of the amount of such installments and of such interest so entered. Such percentages when collected shall belong to the city and shall cover the expenses and compensation of the city treasurer incurred in the collection of such reassessments, and of the interest and penalties thereon. No other percentage shall be claimed for any such collections. In the event that such collections are made by the county officials the county auditor shall at the close of the tax collecting season promptly render to the city auditor a detailed report showing the amounts of such installments, interest, penalties and percentages so collected on each proceeding and from what property collected, and also giving a statement of the percentages retained for the expenses of making such collections. Taxpayers shall have the like right to pay such reassessment as so entered with interest, and any penalties thereon, under protest as they have to pay general municipal taxes under protest, but in making such payment under protest must accompany the payment with their written protest. In the event of the lot or parcel of land affected by any reassessment not being separately assessed on said roll so that the installment to be collected can be conveniently entered thereon, then said auditor shall enter on said roll a description of the lot or parcel affected, with the name of the owners if known, but otherwise described as "unknown owners," and extend the proper installment opposite same.

Sec. 14. Any interested owner may release and pay any such unpaid reassessment by depositing with the treasurer of the city the total unpaid balance of any such reassessment together with the total interest which would become due on such reassessment were it paid in the regular way; provided, that if and when such funds are used for the purchase or call of a bond the person paying such assessment shall be entitled to credit and reimbursement of his proportion of the interest saved by such purchase or call, less his proportion of any costs incurred for publishing or serving any notice of purchase or call for redemption.

Sec. 15. If the refunding bonds are payable in annual series such reassessments shall be payable in annual series corresponding in number to the number of series of bonds issued and an even annual proportion of each reassessment shall be payable in each year preceding the date of maturity of each of the several series of bonds so issued. If the refunding bonds all mature in one year, the unpaid reassessment shall be payable annually and an even annual proportion of each reassessment shall be payable each year preceding the July interest payment. Such annual proportion of each reassessment coming due in any year, together with the annual interest on such reassessment, shall in turn be payable in annual or semiannual installments according as the general taxes of such city on real property are payable in annual or semiannual installments, and such installments and said annual interest shall be payable and become delinquent at the same times and in the same proportionate amounts and bear the same proportionate penalties and interest after delinquency as do the general taxes on real property of said city. Upon default in payment, the lands securing such installments and reassessments shall be sold in the same manner in which real property in such city is sold, for the nonpayment of general taxes, and be subject to redemption within one year from date of sale in the same manner as such real property is redeemed from such delinquent sale, and upon failure of such redemption shall in like manner pass to the purchaser. The city must be the purchaser at any delinquent sale in like manner in which it becomes or may become the purchaser of property sold for nonpayment of the general property tax, and shall pay and transfer into said redemption fund the amount of the delinquent reassessment and of the delinquent interest thereon upon which said sale is made. In cases where the municipal property tax is collected by county officials and sales for nonpayment of such taxes are made to the State, the State shall be the purchaser at any such sale hereunder, but shall hold the title acquired at such sale upon behalf of the city and shall account to the city for any moneys received upon redemption or from the sale of such property, the city, for the purposes of this act, being deemed the real purchaser. In the event of there being no available funds in the treasury with which to make such payment, the tax collector shall delay the entry of the certificate of sale until such funds are available, making demand in the meantime upon the legislative body that a suitable amount be included in the next tax levy for the purpose of providing funds with which to make such payment; provided, however, that the period of redemption from such tax sale shall not be extended thereby nor the rights or privileges of the property owner be thereby in anywise affected. In the event of such purchase being made by the city and of any succeeding installment of such reassessment or of such interest not being paid in any future year, the property shall not be sold unless there has previously been a redemption from such sale or unless under the law it is then being sold for delinquent taxes. The city shall nevertheless, unless a resale has been made by it, from time to time, when due pay and transfer into said redemption fund the amount of any such future delinquent reassessment and interest pending redemption, and no redemption shall be made until any such subsequent payments, with interest and penalties, shall also be paid. The purchaser, whether at tax collector's sale or at resale by the city in the event of the city having become the purchaser, or at foreclosure sale by order of court, shall take the property subject to all unpaid installments, interest and penalties under the same recording.

Sec. 16. The legislative body may, and in the event it deigned by the tax collector therefore as provided in section 15, based upon, at the time of fixing the annual tax rate and levying the taxes to be collected for general municipal purposes, levy a special tax upon the taxable property in the city for the purpose of making for the lands purchased or to be purchased in such tax sales for the purpose of paying installments of the assessments or of interest upon the city is indebted to any under the provisions of section 15 based, but not to exceed the same district, the bonds of which are referred to, or to such one hundred dollars of residential property. Such special tax shall be in addition to any other taxes levied for municipal purposes and shall be assessed, interest and penalties in the same manner and by the same persons and at the same time and with the same penalties and interest as are other taxes of the city.

As to all lands of which any city is deemed the real purchaser under the provisions of this section, such city and all of the interests therein shall have all of the rights, powers, duties and obligations granted, imposed or incurred by this act.

Sec. 17. In the event of sale by the tax collector of any lot or parcel of land for nonpayment of taxes and of any installment of the assessments thereon, or of the penalties, interest or costs or of any sale or lot purchased by any installment, penalties, interest or costs, then any certificate of such sale or lot shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings thereon and such shall be conclusive evidence of all things of which there would upon the records thereof be conclusive evidence, and shall have the effect of the regularity of all proceedings subsequent to the issuance of the deed and such deed, when given to the grantee the absolute title to the lands described therein, free of all encumbrances except unpaid installments, interest and penalties under the same provisions and except taxes and public improvement assessments which by law are imposed or paid to the reassessment on which sale is made.

Amendment No. 18.

On page 7, line 48, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the figures "11" and insert in lieu thereof the figures "18".

Amendment No. 21.

On page 9, line 27, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the figure "27" and insert in lieu thereof the figure "9", and on the same page, following line 26, insert the following:

"No defect in the form of any reassessment levied hereunder and no statutory defect in any of the proceedings relating to the reassessment and refunding shall in any way invalidate any reassessment or any proceeding hereon and any and every action or determination made necessary by reason of constitutional requirements or otherwise, or any action or determination which is necessary in the making of the reassessment, or in the refunding and reassessment proceedings, which is not expressly set forth in this statute is hereby authorized and the same when made shall be valid and sufficient.

The incidental expenses of any refunding and reassessment herein authorized shall be paid by the city in which the district lies.

No bond, coupon, assessment or installment thereof or of the interest or penalties thereon, and no certificate of sale or deed shall be held invalid for error in the computation of the proper amount due on same, provided the error be found to be comparatively negligible or be found to be in favor of the owner of real property affected thereby.

The term "city auditor" as used in this act shall be held to mean and include any person who, under whatever name or title, is charged with the duty of extending taxes upon the assessment rolls and lists. The term "tax collector" as used in this act shall be held to mean and include any person who, under whatever name or title, is charged with the duty of collecting taxes, advertising delinquent lists of unpaid taxes, selling lands thereunder and executing certificates of sale and deeds thereon."

Amendment No. 22.

On page 9, line 34, of the printed bill, as amended, strike out the word "Any", and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Whenever the owners of a majority in area of the lands to be reassessed in any proceeding hereunder have consented to the refunding and reassessment any".

Amendment No. 6.

On page 3 of the printed bill, as amended, all of the language following the period in line 6, shall be placed in a new section which shall be added hereto and headed as follows:

"SEC. 5. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 4."

On page 3 of the printed bill, as amended, following line 18, insert the following:

"Where any bonds acquired pursuant to the provisions of this act are acquired at less than the par value thereof, the legislative body may, in its discretion, reduce the total principal amount of any issue of bonds so acquired and held by it to a total principal amount which it may fix by ordinance; provided such reduced total principal amount of any issue shall not be less at par than the total purchase price of the total principal amount of the bonds of such issue acquired by said legislative body. The ordinance shall designate the issue of bonds to be so reduced, the total principal amount of the bonds of such issue acquired, the purchase price paid therefor, the principal amount of the proposed reduction, the numbers, denominations and maturity dates of the bonds to be canceled and the time and place of the proposed cancellation. Such ordinance shall be subject to referendum as are other ordinances of the city. At the time and place fixed, unless prevented by referendum, the bonds shall be publicly canceled and the city clerk shall enter on the minutes of the legislative body a record of the bonds canceled sufficient to identify the same and the fact and date of the cancellation thereof. If the bonds canceled are issued under the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 the legislative body shall reduce the principal amount of the assessments securing such bonds to the total principal amount of the unpaid and uncanceled bonds of the same issue. Such reduction of assessments shall be carried out by cancelling such proportion of the assessments as may be necessary therefor and the legislative body is empowered to provide procedure for such cancellation in compliance with constitutional requirements. The uncanceled portion of the assessments shall be valid and collected in accordance with the terms of the statutes under which the original assessments were issued and bonds issued.

SEC. 6. Section 5 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 5. Any issue of bonds under this act prior to the expiration of the legislative body of the city be made to mature at one time, provided such time shall not exceed twenty years from the date of issue of such bonds. In the event that the bonds mature at one time the amount that very shall be sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as it comes due and to create a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof on or before maturity. The sum to be raised each year and placed in the sinking fund for the payment of the principal of the bonds shall not be less than an amount obtained by dividing the total principal amount of the bonds issued by the total number of years the bonds are to run. In the event the entire issue of bonds is to mature at one time, such bonds may be called for redemption, in numerical order at par and accrued interest on any interest payment date prior to their final maturity, and a statement to that effect must be set forth in each bond. No bond issued hereunder shall be callable or redeemable prior to its stated maturity date unless a statement that the bond is callable is contained in the bond. At least once each year, within sixty days prior to an interest payment date, if the sinking fund contains sufficient available moneys to pay one or more of the outstanding bonds, the legislative body shall, by notice published once a week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the city and, in the alternative, in one or more newspapers, paper or newspapers, invite sealed proposals for the right to the city of any bonds for payment of which the sinking fund moneys are available. Such notice shall state the amount available for the redemption of said bonds and shall specify the time, place and the place where such proposals may be opened. At such time and place all proposals shall be opened in public. Any or all of such proposals may be accepted at the discretion of the legislative body. No proposal shall be accepted unless the sale price is less than par and accrued interest. If no proposals are received or if those received are rejected or are insufficient to redeem the amount available for the redemption of bonds, the legislative body shall not be compelled under such understanding bonds as can be redeemed from the moneys available for that purpose. Notice of the call of such bonds for redemption shall be published once a week for two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in said city. The first publication shall be not less than thirty days prior to the date fixed for such redemption. Upon the date fixed for such redemption the bonds so called shall be redeemed at par and accrued interest to that date. If any bonds so called are not presented for redemption on the date fixed therefore, then on the day following such date a sum sufficient for the payment of the principal of such bonds and accrued interest to said date of redemption shall be placed in a special fund for that purpose and interest on the bonds for which such provision is made shall cease on said redemption date.

SEC. 7. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered section 6, and to read as follows:

SEC. 6. This act shall in no wise affect any order, act or acts now existing or which may hereafter be passed concerning the same subject matter, or apply to any proceedings thereunder, but is intended to and does provide an alternative system for the issuance of bonds, and, when in the discretion of any legislative body proceedings are commenced under this act, the provisions of this act shall govern all procedure to be taken.

This act and all of its provisions shall be liberally construed to the end that the purposes hereof may be made effective. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases thereof be declared unconstitutional or invalid."

Assembly Bill No. 457—An act to amend sections 10 and 17 of, and to add sections 3a, 5a, 18a and 21a to, the Improvement Act of 1911, relating to an alternative procedure for the doing of work under said act by receiving contributions of labor, materials or equipment from the United States Government or other governmental agencies, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

Bill read third time.

Urgency Clause.

SEC. 7. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall go into effect immediately.

The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

The public peace, health and safety require the immediate construction of sanitary sewers, storm drains, streets, highways and other public improvements, and public funds are not available to defray the entire cost and expense of such improvements. Legislation is necessary to authorize the contribution of labor, materials, supplies and equipment or any of them, by governmental agencies and to permit the levy of assessments against the property directly benefited by such improvements to defray the remaining cost and expense thereof. Federal funds are now available for such purpose. Therefore this bill, providing for the levy of assessments to pay a portion of such cost and expense, is urgently necessary and shall go into effect immediately.

Assembly Bill No. 897 ordered transmitted to the Assembly.

Further Proceedings Under Call of the Senate Dispensed With.

At five o'clock p.m., further proceedings under the call of the Senate were dispensed with, on motion of Senator Olson.

The Secretary was directed to call the roll, on passage of bill, of the Senators who had not answered to their names.

The roll was called, and Assembly Bill No. 121 refused passage by the following vote:

AYES—Senators Jaggard, Fletcher, Garrison, Jepsen, King, McCall, McGinness, Olson, Perry, Seelien, Sewell, and Slater—12.

NOES—Senators Crittenden, Jewell, David, Edwards, Gordon, Hays, Holbo, Kessigh, McCormick, Metzger, Mixer, Parkman, Potosich, Parsons, Rich, Schatzky, Sharkey, Snyder, Stow, Swing, Tickle, Wagy, Williams, and Young—24.

Notice of Motion to Reconsider.

Senator Swing gave notice that on the next legislative day he would move to reconsider the vote by which Assembly Bill No. 121 was refused passage.

The following report was received, read, and ordered printed in the Journal:

Minority Report of Special Joint Committee on Revenue and Taxation, Appointed Pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 25.

The committee report printed in Senate Journal of May 15th, recommends as follows:

(1) Sales tax at 3 per cent (with essential foods exempt under Assembly Bill No. 122).....	$25,500,000 00
(2) Additional sales tax revenue, under Assembly Bills Nos. 1271 and 1273.....	4,800,000 00
(3) Additional bank and corporation franchise tax (4 per cent to 8 per cent).....	17,000,000 00
(4) Personal income tax.....	17,500,000 00
(5) Spirituous liquor tax (80 cents a proof gallon).....	9,000,000 00
(6) Revision of inheritance tax rates and exemptions....	3,000,000 00
(7) Revision of truck tax.....	2,000,000 00
(8) Real estate transfer tax.....	6,000,000 00
(9) State tax on motor vehicles in lieu of present local tax.....	18,000,000 00
	<hr/>
	$112,800,000 00
Revised budget deficit.....	$9,100,000 00

Balance available for unemployment relief.....$ 23,700,000 00

Nos. 1 and 2—After careful consideration, I am forced to the conclusion that the estimate of $40,300,000 additional revenue from the sales tax, with food exempted as provided under Assembly Bill No. 122, is too high. It will probably be nearer $25,000,000, than the estimated $40,300,000.

No. 4—The personal income tax of $17,500,000 is based on rates of 20 per cent of the Federal rates. The rate levied by the State should be fixed to yield $25,000,000, for remember that this is a tax on net income. The majority report also recommended the repeal of the present tax on intangibles, which now yields approximately $2,000,000. I am informed on good and sufficient authority that a State income tax based on 20 per cent of the Federal rates, will yield $16,000,000. If the tax on intangibles is repealed this will leave a net gain of only $14,000,000.

No. 8—Provides for a tax on real estate transfers at a rate of 1 per cent, which is estimated will yield $6,000,000. I can not subscribe to a real estate transfer tax, unless such tax also includes transfers of stocks and bonds. Most transfers of real estate, during the past few years, have been of distressed property, i. e., property with little or no income. This will undoubtedly be the case to some extent in the future. Stocks and bonds which are active in the market are, as a rule, income producing, and are in the majority of cases largely speculative. Such transfers should be taxed at a low rate, especially if real estate is to suffer a tax on transfers. I consider the singling out of real estate for this treatment as extremely unjust.

No. 9—A State tax on motor vehicles in lieu of present local taxes will remove from local tax rolls all motor vehicles, and is in fact an indirect ad valorem tax. The majority report, if the estimated revenue is correct, estimates that there will be a balance available for unemployment relief in the sum of $23,700,000. The Federal authorities have suggested that it may be necessary before the biennium is ended, for the State to supply a total of $44,000,000 for unemployment relief in order that the State may avail itself of its full quota of Federal aid.

The majority report recommends that of the $23,700,000 which they estimate will be available for unemployment relief, $10,000,000 should be "allocated to employment of labor in making permanent and necessary improvements to State institutions." This means that there will be available to match Federal aid only $14,000,000. I am fearful that, unless more money is provided by the State for the matching of Federal funds, that the burden may be shifted to the counties of the State, and I earnestly suggest that before final action is taken, definite information shall be obtained from Federal authorities.

The committee gave scant consideration to the possibilities of a severance tax upon irreplaceable natural resources, namely those resources which once taken from the earth can never be replaced. This tax at a low rate, levied upon oil, natural gas and other hydrocarbon substances, would yield from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000, and based upon the experience of other States, would not be a hardship. One of the most justifiable taxes which the State can levy is a severance tax.

Before returns from new tax laws become available, the State will have outstanding $50,000,000 of registered warrants. The Controller is conscripting special funds at the present time to provide constitutional requirements of our schools. If the yields of the new revenue laws recommended by the majority report do not approximate the estimate we may find that our registered warrants will not be acceptable to the banks, and I am fearful that both our schools and our institutions will be out of money.

The majority report recommends calling a special election to submit to the voters a bond issue to provide necessary money for permanent State institutions, not to exceed the sum of $12,000,000. I urge very strongly that additional revenue be provided at this session, or that the proposed bond issue be for not less than $40,000,000; and further that these bonds be paid off within fifteen years.

The above statement contains my reasons for declining to sign the committee report.

CHRIS N. JESPERSEN.

Third Reading of Assembly Bills—(Resumed).

Assembly Bill No. 1122—An act to accept the provisions of an act of the Congress of the United States effective June 6, 1933, entitled "An act to provide for the establishment of a National employment system and for cooperation with the States in the promotion of such system, and for other purposes."

Bill read third time.

Case of Urgency.

Recommendation of the Governor.

In accordance with section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution, the Governor presented the following communication recommending the passage of Assembly Bill No. 1122:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,
SACRAMENTO, April 9, 1935

To the Honorable Members of the Senate,

State of California, Sacramento, California.

GREETINGS: Assembly Bill No. 1122—An act to accept the provisions of an act of the Congress of the United States effective June 6, 1933, entitled "An act to provide for the establishment of a National Employment System and for cooperation with the States in the promotion of such system, and for other purposes."

In my opinion said Assembly Bill No. 1122 constitutes an emergency bill within the meaning of that term as used in section 34, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

I therefore authorize the consideration of this bill as such a measure.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK F. MERRIAM, Governor of California.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 43.

Relative to memorializing Congress to furnish aid in the construction of check dams in the Salinas River Valley.

WHEREAS, The water level of the Salinas Valley is rapidly declining and the salt water is beginning to encroach inwardly from the ocean; and

WHEREAS, The cost of power is making it almost prohibitive for agricultural pursuits in the Salinas Valley, due to the low water level; and

WHEREAS, Erosion is taking place and the soils are rapidly being put in danger because of the lack of proper soil and water protection; and

WHEREAS, The people of Salinas Valley are aware of this and are desirous of having the Federal government remedy these defects to save the Salinas Valley for future generations to conduct agricultural pursuits and to continue to increase the inhabitation of the Salinas Valley; and

WHEREAS, The water for domestic use may soon be jeopardized if the population of the Salinas Valley increases; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Congress of the United States be urged to provide a Federal government survey and plan for the construction of check dams and a soil erosion prevention project, and be it further

Resolved, That the Congress be urged to take action in this regard immediately so that the water and soils of the Salinas Valley may be preserved for future generations that may inhabit the Salinas Valley; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby instructed forthwith to transmit copies of this resolution to the President of the United States, and to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each of the Senators and Representatives from California in the Congress of the United States.

Urgency Clause.

SEC. 7. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are as follows: Due to the widespread depression, many taxpayers have been unable to pay their taxes, or to redeem their property from sale to the State for delinquency. By permitting redemption without penalties, many taxpayers will be enabled to redeem their property, restore the same to the tax rolls, and thereby add revenue for the operation and maintenance of government.

Urgency clause read.

On page 1, lines 25 and 26, of the printed bill, strike out "between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in April of each year".

Amendment No. 4.

On page 2, lines 13 and 14, of the printed bill, strike out "on or before the first Monday in June," and insert in lieu thereof "at such times and".

Amendment No. 5.

On page 2, lines 16 and 17, of the printed bill, strike out "on the first Monday in March at twelve o'clock meridian".

Amendment No. 6.

On page 2 of the printed bill, between lines 22 and 23, insert the following:

"The board shall complete the assessment of all property required to be assessed by it as of the first Monday in March of any year, on or before the first Monday in August of said year. Between the first Monday in August and the third Monday in August of each year, the assessments made by the board shall be open for inspection by all persons interested. At any time prior to the third Monday in August the owner of any property assessed by the board, or the one to whom it is assessed may be heard by the board upon a petition for reassessment.

Immediately after the third Monday in August the board shall transmit to the auditor of each county and city and county an assessment roll showing the assessments made by the board upon all property located in such county or city and county and in each district, and city in such county or city and county.

The board shall also immediately transmit to the auditor or other chief accounting officer of each city the assessment date of which is the first Monday in March an assessment roll showing the assessments made by the board upon all property located in such city and in each district in such city.

In the case of property situated within the limits of any city having an assessment date other than the first Monday in March, the board, upon the completion of the assessment of such property as of such other assessment date, shall give notice to those to whom it is assessed either by mail, in the manner prescribed by section 1913 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the municipality where such property is located, that the assessment of such property as of such other assessment date has been completed and the time when, and place where, those to whom such property is assessed may be heard on a petition by them for reassessment of such property. Immediately after the time specified in such notice the board shall transmit to the auditor or other chief accounting officer of such municipality an assessment roll showing the assessment made by the board upon all property located in such city.

All such property shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as other property.

In the event that any property required to be assessed by the board escapes assessment for any year, such property when discovered shall immediately be assessed by the board, and a statement of the value of such property shall be transmitted by the board to the officer of the county, city and county, or city required by law to assess property escaping assessment. The property so assessed by the board and returned to such officer shall thereupon be entered upon the assessment roll of such county, city and county, or city and shall be subject to the same taxes and assessment levies with the same penalties added thereto as if such property had been assessed by such officer."

Amendment No. 7.

On page 2 of the printed bill, after line 26, add the following:

"SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency:

Several cities within California have, under special charter provisions, assessment dates other than the first Monday in March. Unless the law is immediately amended to permit the State Board of Equalization to assess such property as is required to be assessed by such board under the provisions of section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State as of the same date as other property subject to municipal taxation in such cities, grave inequalities in tax burden will result threatening the stability of the public revenues for such cities. Under existing law said board is required to complete all assessments under said section of the Constitution by the third Monday in June. Said board is also required to equalize its assessments with those made locally, and since equalization of local assessments is not completed normally until August, it would be impossible to provide for an equitable assessment of property by the State Board of Equalization unless the existing law requiring the board to complete its assessments by the third Monday in June should be amended. Consequently, unless this act goes into effect immediately grave inequalities in assessments for tax purposes will result, since an act which would not become effective until ninety days following adjournment of the Legislature could not accomplish the necessary changes in time to correct the injustices which would otherwise occur."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1 of the printed measure, as amended, strike out lines 6 to 24, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "the State of California, that the Constitution of said State be amended by adding to Article IV thereof a new section, to be numbered 37, and to read as follows:

SEC. 37. (a) Commencing with the regular session of the Legislature to be held in January, 1939, the legislative authority of the State shall be vested in a Legislature of forty members, consisting of one chamber, to be known as "The Legislature of the State of California." The people reserve for themselves, however, the powers of the initiative and the referendum, as hereinabove provided. All authority now vested by the Constitution or laws of the State in the Senate, the Assembly, or joint session thereof, in so far as applicable, shall be and hereby is vested in said Legislature of one chamber. All provisions in the Constitution and laws of the State relating to the Legislature, the Senate, the Assembly, joint sessions of the Senate and Assembly, Senator or member of the Assembly, shall, in so far as said provisions are applicable, apply to and mean said Legislature of one chamber hereby created, and the members thereof. All references to clerk of Assembly or Secretary of Senate shall mean, when applicable, the Secretary of the Legislature of one chamber. All references to Speaker of the Assembly or President of the Senate shall mean President of the Legislature. Wherever any provision of the Constitution requires submission of any matter to, or action by, the Assembly, the Senate or joint session thereof, or the members of either body or both bodies, it shall, after January 1, 1939, be construed to mean the Legislature herein provided for.

(b) At the regular session of the Legislature held in the year 1937, the Legislature shall divide the State into districts in proportion to population, except as herein otherwise provided. In creation of such districts, any county that contains population sufficient to entitle it to two or more members of the Legislature shall be divided into separate and distinct legislative districts, as nearly equal in population as may be, composed of contiguous and compact territory.

After the creation of such districts, beginning in 1938, one member of the Legislature shall be elected from each such district, and shall serve for four years; provided, however, that at the election to be held in 1938, members from each odd numbered district shall be elected for a period of only two years, but thereafter for a period of four years. The basis of apportionment shall be the population, excluding aliens, as shown by the next preceding Federal census. In like manner, when necessary to correction of any qualities in the population of such districts, the State may be redistricted from time to time, but no oftener than once in ten years; provided, however, that in no event shall any one county have more than twenty-five per cent of the members of said one chamber Legislature.

(c) The Legislature shall meet in regular session at twelve o'clock noon on the second day in January in the year ensuing the election of the members thereof. The Lieutenant Governor shall preside, and shall be known as the President of the Legislature but shall vote only when the Legislature is equally divided.

(d) All provisions of the Constitution and all provisions of law in conflict herewith are hereby repealed."

Amendment No. 3.

On page 2 of the printed measure, as amended, strike out all of lines 1 to 41, inclusive.

Motion to Lay on the Table.

Senator Stow moved that the amendments offered by Senator McGovern be laid on the table.

Amendment No. 5.

On page 13 of the printed bill, as amended, following line 51, insert the following:

"SEC. 2. Section 32 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 32. At the time of submission of proof of appropriation, the State Water Commission shall collect from each claimant a fee of five (5) dollars for each proof of appropriation filed by such claimant. At the time of, or as soon as practicable after the mailing of its order of determination as provided in section 36 of this act the State Water Commission shall compute the entire expense it has incurred in performing the duties prescribed in sections 26 to 36 of this act, both inclusive, including salaries, wages, traveling expenses, and all costs of whatever character which are properly chargeable to said proceedings. Should the total amount of said entire expense exceed the total amount received from claimants at the time of submission of proofs of appropriation, said excess expense shall be equitably apportioned by the State Water Commission against the parties to the proceeding and a statement setting forth said expense and said apportionments thereof against the respective parties shall be sent by registered mail to each of said parties. The apportionments so made and set forth in said statement shall become due and payable to the State Water Commission by the respective parties, or their successors in interest, in the amounts so allocated, thirty (30) days subsequent to the date of mailing of said statement; provided, however, that upon application in writing by any party aggrieved within said thirty (30) day period, the court shall after expiration of said period set a hearing for the determination of any objection or objections to said expense or to the apportionments thereof and the clerk of the court shall, at least ten days prior to the date of such hearing, give notice thereof by mail to all parties; and provided further, that upon the filing of an objection or objections to said expense or the apportionments thereof, said apportionments shall not become due and payable until said objection or objections shall have been determined as hereinafter provided. Parties failing to so object to said expense or the apportionments thereof within said period shall be conclusively deemed to have waived all objections thereto. Upon the hearing of an objection or objections to said expense or the apportionments thereof the court shall determine the issues relative thereto, and enter an order determining said expense and its allocation as the court may deem equitable. Said order shall become final upon the expiration of thirty (30) days after entry thereof and all apportionments included therein shall then become due and payable to the State Water Commission by the respective parties, or their successors in interest, in the amounts so allocated. Any apportionments of said expense which remain unpaid shall be included in any findings of fact and conclusions of law which may be filed by the court and if unpaid at time of entry of judgment and decree shall be included therein. All moneys paid to or collected by said commission, as in this section provided, shall be paid, at least once each month, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof, into the cash revolving fund of the State Water Commission in the State treasury. If the funds available for use by the State Water Commission are inadequate to enable it to undertake the expense of any proceeding under sections 25 to 36g, both inclusive, of this act, or if in the judgment of the commission its reimbursement for the expense of any such proceeding will not be reasonably certain, it may refuse to proceed with its investigation as provided for in section 27 of this act and to undertake said proceeding, unless and until such provision shall have been made by persons interested as may be satisfactory to said commission and deemed by it sufficient to secure reimbursement or payment to it for its expenses."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, engrossment, and on file for third reading.

Prayer.

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Newton E. Moats :

Responsive to the Gavel.

Our Father, we recognize Thee in this legislative hall as the source of all law and order. Thou art life's great parliamentarian. May the quieting influence of Thy spirit preside over the business here during these closing days.

May we be responsive to the sound of the gavel, remembering always the rights of others. We would not allow our own personal concern to disturb the unity and harmony of our Senate. Give us that spirit of teamwork which makes possible coordinated action in the midst of confusion and rush. Strengthen our wills and fortify our self-control, that each of us may act as our own Sergeant-at-Arms. During the busiest hours of the day, may there be within the heart of each of us the stern command whispering, "Quiet, please."

Thou art our Presiding Officer, unseen and ever supreme, the abiding Source of our finer discipline. Give to us the poise that precedes noble action, the quietness that assures deliberate thinking, and that manner of courtesy and unselfish action which makes possible the achievement of much good in the midst of contrary deliberations and conflicting opinions.

Hear this, our prayer, O Lord, that we may continue peacefully, unto the end, as brothers in service, for the public welfare and toward the building of a better State. And may Thy name be praised and Thy cause advanced, for Christ's sake. Amen.

Resolution.

By Senator Tickle:

Resolved, That the following named persons be stricken from the list of Senate attaches, and their names be stricken from the pay roll of the Senate, to take effect on completion of the work of May 18, 1935:

	Per day
Sabert Keough, Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms.....	$5 00
Jimmie Hays, Page.....	2 50

Resolution read, and on motion of Senator Tickle adopted.

Resolution.

The following resolution was offered:

By Senator Tickle:

WHEREAS, Various officers and employees of the State have filed official bonds with the State in accordance with requirements of laws, the premiums upon which are paid by the State; and

WHEREAS, The State is expending a sum estimated at $30,000 each biennium on account of premiums upon such official bonds; and

WHEREAS, A number of companies now issuing such bonds have increased the premiums upon certain official bonds which in some instances are double the premiums formerly charged upon such bonds; and

WHEREAS, It is believed that it would be to the interest of the State to have a survey made by the Department of Finance of the State of California to enable the Senate to conduct a study to determine whether there would be a financial saving to the State should such official bonds no longer be required; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the Department of Finance be and is hereby authorized and directed to conduct a survey of all and singular, the facts, information and data relating to the costs of premiums to the State upon official bonds of officers and employees of the State, the losses, if any, for the past few years to the State on account of unfaithful performance of the duties of officers and employees of the State, and the practices in other States with respect to the requirement of official bonds, and to furnish the Senate with a report of such survey and to report thereon to the fifty-second session of the Legislature or at any special session of the Legislature which may be called prior thereto.

Resolution read, and on motion of Senator Tickle adopted.

Consideration of Assembly Amendments.

Senate Bill No. 529—An act to amend section 1426a of and to add sections 1426da, 1426db, 1426de, and 1426ra to the Civil Code, relating to discovery locations and to discovery shafts on lode and placer mining locations.

The Senate took up for consideration Assembly amendments to Senate Bill No. 529.

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill, as amended, strike out "add three new sections", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "amend section 1426a of and to add sections 1426da, 1426db, 1426de, and 1426ra".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1, lines 1 and 2 of the title of the printed bill, as amended, strike out "to be numbered 1426d $\frac{1}{2}$, 1426d $\frac{3}{4}$ and 1426d $\frac{5}{8}$ ".

Amendment No. 3.

On page 1 of the printed bill, as amended, strike out lines 1 to 23, inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SECTION 1. Section 1426a of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1426a. The locator or locators of any lode mining claim must define the boundaries of such claim so that they may be readily traced, but, in no case, shall the claim extend more than fifteen hundred feet along the course of the vein or lode, nor more than three hundred feet on either side thereof as measured from the center line of the vein at the surface. On all lode mining claims made after this act takes effect and within sixty days after the location of the claim, the locator or locators shall erect at each corner of the claim and at the center of each end line, or the nearest accessible points thereto, a post not less than four inches in diameter, or a stone monument at least eighteen inches high.

SEC. 2. Section 1426da is hereby added to the Civil Code to read as follows:

SEC. 3. Section 1426db is hereby added to the Civil Code to read as follows:

1426db. On all placer mining locations containing more than twenty acres, located after this act takes effect, the locators thereof shall, within ninety days after the date of location, perform at least one dollar's worth of work for each acre included in such claim. This work may all be done at one place on the claim if so desired, and must be actual mining development work exclusive of cabins, buildings, or other surface structures. Nothing in this section shall be construed as a modification of the requirements of section 1426da of this code.

SEC. 4. Section 1426de is hereby added to the Civil Code to read as follows:

1426de. The relocation of any lode or placer mining location which is subject to relocation shall be made in the same way as an original location is herein required by law to be made, except that the relocater may either sink a new shaft upon the ground relocated at the discovery point to the depth of at least ten feet from the lowest part of the rim of such shaft to the surface, exposing the deposit upon which location is based, or drive a new tunnel, adit, or open cut upon such deposit at the point of discovery to at least ten feet below the surface, exposing the deposit upon which location is based, or the relocater may sink the original discovery shaft ten feet deeper than it is at the time of relocation, or drive the original tunnel, adit, or open cut upon such claim ten feet further.

Sec. 5. Section 1426a is hereby added to the Civil Code to read as follows:

1426a. The failure or neglect of the locator or locators to comply with the requirements of sections 1426, 1426a, 1426b, 1426c, or 1426d of this code shall render such location null and void and no portion of the area within such location shall be subject to relocation by the same locator or locators within the period of three years from the date of such void location.

Case of Urgency.Recommendation of the Governor.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,

SACRAMENTO, May 17, 1935.

To the Honorable Members of the Senate, State of California, Sacramento, California.

GREETINGS: Senate Bill No. 561—An act to amend sections 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, and 188 of, and to add new sections to be numbered 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, and 204 to, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to allocation and expenditure of moneys from the State highway fund within cities, and providing a procedure therefor.

In my opinion said Senate Bill No. 561 constitutes such a bill within the meaning of that term as used in section 34, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, the consideration of which should not await the final enactment of the Budget Bill.

I therefore authorize the consideration of this bill as such a measure.

Respectfully submitted.

FRANK F. MERRIAM, Governor of California.

Senate Resolution, as Amended.

By Senators Crittenden and Metzger.

WHEREAS, The agricultural industry is the basic industry of the State of California and the prosperity and happiness of all of the people of the State are dependent thereon and, during the recent period of depression, an intolerable burden has been placed upon the agricultural industry; and

WHEREAS, The cost to the consumer of agricultural products is excessively high as compared to the producer's return; and

WHEREAS, The agricultural industry of the State of California is carrying a burden of an elaborate system of inspection and there is some complaint, particularly by the prune, peach and apricot growers, that this inspection is insufficient; and

WHEREAS, There are now in effect, and pending, many regulations affecting the marketing of agricultural products, many of which are experimental; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary that in the future there be enacted perpetuating what is good of such regulations and eliminating those features which are bad; and

WHEREAS, A Senate committee was appointed on January 6, 1935, to study marketing methods and conditions and, for lack of time, was unable to complete its investigations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, That the President of the Senate appoint a committee of seven members to investigate the matters hereinbefore set forth and to determine the effect of the laws and regulations now in effect or hereafter to become effective relating to the marketing of agricultural products and the differential between the price paid to the producer and the price paid by the consumer, the price paid to California producers of agricultural products as compared with the price paid in the local markets and in other markets to investigate the effect of mass buying and distribution upon the prices of agricultural products, to investigate the effect upon consumption of agricultural products of various methods of selling and distribution of agricultural products, and to report generally to the Department of Agriculture and to investigate complaints in regard to the inspection of agricultural products, to study the operation of cooperative marketing in this State and in other States, and to report during the first week of the next ensuing session of the Legislature with recommendations as to needed legislation; and be it further

Resolved, That said committee is hereby authorized and empowered to use such agencies of the University of California, the State Department of Agriculture and other governmental agencies as may be available to aid it in making studies and developing facts to be used in its investigations.

Resolved, That said committee shall be and is hereby authorized and empowered to do all things necessary to make a full and complete investigation of the matters hereinbefore set forth in order to enable the Senate to act judiciously and wisely upon such matters, and the said committee shall hereby be empowered to summon and subpoena witnesses, require the production of papers, books, accounts, reports and records of every kind; to issue subpoenas and to take all necessary means to compel the attendance of witnesses and to procure testimony; the members of such committee are, and each of them is, hereby authorized to administer oaths; all of the provisions of Article VIII of Chapter 2, Title I, Part III, of the Political Code of this State, relative to the attendance and examination of witnesses before the Legislature and committees thereof, shall apply to the committee appointed under this resolution, and said committee shall have the power therein specified; the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate is hereby authorized and directed to serve any and all subpoenas and orders or other process that may be issued by said committee, when directed so to do by the chairman thereof, and do and perform any other service required of him by said committee, and that said committee be, and it is hereby given leave to sit during the sessions of the Legislature of 1935 and the sessions of 1937, and between said times to hold meetings throughout the State at such places as may be convenient to the committee, and to the witnesses and parties interested. Said committee may hold a public or executive meeting as may be necessary or desired; and be it further

Resolved, That the sum of $2,500 be and the same is hereby made available for the purpose of defraying the expenses of such committee, said sum to be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate, and the State Controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants in favor of the chairman of said committee for such expenditures as may be certified to him from time to time by the chairman of the said committee, and the State Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the same.

Requests for Permission to Introduce Bills.

The following requests for permission to introduce bills were presented:

By Senator Duval:

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, MAY 22, 1935.

MR. PRESIDENT: In accordance with the provisions of section 2, Article IV of the Constitution, I request permission to introduce a bill, the title of which is set forth below:

An act relating to licensing and taxing of vehicles, including certain license fees based upon value in lieu of taxation according to value and providing for the administration and enforcement thereof.

Respectfully submitted

SENATOR DUVAL.

Request referred to Committee on Rules.

By Senator Duval:

SENATE CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, MAY 22, 1935.

MR. PRESIDENT: In accordance with the provisions of section 2, Article IV of the Constitution, I request permission to introduce a bill, the title of which is set forth below:

An act to call a special election to be held on the thirtieth day of July, 1935, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of this State certain amendments to the Constitution of this State proposed by the Legislature at its fifth first regular session, and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

Respectfully submitted

SENATOR DUVAL.

Request referred to Committee on Rules.

Further Proceedings Under Call of the Senate Dispensed With.

At ten o'clock and twenty-five minutes a.m., further proceedings under the call of the Senate were dispensed with, on motion of Senator Tickle.

The Secretary was directed to call the roll, on the adoption of the resolution, of the Senators who had not answered to their names.

The roll was called, and Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 42 finally adopted by the following vote:

AYES—Senators Biggar, Denel, Difani, Duval, Edwards, Fletcher, Hays, Keough, King, Knowland, McCormack, McGovern, McGuinness, Mixter, Olson, Parkman, Perry, Pierovich, Powers, Reindollar, Rich, Schottky, Seashan, Sewell, Sharkey, Slater, Snyder, Swing, Tickle, Wagy, Williams, and Young—32.

NOES—None.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 42 ordered transmitted to the Assembly.

Unfinished Business.

Consideration of Assembly Amendments.

Senate Bill No. 585—An act to amend section 3663b of the Political Code, relating to the assessment of property by the State Board of Equalization.

The Senate took up for consideration Assembly amendments to Senate Bill No. 585.

Amendment No. 1.

In the last line of the title of the printed bill, after "Equalization", insert "and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out all of line 3 after "3663b", and all of lines 4 to 27, both inclusive; and on page 2, strike out all of lines 1 to 28, both inclusive, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"The board shall have the power to equalize the assessments made by it pursuant to section 3663a of this code, of property located in any city where property is not assessed for city purposes by the assessor of the county in which such city is located, with the assessed value of other property therein. Such equalized value shall be set forth upon the assessment roll transmitted by the board to the auditor or other chief accounting officer of such city pursuant to section 3663a of this code. Immediately following the close of the period for equalizing assessments of property in each city where property is not assessed for city purposes by the assessor of the county in which such city is located, it shall be the duty of the city auditor or other chief accounting officer of such city to notify the State Board of Equalization of the total assessed value of property assessed by the city assessor, after equalization by the city equalization body. In case the board is not so notified of such assessed values in any such city the board need not equalize the assessments made by it of property in such city with such assessed values.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency:

In many cities in the State of California, the ratio between the assessed value as determined for the purposes of municipal taxation and the true value of the taxable property differs materially from the corresponding ratio of the assessed value as determined by the county assessor. Under section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State the State Board of Equalization is required to assess certain property for all tax purposes and unless said board is authorized to equalize such assessments with the assessed value of other property subject to municipal taxation, serious inequalities will result threatening the revenues of many cities of the State. Since said board must complete its work of assessment and equalization as of the current assessment date prior to a date which will be ninety days after the adjournment of the present session of the Legislature, it is essential that this act take effect immediately in order to avert such consequences which will be subversive to the public peace, health and safety."

Amendment No. 3.

On page 2, line 46, of the printed bill, as amended May 9, 1935, after the period following the word "body", insert the following: "Notice shall be given by the board to such city of the final date for the filing with said board of such total assessed value."

Amendment No. 4.

On page 2, line 47, of the printed bill, as amended May 9, 1935, after the word "city", insert the following: "prior to such final date".

The question being: Shall the Senate concur in Assembly amendments to Senate Bill No. 585?

The roll was called, and Assembly amendments to Senate Bill No. 585 concurred in by the following vote:

AYES—Senators Biggar, Douel, Difani, Edwards, Fletcher, Garrison, Hays, Jespersen, Keough, King, Knowland, McCall, McCormack, McGovern, McGuinness, Mixer, Parkman, Perry, Pierovich, Reindollar, Rich, Schottky, Scollan, Seawell, Sharkey, Slater, Snyder, Swing, Tickle, Wagy, and Williams—31.

NOES—Senators Deuel, Difani, Duval, Edwards, Garrison, Hays, Jespersen, Knowland, McCormack, Metzger, Parkman, Reindollar, Rich, Seawell, Snyder, Stow, Swing, Tickle, Wagy, and Young—20.

Remarks.

The following remarks, offered by Senator Fletcher, were ordered printed in the Journal:

Mr. President and My Friends of the Senate.

In discussing my Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 19 today, I ask you to forget the appeal of special interests and to consider only what is best for the large majority of the people of this State and Nation.

Over $45,000,000,000 of tax-exempt bonds are now outstanding. In a comparatively short time this stupendous sum will be $100,000,000,000, unless some early legislation is enacted.

I am unalterably opposed to tax-exempt bonds for the reason that their issuance is un-American and the principle is fundamentally unsound. While it appears to be a Federal question eventually, yet some State must start the fight and why not California?

Money is not sacred and the time is at hand when the future best interests of this country must have first consideration.

More and more the wealthy are buying these tax-exempt bonds, using money that should be put into industry. There is a vast accumulation of wealth in the hands of a few; 3,600,000 people today are paying 90 per cent of the income tax of this Nation. The wealthy are sitting pretty with tax-exempt bonds in their possession.

With 70 per cent to 80 per cent of the people practically broke the last five years, owing to the depression, there is a growing feeling of resentment and radicalism against those better off than themselves, which feeling must be changed.

I do not want to be considered an alarmist, love my country and consider myself a conservative. My ancestor, Robert Fletcher, came to Massachusetts in 1592. I have in my possession a commission signed by George III before the Revolutionary War making my great grandfather a British officer. At the head of his company he took part in the battle of Bunker Hill. Let me tell you that, with increased taxation on the masses while the rich go free with tax-exempt bonds, more and more the burden is unbearable. It is history repeating itself. I refer to the Boston Tea Party and the French Revolution. In both cases it was a violent protest against unjust or unequal taxation.

I anticipate no action of that kind in this country and trust that the law will solve this problem of all paying their just proportion of taxation at all times.

The opposition claims that we with here to take a chance upon the bonds of our exempt. Possibly so, but, like insurance, you pay for what you get.

If you pass today Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 19 you are not taking any responsibility, you are making it possible for the people of this State to vote on the question of whether or not tax-exempt bonds shall be issued in this State in the future. Why should you take this responsibility? Why should you not let them have an opportunity to express their opinion? Anyone who votes against this bill is assuming a great deal and is taking himself too seriously, for you are the servants of the people and the people should decide.

Let the State of California set an example against tax-exempt bonds that will cross the continent. In time Federal laws will be enacted that will give a national assurance of faith to the masses in this country for justice and equitable taxation.

I plead with you, my brother Senators, to forget all personal politics, feel free your responsibility to your neighbor and country, that your consciences may give an expression by the ballot of their attitude toward one of the most vital problems that confront our citizenship today.

ED FLETCHER

Communication.

The following communication was received, read, ordered printed in the Journal, and referred to Committee on Judiciary:

LOS ANGELES BAR ASSOCIATION.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, May 21, 1935.

Hon. George J. Hatfield, President of the Senate of the State of California, and to the Members of the Senate of the State of California, Senate Chambers, Capitol Building, Sacramento, California.

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE SENATE: I have been directed by the trustees of the Los Angeles Bar Association to transmit to you the enclosed copy of a unanimous resolution of the board of trustees of the Los Angeles Bar Association, to the effect that Judge Gavin W. Craig, one of the Justices of the Second District Court of Appeal of California, Division Two, sitting in Los Angeles, should, in the public interest immediately resign from office.

Judge Craig has not resigned.

Your attention is directed to section 10, Article VI of the Constitution of the State of California, which provides:

"Justices of the Supreme Court, and of the District Court of Appeal, and judges of the superior courts may be removed by concurrent resolution of both houses of the Legislature adopted by a two-thirds vote of each house. All other judicial officers, except justices of the peace, may be removed by the Senate on the recommendation of the Governor; but no removal shall be made by virtue of this section unless the cause thereof be entered on the Journal, nor unless the party complained of has been served with a copy of the complaint against him and shall have had an opportunity of being heard in his defense. On the question of removal the ayes and noes shall be entered on the Journal."

For the reasons stated in the attached resolution, it is the opinion of the trustees of the Los Angeles Bar Association that Judge Craig should be removed from office by a concurrent resolution of the Senate and Assembly of this State, as above provided for.

A like communication is this day being addressed and forwarded to the Speaker of the Assembly of the State of California, and to the members of said Assembly.

Respectfully submitted.

JOE CRIDER, JR., President,
Los Angeles Bar Association.

Be it resolved, by the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Bar Association: That the proper administration of justice, on which the security of the people so greatly depends, not only requires that the judges who are entrusted therewith be beyond reproach, in all things pertaining to the duties of their high calling, but also that they shall at all times enjoy the full and complete confidence of the people.

Any public reproach attaching to their names, based on well-founded facts regarding their conduct in office, whether such conduct be condemned by formal votes or by the common standards of right, impairs the respect and confidence in which the judicial system rests, and constitutes an interference and impediment to which such conduct involves their disqualification from discharge by unimpaired authority.

Application of the foregoing principles is now necessary in the public situation existing in the case of Judge Gavin W. Craig, one of the Justices of the District Court of Appeal of California, Second Division, sitting at Los Angeles.

Judge Craig has been ordered by a Federal Grand Jury, seated and composed by a Federal Jury, and sentenced by a Federal Court, to sit the United States District Court for the Southern District of California, for obstructing judicial justice.

The transaction involved was, in its most favorable aspect, foreign to his work as a Judge of the District Court of Appeal, and time and attention were thereby necessarily diverted from that work, and since his indictment, he has ceased to devote any appreciable time or attention to the work of his office, while continuing to receive his salary therefor.

He has taken an appeal from his conviction, and will pending the decision thereon, and if he retains his office, receive his salary, and at the same time be occupied with said appeal, to an extent incompatible with the full performance of the duties of his office, for which he is paid, and to the extent that he may perform those duties, he will do so under the public reproach attaching to him by reason of his conviction upon a charge of obstructing judicial justice.

It is highly essential, in the public interest, that his court function not only with the devoted cooperation of all its members, but with the respect and confidence of the public; and these necessary conditions, in the opinion of this Senate, have been and are rendered impossible by his situation.

Whatever may be the result of his appeal, it is obvious to this board that his usefulness as a Justice of said court has been destroyed, and that his continuance as a member thereof subjects the judiciary as a whole to question, and impairs the court of which he is a member in the performance of its functions.

In the opinion of this board, Judge Craig should, in the public interest, immediately resign.

"SECTION 1. Section 1015 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1015. Except as otherwise provided herein, every person operating under a license as provided in this article shall, in addition to the license fee, pay a privilege tax of two and one-half cents for each one hundred pounds, or fraction thereof, of fish other than salmon, purchased, received or taken by him. Persons who receive salmon from fishermen shall, in addition to any other license fee imposed by this code, pay a privilege tax of one-half cent per pound, based on the weight of the salmon in the round. Fish, excepting mollusks and crustaceans, so taken or received, which are utilized for human consumption in a fresh state, shall not be subject to such tax.

SEC. 2. Section 1016 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1016. All privilege taxes provided for in this article shall be paid monthly to the commission or some one authorized by it, within thirty days after the close of each month. Upon failure of any person operating under a license as provided in this article to pay such privilege tax within thirty days after the close of any month, his license shall be deemed immediately forfeited. All unpaid taxes as herein provided constitute a lien upon the plant and real property wherein and whereon said packing operations shall have been conducted.

SEC. 3. Section 670 is hereby added to the Fish and Game Code to read as follows:

670. Any cannery or packing plant in which salmon are canned, must stamp on the top of each can the words "Not for Resale" in letters of such size as to be clearly legible. Senate Bill No. 985—An act relating to the purchase of bonds which are in default, and actions by the purchaser for the foreclosure, collection, or enforcement of such bonds, and limiting the amount of judgments rendered in an action relating to such bonds.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Judiciary, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 985 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "to the purchase", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "to adjustment in lieu of enforcement".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 1 of the printed bill, strike out lines 2, 3 and 4 of the title, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "when the bonds are secured by a lien on or interest in real property situated in this State, and limiting the enforcement of".

Amendment No. 3.

On page 1, line 1, of the printed bill, after the period, insert the following: "Whenever bonds have been sold to the public, payment of which is secured by a trust deed or mortgage upon property located in this State, and the bonds are in default as to payment of the principal or interest, a petition for an adjustment of the indebtedness of which the bonds are evidence, and all instruments and obligations relating thereto or in connection therewith may be filed with the Commissioner of Corporations."

SEC. 2. Such petition may be filed by the owner of the property as to which the mortgage or trust deed is a lien or evidences an interest, by any tenant having a lease upon substantially the entire property covered by the mortgage or trust deed, by the trustee under the trust deed, by the owner of substantially the entire property, or by bondholders representing one per cent in face amount of the entire bond issue or bond issues outstanding, the payment of which is secured by a mortgage or trust deed covering the property. If the petition is signed by bondholders, the owner of the property, or the lessee, and the payment of the bonds is secured by deed of trust, the commissioner shall forthwith, by registered mail, notify the trustee of the filing of the petition and shall require that the trustee, within ten days after the date of mailing such notice, file with the commissioner a list containing the names and addresses of all the bondholders whose bonds are so secured. Such list shall be verified by the trustee or by one of the officers of such trustee. No proceeding for foreclosure of the mortgage or trust deed or for sale of the property upon which such instrument is a lien may be commenced or continued from and after the date of the filing of the petition with the commissioner. The commissioner may require any person having such a list to produce the same before him.

SEC. 3. Upon the filing of the list of bondholders with him, the commissioner shall forthwith mail notice to the owner of the property, the trustee, the lessee, and the bondholders, stating that the petition has been filed with him, that at a time and place therein named, he will hear all persons having an interest who desire to appear and show cause why a plan of adjustment of the indebtedness and the liens or interest thereunder should not be adopted. The time stated in the notice shall be not less than ten nor more than forty days from and after the date of the filing of the list of bondholders with the commissioner.

SEC. 4. The meeting specified in the notice shall be held by the commissioner and at such meeting he shall hear any person interested and shall permit such person to present any relevant matters which may tend to show cause why the indebtedness, and the bonds secured thereby, should not be adjusted as provided in this act.

SEC. 5. At such meeting the commissioner shall hear objections to the continuance of the proceeding under this act. If in his opinion, there is no cause or reason for adjustment of the indebtedness and the liens securing the same, he shall dismiss the proceeding and thereafter no such proceeding involving the same indebtedness or liens may be filed with him within the period of one year from and after the dismissal. Upon such dismissal, and at any time thereafter, the provisions of the bonds relating to collection of principal or interest in case of default may be enforced.

SEC. 6. Unless the commissioner dismisses the proceeding, the commissioner shall file a petition for adjustment of the indebtedness in the superior court of the county in which the property is located, or if the property is located in more than one county, then with the superior court of the county in which, in his opinion, the largest amount in value of the property is located.

SEC. 7. Such petition shall state the following:

- (a) The date upon which the petition for adjustment was filed with him.
- (b) That the trustee has filed with him the list of the bondholders, in the case of bonds secured by a trust deed.
- (c) The fact that due and proper notice was mailed to bondholders whose names appeared on such list.
- (d) The fact that he has held a hearing on the petition and that in his opinion the matter is one in which an adjustment of the indebtedness or interest and the bonds secured thereby is advisable.

SEC. 8. Thereupon the court shall set a date upon which any plan submitted by the commissioner and any amendments thereto proposed by any person interested will be heard by it. Such date shall be not less than sixty nor more than ninety days from and after the date of the filing of the petition with the court. Within thirty days from and after the date of the filing of the petition with the court, the commissioner shall file with the court a plan of adjustment of the indebtedness, the bonds evidencing the same, and the liens or interests securing such bonds or indebtedness.

SEC. 9. The owner or lessee of the property, the trustee, or any bondholder may file with the commissioner any plan which he considers advisable, or any matters which he feels should be considered in relation to such plan. Such plan for readjustment of the indebtedness and liens shall be filed by the commissioner in the office of the county clerk not less than thirty days before the date set for hearing, and any person entitled to submit a plan to the commissioner, may not less than ten days before such hearing submit any alternative plan or any amendments or changes in the plan submitted by the commissioner which such person feels to be desirable.

SEC. 10. The commissioner shall publish a statement containing the following in one daily newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property affected is located, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days before the court hearing.

- (a) That the petition was filed with him and the names of the signers.
- (b) That he held the requested hearing thereon, and the date of such hearing.
- (c) The county in which the court hearing will be held and the date thereof.
- (d) That upon such hearing the court will consider a plan of readjustment, specifying the parties entitled to submit such plan and the last date upon which a plan may be submitted.

On the date set for hearing the court shall hear any arguments or objections by the commissioner or by the proponents of any alternative plan of change in or amendments to the commissioner's plan, and give testimony in private session. Thereafter the court shall dismiss the proceedings or shall render judgment, setting forth in full or by reference, the plan of readjustment to be submitted to the bondholders. The court may, prior to rendition of such judgment, modify or change any plan submitted and may in the judgment submit any plan submitted or any change or modification thereof.

SEC. 11. The court may, at any time thereafter, upon petition of the commissioner and notice published by the commissioner in the manner specified in section 10 hereof, and a further hearing, make any changes or amendments to the plan approved by it. Upon the consent in writing filed with the county clerk of the holders of not less than seventy-five per cent of the bonds outstanding affected by such plan, the plan shall become effective and the adjustments and changes of the indebtedness, the bonds embracing the indebtedness, and to her debt or interest in the property made thereby shall take immediate effect.

SEC. 12. The plan may provide for exchange of outstanding bonds for new bonds, with the approval of the commissioner and pursuant to his approval.

SEC. 13. From and after the date this act takes effect it shall be a misdemeanor for any person or persons owning or having an interest in any bond or bonds secured by a mortgage or trust deed which constitutes a lien on real property to, for compensation, represent or act on behalf of any bondholder of bonds secured by the same lien or interest, in respect to such bonds so secured.

SEC. 14. From and after the date of filing of a petition with the commissioner, no enforcement may be had of any remedy at law or otherwise for claims in payment of principal or interest on any bond affected thereby until dismissal of the proceeding by the commissioner or the court, or until the lapse of one year after the approval of the plan without the plan becoming effective. Such period shall be excluded thereafter in determining when suit may be brought on such bond.

SEC. 15. For his services under such plan, the commissioner shall charge as follows:

(1) For the filing of a petition for readjustment, two hundred fifty dollars.

(2) For all other services in connection with such plan a reasonable sum estimated by the commissioner and paid to him within five days after filing the petition with him, sufficient to cover the expense of the commissioner in connection with the proceeding.

SEC. 16. No petition may be filed with the commissioner pursuant to this act on or after February 1, 1937. The Legislature hereby declares that this act is enacted in pursuance of the police power, for an emergency upon occasion with the effective date hereof and ending February 1, 1937, and that this act is made necessary by the extraordinary economic conditions now existing and which have, by reason of the decline in investment values, made readjustments of bonded indebtedness secured by liens on or interests in real property advisable and necessary.

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Senate Bill No. 1038.—An act to amend sections 1240 and 1241 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to condemnation.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Judiciary, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 1038 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 3, line 52 of the printed bill, as amended, after the period, insert the following: "But property appropriated to the use of any county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, may not be taken by any other county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, while such property is so appropriated and used for the public purposes for which it has been so appropriated, in any case where said county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district files a written objection to such takings with the other county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, desiring to take such property."

Amendment No. 2.

On page 6 of the printed bill, as amended, following line 15, insert the following:
 "But private property appropriated to the use of any county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, or irrigation district, or public utility district, or water district, may not be taken by any other county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal district, or irrigation district, or public utility district, or water district, while such property is so appropriated and used for the public purposes for which it has been so appropriated, in any case where said county, city and county, incorporated city or town, municipal water district, irrigation district, public utility district, or water district files a written objection to such taking with the other county, city and county, incorporated city or town, municipal water district, irrigation district, public utility district, or water district desiring to take such property."

Bill read second time, ordered to reprint, and re-referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Senate Bill No. 688—An act to amend sections 336 and 341 and to repeal section 685 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to limitation of actions and deficiency judgments.

Consideration of Committee Amendments.

Pursuant to the report of the Committee on Judiciary, the following amendments to Senate Bill No. 688 were read and adopted:

Amendment No. 1.

On page 1, line 1 of the title of the printed bill, strike out "and 341 and to repeal", and insert in lieu thereof the following: "341, 681 and".

Amendment No. 2.

On page 2 of the printed bill, strike out lines 5 and 6, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SEC. 3. Section 681 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

681. The party in whose favor judgment is given may, at any time within five years after the entry thereof, have a writ of execution issued for its enforcement, except in case of judgment for a deficiency after sale on foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust on real property, in which case no execution may be issued after the expiration of six months from the entry thereof. If, after the entry of the judgment, the issuing of execution thereon is stayed or enjoined by any judgment or order of court, or by operation of law, the time during which it is so stayed or enjoined must be excluded from the computation of the time within which execution may issue.

SEC. 4. Section 685 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

685. In all cases, except judgments for deficiency after sale under foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust, the judgment may be enforced or carried into execution after the lapse of five years from the date of its entry, by leave of the court, upon motion, and after due notice to the judgment debtor accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits setting forth the reasons for failure to proceed in compliance with the provisions of section 681 of this code. The failure to set forth such reasons as shall, in the discretion of the court, be sufficient, shall be ground for the denial of the motion.

Judgment in all cases may also be enforced or carried into execution after the lapse of five years from the date of its entry, by judgment for that purpose founded upon supplemental proceedings; but nothing in this section shall be construed to revive a judgment for the recovery of money which shall have been barred by limitation at the time of the passage of this act.

A judgment, heretofore rendered, for deficiency after sale under foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust, must be enforced within six months after the effective date of this amendment.

A judgment hereafter rendered for deficiency after sale under foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust must be enforced within six months of the date such judgment becomes final."
